By the KING.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGE, R.

WHEREAS Our Parliament stands prorogued to Thursday the eighteenth day of this instant December; We, with the advice of our Privy Council, do hereby publish and declare, that the said Parliament shall be further prorogued, on the said eighteenth day of this instant December, to Thursday the fifth day of February next; and We have given order to Our Chancellor of that part of Our United Kingdom called Great Britain, to prepare a commission for proroguing the same accordingly; and We do further hereby, with the advice aforesaid, declare Our Royal Will and Pleasure, that the said Parliament shall, on the said fifth day of February next, assemble and be held for the dispatch of divers urgent and important affairs: And the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Knights, Citizens, and Burgesses, and the Commissioners for Shires and Boroughs of the House of Commons, are hereby required and commanded to give their attendance accordingly, at Westminster, on the said fifth day of February next.

Given at Our Court at Windsor, this fifteenth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, and in the ninth year of Our reign.

GOD save the KING.

Foreign-Office, January 30, 1829.

The King has been graciously pleased to approve of M. Joseph de Canclaux, as Consul at Dublin for His Most Christian Majesty.

Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the North Riding of the County of York.

Thomas Stapleton, Esq. to be Deputy Lieutenant. Dated 10th January 1829.

Commission in the West Kent Regiment of Militia, signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Kent.

The Right Honourable William Pitt, Viscount Holmesdale, to be Captain. Dated 22d January 1829.

Whitehall, January 22, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Friday the 2d instant, some evil-disposed person or persons wilfully and maliciously set fire to the premises belonging to a farm called Purples, in the parish of Bardfield Saling, in the county of Essex, and that three barns, a stable, straw-house, cow-house, and other buildings, with two large stacks of corn, the property of Mr. Samuel Beddall, were totally destroyed. And whereas it hath been also humbly represented unto the King, that on the night of Monday the 5th, or morning of Tuesday the 6th instant, some evil-disposed person or persons wilfully and maliciously set fire to the premises belonging to a farm called The Hole, in the parish of Finchfield, in the said county, and that two barns, a stable, and other buildings, with eight stacks of corn, hay, and seed, the property of Mrs. Choate, were consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his ac-
