The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday August 27. to Thursday August 30. 1683.

Whiteball, August 29.

He following Addresses having been presented to His Majesty, His Majesty was pleased to receive them very graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

E your Majesties Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, Captains and other Officers of the Militia of your Coun-Gfficers of the Militia of your County of Nottingham, ferioully reflecting upon this molt Bloody Conspiracy, carried on by a fort of Unreafonable Men that have cast off all sense of Loyalty and Religion (to which nevertheless they are the greatest Pretenders) which to accomplish they have held many Treasonable Consultations, to Assaliante the Persons of your Sacred Majesty, and His Royal Highness the Duke of York, to the Subversion of the present Government, and Involving your Kingdoms in all the sad Consequences of Treason and Rebellion.

bellion.

We do affire your Sacred Majesty, that in defence of your Royal Person, your Prerogatives, Government, and the Lawful Succession, we will chearfully on all occasions, lay down our Lives and Fortunes, and constantly use our utmost Force, against the Wicked Contrivances of all Traitors and Conspirators whatsoever, and of those in particular, that are or may be justly suspected guilty of this late most Bloody Conspiracy; which unalterable Resolutions we second with our earnest Prayers, That God will ever frustrate by a timely Discovery all wicked Conspiracies against your Sacred Person and Government, and that he will still preserve your Majesty and the Royal Family for a Blessing to us and our Posterities.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of Your Majesties Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Borough of Aylesbury in the County of Bucks.

Dread Soveraign,

T' was easie to-foresee a Rebellion hatching under the wings of the Popish Plot, by the constant Seditions Practises of the Dissenting Parties, and other ill Men; and doubtless ere this time the Cockatrice had come to persection, had not your Majesties vigilent Care and wise Conduct given it frequent Interruptions: But so the hearts of Men, till these Devils in Flesh pitched upon it, (we tremble, and with the utmost Detestation recount it) to Assamble, and with the utmost Detestation recount it) to Assamble, and with the utmost Detestation recount it) to Assamble, and with the utmost Detestation recount it) to Assamble, and with the utmost Detestation recount it) to Assamble, and with the utmost Detestation recount it) to Assamble, and with the utmost Detestation recount it) to Assamble, and with the utmost Detestation recount it) to Assamble, and with the utmost Detestation recount it) to Assamble, and with the utmost Detestation recount it) to Assamble, and with the utmost Detestation recount it) to Assamble, and with the utmost Detestation recount it) to Assamble, and with the utmost Detestation Detestation recount it) and present of the District of the Devil of the Utmost Detestation of the District of the Devil of the D Michinations of Blood-thirfty and Deceitful Men; Wherefore with Joyful Hearts we adore and magnific God for this His wonderful Mercy, and we pray unto Him to continue His wonted Protection to your Majesty, your Illustrious Brother, and your Kingdoms, and to strengthen your Majesties Hands, to destroy the Roots and Seeds of this Infernal Plot (which we humbly conceive to have been first planted and sowed in Seditions Conventicles, by what higher influence soever since watered and cultivated) that the wickedness of the Wicked watered and cultivated) that the wickedness of the Wicked may come to an end, to the more firm eltablishment of your Majestics Crown and Dignity, and to the Unity and Peace of the Church and Kingdom; And here we humbly crave leave to renew our Solemn Engagement, of our Lives and all that is dear unto us, to detend your Majesties Sacred Person, your Heirs and Successors, and your Excellent Government, both in Church and State, as by Law established; and with most Loyal Hearts we do assure your Majesty, that no Fastious Insinuations of causeless Fears and Jealqusses, by pretended Patriots or others; under what Pretence soever, shall move us from these fixed and sincere Resolutions of Your Majesties most Obedient

Your Majetties molt Obedient and Loyal Subjects.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Hereford.

PArdon (Deard Soveraign) Your Faithful Subjects, that they have not at this Remote Diltance, as early as others, Congratulated your Deliverance from that horrid Configuracy, form'd and carried on by Desperate Villains (milcall'd Protestants) to compass the Dearth and Destruction of your Sacred Person, and your Dearest Brother His Royal Highness, James Duke of York.

