In the Name of the Lord, Amen.

WHEREAS William Oldis and Samuel Spratt Strong the younger, natives of Great Britain, and residing in the Town of Poole, in the County of Dorset, came to the determination of opening a mercantile house and firm at Civita Vecchia, for the transaction of business on commission, one of them having transferred his domicile to Civita Vecchia, and established his principal residence there, with a view to the management of the business, and William deferring his own interests to those of the firm, having offered to abandon his Country and repair to Italy, the necessary steps were taken for entering into a Copartnership and establishing the covenants and conditions thereof, when a contract was executed by them on the 1st of September 1826, which having been voluntarily consented to by both parties no legal doubt can possibly arise with regard thereto. Immediately on William's arrival at Civita Vecchia he diligently applied himself to mercantile affairs, and in fact transacted sundry affairs, businesses, and concerns relating to the firm, to the complete satisfaction of Samuel, as by himself repeatedly declared. The concern was thus going on in an amicable manner, and it was generally supposed that it would be so continued in future, had not both William and Samuel been of a different opinion, inasmuch as each of them, after maturely consulting his own interests, came to a determination of dissolving the Partnership by them entered into, and having proceeded to a written but not verbal deliberation, being desirous of obviating and avoiding all differences and disputes between them hereafter, they resolved to dissolve the Partnership in question. Now, therefore, by this present private instrument of agreement, which is to avail as a sworn public instrument, be it manifest and made known, that the public contract or articles of Copartnership executed at Poole, in the County of Dorset, in the English Dominions, for the transaction of business on commission between Mr. William Oldis, now of Civita Vecchia, and Mr. Samuel Spratt Strong the younger, residing at Poole aforesaid, on the 1st day of September 1826, by the unanimous and complete consent of the contracting parties is from this day void, and so to be by all persons understood as null and void, inasmuch as the contracting parties hold and consider the same as and for dissolved and completely null and void. Having, therefore, equalized their accounts the one discharges the other in respect of all Partnership dealings and transactions, holding themselves as and for completely exonerated and discharged of and from all further obligations and engagements as fully and effectually as if no mercantile connection had ever existed between them; and although as men of honour, persevering in their intention, there exists no necessity for entering into any guarantee or security for the due performance of what hath been agreed upon between them, yet, nevertheless, lest any one should at any time molest or trouble them on any ground, pretext, or account whatsoever, they willed and do will that the present agreement be sustained and upheld by and through the protection and sanction of the laws of Great Britain, as also that the same be held good and valid under all other legal sanctions or obligations of any other Empire or Dominion, binding and obliging their persons and property not only in this but in every other better and more efficacious manner and form, as well for the perpetual duration of the said agreement, as that no one may at any time hereafter call in question the existence thereof.—In testimony whereof the said William and Samuel have set their hands to the present agreement, whereof two parts were drawn up for the use and inspection of the respective parties.—Done at Civita Vecchia, in Italy, within the Territories of the Holy Roman Church, on the 1st day of October, in the year of the Nativity of our Lord Jesus Christ, 1827.
