Westminster, March 6, 1829.

This day, the Lords being met, a message was sent to the Honourable House of Commons by the Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, acquainting them, that The Lords, authorised by virtue of a Commission under the Great Seal, signed by His Majesty, for declaring His Royal Assent to several Acts agreed upon by both Houses, do desire the immediate attendance of the Honourable House in the House of Peers to hear the Commission read; and the Commons being come thither, the said Commission, empowering the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, and several other Lords therein named, to declare and notify the Royal Assent to the said Acts, was read accordingly, and the Royal Assent given to

An Act for applying certain sums of money for the service of the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine.

An Act for continuing to His Majesty, for one year, certain duties on personal estates, offices, and pensions in England, for the service of the year one thousand eight hundred and twenty-nine,

Dublin-Castle, March 6, 1829.

His Grace the Duke of Northumberland, K. G. who embarked at Holyhead on Thursday night the 5th of March, on board the Escape steam vessel, arrived at Kingstown Harbour at four o'clock this morning. His Grace on his arrival in Dublin this day, was received by the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Sheriffs, and Commons of the city of Dublin. His Grace, attended by a squadron of dragoons, proceeded to the Castle, and, the Council having assembled at one o'clock, was introduced in form to their Excellencies the Lords Justices, who received him sitting under the canopy of state in the Presence Chamber, from whence a procession was made in the usual state, to the Council Chamber. The Council sitting, his Grace's commission was read, and the oaths being administered to him, his Grace was invested with the collar of the Most Illustrious Order of Saint Patrick, and received the sword of state from the Lords Justices.

His Grace afterwards repaired to the Presence Chamber, and received the compliments of the Nobility and other persons of distinction upon his safe arrival, and taking upon him the Government of Ireland.