James Duke of York.

We do with Horror and Amazement now fee, that the Treafonable Defigns of Celebrated and pretended Patriots, was to bring in Confusion and Anarchy, and that from those Hives of Faction the Conventicles, did swarm these Hellish Monsters of Rebellion and Treason, and will still do so, since in them Divisions are made and Fomented, and a Disastection to your Person and Government taught.

As we look upon this Treasonable Design with Indignation and Desetstation so we cannot but think upon your handy Desets.

and Detestation, so we cannot but think upon your happy Deand Detestation, so we cannot but think upon your happy Deliverance and your Royal Brothers, with united hearts full of Joy and Thanksgiving to God, who hath by a long Series of Miracles and Providencies, continually Preserved your Majesty, from the hands of Your Blood-thirsty Enemies. We as obliged in duty (and Self-preservation) humbly beleech your Majesty to have a due Care of the Satety of your Sacred Person, and as well to secure it, from sly-trimming Sycophants, as more open Enemies, and to take from all Persons suspected to the Government, the power of doing Mischief, Arms and Places of Trust. We in our Station will do our Duty, not only pray to the Almighty to be still Your Defence, but also by all ways and means, endeavour to detectand break all Conspiracies fram'd or design'd by any Persons, (of what Person soever) against your Royal Persons. fons, (of what Perswasion soever) against your Royal Person and Government, and shall readily and chearfully, at all times, and on all occasions, expose our Lives and Fortunes, in defence of Your Sacred Person, your Heirs and lawful Successors, and the Government in Church and State, as now by Law established.

Law ettablished.

In Testimony of our entire Unanimity in this our hearty and unseign'd Resolution, we have caused the Common Seal of this Your Ancient and Loyal City, to be hereunto assisted, at the Guild-hall of the said City, the Three and twentieth day of July, in the Five and thirtieth Year of your Majesties Reign.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty:

Most Sacred and Dread Soveraign,

TE Your Majesties most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, The Bayliffs, Aldermen, and Burgestes of your Majesties Ascient Corporation of Morpeth, with most humble and chearful Thankfu lines, always acknowledging to God and the whole World, the manifold and unipeakable Bleffings of Peace and Prosperity, we and all our fellow Subjects have been most liberally Partakers of under the Auspicious Influences of Your Majellies most careful Administration of Justice, and the wise Conduct of your Princely Government over us, your Majesty having been our Second Justinian and Glorious Restorer of our Lot Laws and true Liberties; We cannot now but stand as in an Extaly amazed at the repeated and unwearied Hellish Attempts of the Sons of Violence, and the afresh Revived Pernitious Deligns of our English Catalines and Ravilliacks, who hurried on by the Diabolical Impulse of Panaviniacks, who nurried on by the Diabolical Impulse of Fana-tical Frenzy and Actimonarchical Principles, most impiously intended to have barbaroutly Assalinated Your Sacred Ma-letty (whom God long Preserve) as also your Majesties most Royal and Dear Brother, James Duke of York, whom God also desend; And thereby at one Blow to have strook at and destroyed the Head and Root of the best Constituted Goone detroyed the Head and Root of the best Constituted Cowernment under Heaven, and to have again Manacled Us and our Posserity with that Cruel and worse than Fayprian Slavery, which in the late cursed Interregnum of Tyranny and Oppression, was Arbitrarily by Rebellious Usurpers, imposed upon their Fellow Subjects, and the which was a Yoke neither we nor our Ancestors could bear.

We do be suppose the first place (as in all duriful Allegia)

we nor our Ancestors could near.

We do hereupon in the first place (as in all duriful Allegiance bound) render unto Almighty God, the Author of all Blellings, everlasting Praise for this and the many other His even Miraculous Deliverances of your Majettles sacred Perfon and His Royal Highness: And we do most hearrist pray to God, that both your Majetty and His Royal Highness may always be Preferred from all Mutinous Corah's, Rebellious Absoloms, and Persidious Achitophels, and all other Bloodthirthy Traitors.

