

complice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, the following rewards are hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offences, viz.: TWO HUNDRED and TWENTY-FIVE POUNDS by Mr. Walford, of Little Bardfield-Hall, in the county of Essex, for the discovery of the person or persons who set fire to the property of Mr. Samuel Beddall; and TWO HUNDRED and TEN POUNDS by Mr. William Pollet and Mr. Samuel Whitehead, Church Wardens of the parish of Finchingfield, in the said county, for the discovery of the person or persons who set fire to the property of Mrs. Choate.

Whitehall, January 22, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between five and six o'clock on the afternoon of Friday the 16th instant, two corn-stacks, the property of the Reverend Lewis Way, in the parish of Great Yeldham, in the county of Essex, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire and consumed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stacks) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Reverend Lewis Way, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, January 26, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between the hours of one and two on the afternoon of Sunday the 4th instant, some evil-disposed person or persons wilfully and maliciously set fire to the premises of Mr. Thomas Lowe, farmer, at Binton, near Stratford-upon-Avon, in the county of Warwick, and that a barn, containing a quantity of wheat, three large wheat ricks, and the stabling, were destroyed; and whereas it hath been also humbly represented unto the King, that, on Saturday the 17th instant, some evil-disposed person or persons wilfully and maliciously set fire to the premises of Mr. Salmon, at Teddington, near Stratford-upon-Avon, which destroyed the farming buildings and stock;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the County Fire-Office, the Birmingham Fire-Office, and the Stratford Association, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders in either of the above cases, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence or offences.—Such reward to be paid on application to J. Barber Beaumont, Esq. Managing Director of the County Fire-Office, Regent-street, London.

Admiralty-Office, January 26, 1829.
