City of Dublin Tontine.

THE Subscribers to the Life Annuities granted by the Corporation of the City of Dublin, on the 24th day of June 1776, who are to be paid their interest in London, may receive half a year's annuity due at Christmas last, by applying to Mr. Henry Schultes, Solicitor (who has been appointed Agent to the Corporation for the management of the said Tontine), at the Irish Agency Office, Messrs. Saunders and Comyn, No. 1, Queen-street-place, Southwarke-bridge, London, on Tuesdays and Wednesdays, between the hours of ten and twelve. The Corporation of Dublin being desirous of ascertaining to a certainty the existence of the nominees on whose lives the annuities were granted, in order to obtain a certain ground for the calculation of the increased dividends to be paid on the falling of the lives, and feeling the conditions of many of them have been so much altered in the period of fifty-two years since such annuities were granted, as to render it necessary to procure a more special certificate than that which has been heretofore given, have prepared and caused to be printed a form of certificate to be produced by the parties applying for payment, who are requested to send to Mr. Schultes at any time for the same, in order that they may have it filled up prior to the application for payment; and as this measure is intended to procure justice to the real survivors, the Corporation trust that they will cooperate with them in carrying it into effect. It is requested that the bonds may be produced.

Hy. Schultes, Secretary to the Irish Society, Guildhall.