And as we do further in all Humility hereby declare our perfect hatred and abhorrence not only of this, but of all order Configurations of all Democratical, Sedicions and Schifmatical Spirits, So we will (Dread Sir) at all times be ready according to our Mite, with our Lives and Portunes, to Defend and maintain your Majellies Sacred Person and Prerogative, and this Antient Monarchy in its Lineal and Lawful Succession, and the Government of the Church, as by Law now established, freed from all King-killing Doctrines.

That the King of Kings would vouchfare your Majetty a long and happy Reign over us, bleffed here with Victory overall your Enemies, and after this Life ended, an Immortal and Immarcescible Crown of Glory, is and fhall be the jucesiant and unanimous Prayers of

(Great Sir)

Your Majesties most Loyal, most Paintful and Obedient Subjects and Servants,

With the Unanimous Confent of the rest of the Burgesses and Freemen of our faid Corporation, Arrested by affixing our Common Seal at our Guild-hall, the 16th of July, in the 35. Year of Your Majelties most Gracious Reign over us.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgesses of Your Majesties Ancient Corporation of Portsmouth, with the Commanders and Officers of the Garison.

Dread Sir,

B Your Majesties most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, in Contemplation of the Divine Providence in the continual and wonderful Preservation of Your Majesties Sacred Person, and Dearest Brother, the Royal and Illustrious Prince James Duke of York, do adore and magnify the molt High God for His Mercy; And with Horror and Attonihment we behold the monitrous ingratitude, the perfictious Villany, the retitless and implacable Malice of those, who by the name of Protestants, do protest against all Loyalty and Obedience, Profettants, do proteir against all Loyally and Obedience, against all Order and Government, who under presence of securing Religion, would destroy the Royal Desender of the Catholique and Apostolique Fairh in the Chorch of England established, and with unparalell'd Zeal and Constancy, by Your Sacred Majesty and Royal Ancestors maintained, to the unspeakable happiness of Your Majesty's Kingdoms. In Abhorrence sucretore of the wicked Conspiracies and Associations of these Socializations. Presenders, who are of the socializations of these Socializations are sucretored. ciations of these Sacrilegious Pretenders, who out of the Ruines of Christianity it self (which they seek to overthrow) would erect a Spurious Religion, composed of nothing but Athe-ism and Hypocrific, and for Liberty introduce the worst of Ty ranny and Slavery: We do humbly render Thanks to Almighty

God for the seasonable discovery of their Wickedness; And we do hereby humbly express our Duty to your Majelty, That as our Lives and Fortunes shall be always readily and chearfully exposed in defence of your Majetties Royal Person and Relations, so our urmost endeavours thall be to detect and prevent all fuch horrid Machinations and Contrivances; And that those Night-Wolves, those black and dark Conspirators may be brought to light and condign Punishment; that all the Royal and Innocent Bood they have formerly, and would again shed, may be on their own Heads, And that on your Royal Majesties and Loustrious Family, the Imperial Crown may for ever flourish in Peace and Tranquillity.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

WE the Mayor, Bayliffs, and Common-Council of this your ancient and Loyal Corporation of Newcaltle-under-Lyne in your County of Stafford, affembled in Council in the Guild-hall of the faid Borough, the eighteenth day of July, incerely weighing (and bleffing God for) the happy Discovery of a most Horrid Conspiracy by the worst of men, for the Alluftmation of the Perion of jour most Sacred Ma-jesty and Dearest Brother, do give our most unfeigned hearty thanks to Almighty God tor your great Deliverance from the fame; imploring Heaven (which alone defends the Persons of Kings) Itill to protect Your Majetty and Posterity from or Kings) that to protect four Alletty and Potterty from uncalonable men, to frulrate and contound all their Devices. And shall ever be ready with our Lives and Fortunes to defend your Person, your Heirs and lawful Successors, and the Religion now by Law establised against all Plots and Conspiracies whatsever. In Tellimony whereof we have hereunto put our Common Scal the Isid eighteenth day of July, in the five and Thirtieth year of Your Majesties Reign, &c.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The bumble Address of the Bayliffe, Alderman, and Burgesses of Your Majesties antient Town, Corporation, and Borough of Bruges alias Bridgenorth, within Your County of Salop.

