NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Elgin, March 3, 1829.

MR. ALEXANDER DUNCAN, Wood-Merchant and Millwright, in Garmouth, finding, from various losses sustained in the course of trade, and from the dilatory payments of those indebted to him, he cannot meet all the present pressing demands of his own Creditors; but anxious to prevent undue preferences, and the expence of separate legal measures, and to place all on an equal footing, has determined, with the concurrence of those interested, to call a meeting of his Creditors, before whom to disclose and lay a complete state of his affairs for their consideration and directions.

The meeting is to take place in Mr. Burnett's Inn, Elgin, on Friday, the 27th day of March current, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, when all concerned are requested personally to attend, or authorised persons for them, with states of their claims. In the meantime measures are taking to prepare as complete a state of matters as possible, but it would facilitate the business, and enable the Creditors to act with more certainty and decision, did they state the nature and amount of their claims before the day of meeting, which they are requested to do to Mr. Robert Bain, Writer, in Elgin, who is authorised to this effect by several of those who are deeply interested in the premises.
