Published by Authority.

From Monday August 27. to Thursday August 30. 1683.

Whitehall, August 29.

The following Addressees having been presented to His Majesty, His Majesty was pleased to receive them very graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

WE your Majesties Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, Captains and other Officers of the Militia of your County of Nottingham, seriously reflecting upon this most Bloody Conspiracy, carried on by a sort of Unreasonable Men that have cast off all sense of Loyalty and Religion (to which nevertheless they are the greatest Pretenders) which to accomplish they have held many Treasonable Consultations, to Assassinate the Persons of your Sacred Majesty, and His Royal Highness the Duke of York, to the Subversion of the present Government, and Involving your Kingdoms in all the sad Consequences of Treason and Rebellion.

We do assure your Sacred Majesty, that in defence of your Royal Person, your Prerogatives, Government, and the Lawful Succession, we will cheerfully on all occasions, lay down our Lives and Fortunes, and constantly use our utmost Force, against the Wicked Contrivances of all Traitors and Conspirators whatsoever, and of those in particular, that are or may be justly suspected guilty of this late most Bloody Conspiracy; which unalterable Resolutions we second with our earnest Prayers, That God will ever frustrate by a timely Discovery all wicked Conspiracies against your Sacred Person and Government, and that he will still preserve your Majesty and the Royal Family for a Blessing to us and our Posterities.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of Your Majesties Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Inhabitants of the Borough of Aylesbury in the County of Bucks.

Dread Sovereign,

IT was easie to-foresee a Rebellion hatching under the wings of the Popish Plot, by the constant Seditious Practises of the Dissenting Parties, and other ill Men; and doubtless ere this time the Cockatrice had come to perfection, had not your Majesties vigilant Care and wise Conduct given it frequent Interruptions: But so Inhumane and Hellish a Conspiracy lately discovered, sure never entered into the hearts of Men, till these Devils in Flesh pitched upon it, (we tremble, and with the utmost Detestation recount it) to Assassinate your Sacred Majesty, your Dear and only Brother the Illustrious Duke of York, to raise a horrible Rebellion, in a moment to fill your Kingdoms with Blood and Confusion; Oh the Dismall Consequences of that day had the Enormous Villany prevailed! But God, who by many signal Instances hath manifested His special Care for His Anointed, hath, by His never-to-be-forgotten Providence, Miraculously delivered your Sacred Majesty and Royal Brother, and in Your Persons all your good Subjects, (whose Lives were and are bound up in Yours) from the Hell-plotted Michinations of Blood-thirsty and Deceitful Men; Wherefore with Joyful Hearts we adore and magnific God for this His wonderful Mercy, and we pray unto Him to continue His wonted Protection to your Majesty, your Illustrious Brother, and your Kingdoms, and to strengthen your Majesties Hands, to destroy the Roots and Seeds of this Infernal Plot (which we humbly conceive to have been first planted and sowed in Seditious Conventicles, by what higher Influence soever since watered and cultivated) that the wickedness of the Wicked may come to an end, to the more firm establishment of your Majesties Crown and Dignity, and to the Unity and Peace of the Church and Kingdom; And here we humbly crave leave to renew our Solemn Engagement, of our Lives and all that is dear unto us, to defend your Majesties Sacred Person, your Heirs and Successors, and your Excellent Government, both in Church and State, as by Law established; and with most Loyal Hearts we do assure your Majesty, that no Factious Insinuations of causeless Fears and Jealousies, by pretended Patriots or others; under what Pretence soever, shall move us from these fixed and sincere Resolutions of

Your Majesties most Obedient and Loyal Subjects.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Citizens of the City of Hereford.

PARDON (Dear Sovereign) Your Faithful Subjects, that they have not at this Remote Distance, as early as others, Congratulated your Deliverance from that horrid Conspiracy, form'd and carried on by Desperate Villains (miscall'd Protestants) to compass the Death and Destruction of your Sacred Person, and your Dearest Brother His Royal Highness, James Duke of York.

We do with Horror and Amazement now see, that the Treasonable Designs of Celebrated and pretended Patriots, was to bring in Confusion and Anarchy, and that from those Hives of Faction the Conventicles, did swarm these Hellish Monsters of Rebellion and Treason, and will still do so, since in them Divisions are made and Fomented, and a Disaffection to your Person and Government taught.

As we look upon this Treasonable Design with Indignation and Detestation, so we cannot but think upon your happy Deliverance and your Royal Brothers, with united hearts full of Joy and Thanksgiving to God, who hath by a long Series of Miracles and Providences, continually Preserved you Majesty, from the hands of Your Blood-thirsty Enemies.

We as obliged in duty (and Self-preservation) humbly beseech your Majesty to have a due Care of the Safety of your Sacred Person, and as well to secure it, from sly-trimming Symplicants, as more open Enemies, and to take from all Persons suspected to the Government, the power of doing mischief, Arms and Places of Trust. We in our Station will do our Duty, not only pray to the Almighty to be still Your Defence, but also by all ways and means, endeavour to detect and break all Conspiracies fram'd or design'd, by any Persons, (of what Perswasion soever) against your Royal Person and Government, and shall readily and cheerfully, at all times, and on all occasions, expose our Lives and Fortunes in defence of Your Sacred Person, your Heirs and lawful Successors, and the Government in Church and State, as now by Law established.

In Testimony of our entire Unanimity in this our hearty and unfeign'd Resolution, we have caused the Common Seal of this Your Ancient and Loyal City, to be hereunto affixed, at the Guild-hall of the said City, the Three and twentieth day of July, in the Five and thirtieth Year of your Majesties Reign.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Sacred and Dread Sovereign,

WE Your Majesties most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, The Bayliffs, Aldermen, and Burgeffes of your Majesties Ancient Corporation of Morpeth, with most humble and chearful