May it please Your Majesty,

E Your Majeflies most Loyal, Faithful, and Obedient Subjects, unfeignedly rendring our manks to Almighty God for Your Majetties early and constant Preservation from the Malice of Your Enemies, (and which is most detestible) Rebellious Subjects, do at this time most heartily congratulate Your Majeties Safe and Biessed Deliverance from the most execuable Treason that could be imagined or projected by wicked and desperate Persons, who (as we are informed by Your Majellies late Proclamations for their Apprehension) designed the Destruction of Your Majellies Sacred Person, together with His Royal Highness the Duke of York, Your Majesties most Dear Brother; the Sence of which, as it justly fills us with Horror and Altonishment, so it makes as it justly fills us with Horror and Altonishment, so it makes us consider the Instruments thereof, as Persons of most permiscious Principles, who would presume by force to clude Heaven it self, and antedate Gods appointed time for Soveraign Princes here on Earth; but Blessed be the King of Kings, who hath been a Shield to Your Majesty from the Rage of Your Enemies, the same God we assuredly hope will watch over Your Majesty and Royal Highness both night and day, and not only discover and consound all those that rise up against You, and see after Your most pretious Lives, but return their wickedness upon their own Heads.

Great Sir,

Suffer us once more humbly and fincerely to declare unto you, that we will freely offer up our Lives and Fortunes in defence of Your Majesties Sacred Person and Government, as now established in Church and State; and we earnessly be-seech Almighty God, to defend and protect Your most Sacred Majetty, his own Anointed and true Defender of the Pain, together with Your Royal Brother the Duke of York, from the Conspiracies, Treasons, Attempts and Machinations of Impious and Bruitish men, may the years of your Reign be many and Prosperous over us, and when by Divise Providence duely accomplished in this World, may You be Crowned with Second Colonia. with Eternal Glory in Heaven.

Dated the eighteenth day of July in the Five and thirtieth year of our most Gracious Soveraiga Charles the Second, over England, &c At our Common Hall held at Bridgemorth aforefaid, and subscribed by us, whose Names are here present, in the name of all the Burgesses of the said Corporation, and have hereuato affixed our Common Seal of Office.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The bumble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses of the Borough of Harwich in the County of Effex.

Most Gracious Soveraign,

E Your Majetties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, be ing deeply sensible of the late Horrid, Barbarous, Treasonable Conspiracy of divers ill-affected and desperate Persons, to compais the Death and Destruction of Your Majesties Royal Persons, and Dearest Brother, contrived and carried on by versons of pernicious and bloody Principles, in order to the involving this Your Majesties Kingdom into Blood, and for a total Subversion of the Government, under which we and our Ancestors have long continued a most happy Become People.

We do in all Humility and Thankfulnes bless Almighty God for this fo happy Discovery of such a Hellish Plot, and for his great Mercies to us in this his Miraculous Preservation of Your Majesties Sacred Person from the Violence of unrea-lonable and Wicked men. Beseeching God to continue his Gracious Protection over Your Royal Person and Government.

For the Preservation and Support of which, under Your Sacred Majesty, Your Heirs and Successors, against this and all other Treasonable Conspiracies whatsoever, we shall always readily and heartily expole our Lives and Fortunes, con tinually offering up our hearty Prayers unto Almighty God, for Your Majelties Long, Prosperous, and Glorious Reign

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The bumble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Alder men, Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Huntingdon.

May it please your Majesty.

