The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Thursday, February 5, 1829.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

HIS Majesty commands us to inform you, that He continues to receive from His Allies, and generally from all Princes and States, the assurance of their unabated desire to cultivate the most friendly relations with His Majesty.

Under the mediation of His Majesty, the preliminaries of a Treaty of Peace between His Imperial Majesty the Emperor of Brazil and the Republic of the United Provinces of Rio de la Plata have been signed and ratified.

His Majesty has concluded a Convention with the King of Spain, for the final settlement of the claims of British and Spanish subjects preferred under the Treaty signed at Madrid on the 12th March 1823.

His Majesty has directed a copy of this Convention to be laid before you; and His Majesty relies upon your assistance to enable Him to execute some of its provisions.

His Majesty laments that His diplomatic relations with Portugal are still necessarily suspended.

Deeply interested in the prosperity of the Portuguese Monarchy, His Majesty has entered into negotiations with the Head of the House of Braganza, in the hope of terminating a state of affairs which is incompatible with the permanent tranquillity and welfare of Portugal.

His Majesty commands us to assure you, that He has laboured unremittingly to fulfil the stipulations of the Treaty of the 6th July 1827, and to effect, in concert with His Allies, the pacification of Greece.

The Morea has been liberated from the presence of the Egyptian and Turkish forces. This important object has been accomplished by the successful exertions of the naval forces of His Majesty and of His Allies, which led to a Convention with the Pacha of Egypt; and finally, by the skilful disposition and exemplary conduct of the French army, acting by the commands of His Most Christian Majesty on the behalf of the Alliance.

The troops of His Most Christian Majesty, having completed the task assigned to them by the Allies, have commenced their return to France.

It is with great satisfaction that His Majesty informs you, that, during the whole of these operations, the most cordial union has subsisted between the forces of the three Powers by sea and land.

His Majesty deplores the continuance of hostilities between the Emperor of Russia and the Ottoman Porte.

His Imperial Majesty, in the prosecution of those hostilities, has considered it necessary to resume the exercise of His belligerent rights in the Mediterranean, and has established a blockade of the Dardanelles.

From the operation of this blockade those commercial enterprises of His Majesty's subjects have been exempted, which were undertaken upon the faith of His Majesty's declaration to His Parliament respecting the neutrality of the Mediterranean Sea.

Although it has become indispensable for His Majesty and the King of France to suspend the co-operation of their forces with those of His Imperial Majesty, in consequence of this resumption of the exercise of His belligerent rights, the best understanding prevails between the three Powers in their endeavours to accomplish the remaining objects of the Treaty of London.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

We are commanded by His Majesty to acquaint you, that the estimates for the current year will forthwith be laid before you. His Majesty relies on your readiness to grant the necessary supplies, with a just regard to the exigencies of the public service, and to the economy which His Majesty is anxious to enforce in every department of the State.

His Majesty has the satisfaction to announce to you the continued improvement of the revenue. The progressive increase in that branch of it which is derived from articles of internal consumption is peculiarly gratifying to His Majesty, as affording a decisive indication of the stability of the national resources, and of the increased comfort and prosperity of His people.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

The state of Ireland has been the object of His Majesty's continued solicitude.

His Majesty laments that in that part of the United Kingdom an Association should still exist which is dangerous to the public peace, and inconsistent with the spirit of the Constitution; which keeps alive discord and ill-will amongst His Majesty's subjects; and which must, if permitted to continue, effectually obstruct every effort permanently to improve the condition of Ireland.

His Majesty confidently relies on the wisdom and on the support of His Parliament; and His Majesty feels assured, that you will commit to Him such powers as may enable His Majesty to maintain His just authority.

His Majesty recommends, that when this essential object shall have been accomplished, you should take into your deliberate consideration the whole condition of Ireland; and that you should review the laws which impose civil disabilities on His Majesty's Roman Catholic subjects.

You will consider whether the removal of those disabilities can be effected consistently with the full and permanent security of our establishments in Church and State, with the maintenance of the reformed Religion established by law, and of the rights and privileges of the Bishops and of the Clergy of this Realm, and of the Churches committed to their charge. These are institutions which must ever be held sacred in this Protestant Kingdom, and which it is the duty and the determination of His Majesty to preserve inviolate.

His Majesty most earnestly recommends to you to enter upon the consideration of a subject of such paramount importance, deeply interesting to the best feelings of His people, and involving the tranquillity and concord of the United Kingdom, with the temper and the moderation which will best ensure the successful issue of your deliberations.