YOur Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects of Your Majesties antient Borough and Corporation of Huntingdon, in a deep sense of the manifold Elestings and great happiness we esjoy under Your Majeliles most Gracious Government, and ste infinite goodness of Almighty God, in Your Majellies sacred Person, and Royal Brother, from the hands and Contrivances of Phanatick, Traiterous, and blood-thirty men, do humbly crave leave again to prolifere our selection. and Royal Brothers fair Deliverance, and declare our Dete flation from the bottom of our hearts, of all manner of Con-fpiracies, Aflociations, Leagues and Covenants, against Your Majesties Sacred Person or Government, or the Lineal Des cent of this Imperial Crown, and do strictly bind our selves to use our utmost endeavours to detect and oppose all such Confederacies, and to be ever ready to Sacrifice out Lives and Fortunes in the defence of Your Majellics Sacred Person and Lawful Saccessors, and our Religion, as now by Lawestablish'd, most heartily imploring the same Divine goodness, ever to watch over, and preserve Your Majelty and Government; as the greatest of Blessings to this Nation,

Your Majesties most Loyal, and ever Dutiful Subjects.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

To the King's Moss Excellent Majesty.

The the Port-Riewe, Justices of the Peace, Burgesse, and truly Loyal Corporation of Great Bedwin in the County of Wilts, being lately informed by Your Majesties are Proclamations, of the Blessed and Happy Discovery of that late most Damnable, Horrid, and not to be paralelled Treasionable Plot and Conspiracy, contrived, and (as we have caule to believe) many years past carried on by the Secret Conspiracy of the most Factious and Seditious of Your Majesties Subjects, who make their Prefences of the Religion, the Seed-Plot of their new designed Rebellion, do most humbly and heattily Bless Almighty God, that hattis to timely prevented their in-Blefs Almighty God, that hatti fo timely prevented their in-tended Execution thereof. And (as we are all in duty bound) ever pray for the Prefervation of Your most Gracious Mapelties Sacred Person, and Your Dear and Royal Brotter, and all Your Royal Race and Posterity, against all such Saranical Fantastical, and Fanatical Plots and Conspiracies; and ever will, to the utinost of our Lives and Fortunes, defend your m oft Sacred Persons and Government, against such, and all other Plots and Conspiracies what soever: And will ever be Your Majelties most Loyal and Faithful Subjects.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the Kings Town and Parish of Maidstone, agreed at a Court of Burghmote there bolden, the eighteenth day of July, Auno Dom. 1.83. And fixed their Common Seal.

Dread Soveraign,

E Your Majesties most Obedi nt and Loyal Subjects; Reoping in mind the Miraculous Providence that preferred and reflored Your Majetly to Your Princely I brone, and Right of Dominion. Likewife fentible of the great Freedom and Fiappinefs, which all Your Subjects have enjoyed for more than twenty years, under your wife and Fatterly Protection, living in an eafie and quier courle of Government. undiffurbed in their Properties and Keligion, affured alfo, feeing in frequent inflances, that Gods immediate care watches for the Prefervation of Your Sacred Perfond are aftonished to know, that men could be found to wicken, that it should enter into the Hearts of the Subjects of so gracious a Prince; to contrive Villashous Associations, and to conspire the Murder of their Soveraign, and Gods Anointed. clous a Prince; to contrive Villainous Anociations, and to confipre the Murder of their Soveraign, and Gods Anointed, and his only Dear Brother. His R yal Highness James Duke of York; Pis to proclaim themselves Atheiths, and Asch-Traytor; hated by good men and for whom, even the bad can have nothing to lay, but that they ought to seffer the utmost Severity of deserved Publishment.

As we have offered our Privace Prayers and Thanks for the Divine Disappointment, so we could not relt fatt fied un-ril we appeared publickly to tellifie, that we Biels Gods in-finite Mercy for the happy Deliverance and receive u Creakable Joy in Your Saferies.

As this Corporation, by the Favour of Your Mij flies An-ciftors, bears the Honorable Character of the Kings Town of Maidlione, and hath the fame lately relewed, and confirmed by Your Majeffies Gracions Grant of a new Charrer, with addition of Priviledges; so we shall, upon every com-mand, be forward and constant in our Duty; to stand by the, Crown in Your Majesties Sacred Person, and in the Right of Succession; ready to oppose Factions Practices, and aspiring Rebels, and to continue Religion as ellablished from Fana-tical Attempts. We, to shew our Zeal for the one, and af-fection for the other, in our little Province, discountenance the Discontented under Government, and leave not Diffenters their Conventicles. We new again out of Duty and Loyalts, renew our former Attellations, as firmly fixed; and humbly devote our Lives and Formes to Your Majellies Service, whole Lite and Reign the Almighty long 1 televes. and prosper with increase of B.eslings.

Madrid, August 19 The King; who was indis p if d for two or three days, is now perfectly well again. This week arrived in re an Express from France, with News of the death of that Queen; This Court is thereupon gone into Mourning, and the King has named the Count de Vilalonfo to go and make his Complement of Contolance to his most Christian Najetty. Our Letters from Al cant of the third Inflant fell us that the Spanish Armada was Sailed for the Coast of Italy.

Drefden, August 17. The Elector of Saxony having resolved to assist the Emperor with 12000 Men, his Eector Highness parted from hence the 11 Instant at the Head of these Troops, I tending to take his march through Bokemia. The States of the Upper Saxony will Assemble the to Instant ac Leipsicke, to confider of the present state of the Empire, and to take fitting Resolutions thereupon.

Francfort, August 26. The Troops of the Elefor of Saxony, confifting of fix Regiments of Foot and fix of Horie, making tog thei 12000 Benyate marching with a very good I fain of Artiflety through Bobemia, to coyn the Imperial Army Its faid that the Duke of Jake Gotha is fending fix Regiments of Horie to the Emperor's affiffance.

Hambourg;

Hamburg, August 24. The twelfth of this month the King of Denmark arrived at Oldensto, and having viewed his Troops that were encamped there, his Majesty parted from thence the next day for Rensburg; and the Count de Roye, and Lieutenant General Duncan went by his order to visit the four Baillages belonging to the Duke of Holstein Gottorp, where it's said the Danish Troops are to lodge. The Letters we have from Schonen are to lodge. tell us, that the King of Sweden had been at Malmoe, Carelfcroon, and Landscroon, and that he was going for Gottenburg. They write from Berlin, that the Troops which the Elector of Brandenburg designs to send to the assistance of the Emperor against the Turks, do assemble at Crossen, but that they will not march till the Treaty which the Prince of Anhalt does now negotiate at Passaw, is concluded; and that one of the main Articles of the said Treaty, as it is proposed by his Electoral Highness is, That the Emperor do establish a firm Peace with the Crown of France, upon the Terms proposed by his most Christian Majesty.

Cologne, August 27. We have no Letters from Passaw, since those of the 18th instant, which gave an account of the Affault which the Turks made the 9th upon the Counterscarp of Vienna; and of the Emperors Resolution to part from Passaw on the 23d to go and meet the King of Poland, who it was faid would be at Crembs the 26th or 27th, but we have several advices from Ratisbonne and other places, which tell us that the Armies which are defigned for the relief of Vienna, would not be joyned till the 29th or the 30th of this month; and that it was feared the befieged would in the mean time be brought to extremity. There are Letters which say that the Duke of Lorrain had defired that so soon as the Auxilliary Troops of the Empire had joyned the Imperial Army, he might, without expecting the arrival of the King of Poland, endeavour the relief of the Town, but that the Emperor did not think fit to hazard a Battle, the Success whereof would be of so vast Importance to him, till all the Forces, that are new marching, and particularly those of the King of Poland are joyned together,

Paris, September 4. On Thursday last the King Hunting in Fontainebleau Forest, had a very ill fall; and it was thought at first he had broke his Arm, but it was only put out at the Elbow, which was p. clently Set again; and a Mellenger was immediately fent hither to give the Dauphin and the Duke of Orleans (who were here to affift at the Queens Enterment at St. Denis) an account of the accident, and that it was not of that confequence, but that his Majesty would have them flay and finish the Solemnity. Most of the young Nobility that were at Court, are gone to the King's Army in Flanders, which is Commanded We have nothing by the Marcichal d' Humieres. new from Monsieur du Quesne Our last Letters from Germany give us an account, That the Turks do push on the Siege of Vienna with all the vigor they are able; that they have made several sierce affaults upon the Counterfearp (and some Letters fay they have lodged themselves there;) That the Befieged feem to be full of courage and resolution, and that it was hoped they would be able to defend the place till such time as the Polish Army, and the Auxilliary Troops of the Empire are come up, and joyned, which it was expected they would be about the 28 or 29. of the last Month.

Plimouth, August 24. The 22. instant arrived here the Lord Dartmouth, and the next day his Lordship Sailed again with His Majesty Ships under his Command to the Westward.

Deal, August 25. Last Night came into the Downs a Dutch Man of War with three Merchant Ships, bound to the Southward, being forced in by foul Weather.

Windsor, August 29. This day the Court removed from hence to Winchefler, where His Majesty intends to pais some short time.

I IS Majesty being informed that Hu Game of Hare, Pheasant, Partridge, &c. near the City of Winchester (where he intends to resort for His Recreation and Disport) is very much destroyed by several disorderly persons, with Nets, Guns, Dogs, and Engines, contrary to Law; His Majesty does strictly Charge and Command all persons whom it may concern to take all possible care for preventing the said Disorders, and Misdemeanors; and does declare that he will cause the Offenders to be punished with the utmost Severity of Law.

A Grant to Thomas Smith Esq; to hold two Fairs on the Walte in Stonehouse-Green alias Stonehouse-street in the County of Gloucester, the one on the 29th of September, and the other on the 20th day of April yearly for ever, and each to continue for three days.

Advertisements.

The Trials of the late Lord Russel, Captain Walcot, John Rouse, William Hone, and Captain Biague, for Conspiring the Death of the King, &c. Are now Printed and Published by Richard Roylton, Ben. Took, and Charles

Hele are to give notice that Houlden Fair in Yorkshire will be strictly kept this year, and that particular care will be taken, that no Goods be exposed to Sale before the 14th day of September next.

The Creditors of Mr. Benjamin Hinton of London Goldlmith, are defired to repair forthwith to the House of Mr. Fdward Ambrole at the Stocks-Market, there to Sign and Seal the Instrument of Agreement between the said Mr. Hinton and his Creditors, unto which their Trustees and he hath Signed and Sealed.

These are to give Notice to the Creditors of Mr. John Staley, Deceased, that have not Signed the last Agreement, in which Mr. William Colegrave, Mr. Charles Hinton, Mr. Francis Knollys, Mr. Charles Hickford, and Mr. James Supples, are defired by many of the Creditors, to take upon them the management of all that business. That if the remem me management or all that builders. That if the remaining part of the faid Creditors will speedily come in and Sign the faid Agreement; Mrs. Staley, his Daughter, promises touse her utmost endeavors for the discovery of all his Estate, upon such Conditions as were proposed by him in his Life time, as soon as they have signed to the conditions. Life-time, as foon as they have Sign'd the fame; which they may do at the Faulcon Coffee-house against St. Dunstan's Church, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, at four a Clock in the Afternoon

A Blackamoor, a lufty young Fellow, with Notches cross his Nose and down his Forehead, ran away from his Malter, on the 27th of this Inflant August. He was habited in a Grey Livery, Lined and Edged with Red, and buttofied with Pewter Buttons, and a Cap of the fame. Whoever can give notice of him to Mr John Bridges, Pin-maker, in Che-quer-Alley in Bunhill-Fields, or to Mr. William Uttber, Fishmonger at the Hermitage-bridge, shall be well rewarded.

Tolen or thraved away, August the 20th, out of the Grounds of Mrs. Mary Loft, near St. Albans in the County of Hertford, one Gray Gelding near fifteen hand high, about six years of Age, marked with a Wen above the near Nostril, Trots and Gallops well, with a bob Tail. Who-foever finds the fame Gelding, or brings notice of him to the Wheat-Sheaf in St. Martins Legrand, or to Mrs. Mary Lost at the Mare Maid in St. Albans, shall have one Guinea re-