

for leave to bring in a Bill to watch, light, and cleanse, and to prevent nuisances and annoyances in, and otherwise improve such part and parts of the parish of Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, as is comprised in the ecclesiastical district called the Waterloo District, and the district of the original parish church of St. Mary, Lambeth aforesaid, left as belonging to that church after the other divisions of the same parish into ecclesiastical districts were made (called or known as the Old Lambeth Church District); and for other purposes relating thereto.— Dated this 5th day of March 1829.

Wm. Wood, Solicitor, [Richmond-buildings, Soho.

NOTICE is hereby given, that leave has been obtained from the Honourable the House of Commons to bring in a Bill, and that a Bill will be brought in accordingly, in order to obtain an Act, in the present session of Parliament, to confirm an agreement made between the Treasurer and Masters of the Bench of the Honourable Society of Lincoln's-inn, and the Governors and Directors of the poor of the united parishes of St. Andrew, Holborn, above the bars, and St. George the Martyr, Middlesex, pursuant to which agreement a permanent annuity or annual rent charge is to be secured to the Governors and Directors for the time being of the poor of the said united parishes, and subject to the payment of such annuity or rent charge, the several chambers, buildings, lands, tenements, and premises, called Lincoln's-inn Old-square, Lincoln's-inn Old-buildings, the Stone-buildings, Lincoln's-inn, and Lincoln's-inn-gardens, and all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and premises in Lincoln's-inn, which are, or which are claimed to be, within the said united parishes, or either of them, and the several owners, inhabitants, and occupiers of the said several chambers, buildings, lands, tenements, and premises, (as far as regards their being such owners, inhabitants, or occupiers), are to be declared exempt from all parochial rates, whether for the relief of the poor, or for any other purposes and from all parochial interference; and the Treasurer and Masters of the Bench of the said Honourable Society of Lincoln's-inn, or other persons, to be named in the said bill, are to be authorised and empowered to raise and levy the before mentioned annuity or annual rent charge, by rates to be imposed upon the said several chambers, buildings, lands, tenements, hereditaments, and premises, or upon the owners, inhabitants, or occupiers thereof.— Dated this 7th day of March 1829.

Steen, Pemberton, and Crawley, Solicitors for the Bill.

Improved Gas Apparatus, consisting of a Guage, or Rotative Gas-Meter, and Self-Acting Gas Governor.

IN pursuance of an application to the Honourable the House of Commons, notice is hereby given, that leave has been granted to bring in a Bill in the present session of Parliament, for prolonging and extending the term of certain letters patent for England granted to Samuel Clegg, his executors, administrators, and assigns, bearing date the 9th day of December, in the 56th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for the term of fourteen years; and also the term of certain other letters patent, for Scotland, also granted to the said Samuel Clegg, his executors, administrators, and assigns, bearing date the 1st day of May, and sealed the 17th day of June, in the year of our Lord 1816, for the term of fourteen years, and both which said letters patent have been respectively assigned and made over by the said Samuel Clegg to Samuel Crosley, and which said letters patent were respectively granted for an Improved Gas Apparatus; and which said Bill relates to certain parts only of the said Improved Gas Apparatus, that is to say, a Guage or Rotative Gas-Meter, and a Self-Acting Governor. And notice is hereby also given, that the said Guage or Rotative Gas-Meter is intended for measuring out and registering the quantity of gas which passed through a pipe or opening, so as to ascertain the quantity consumed by any certain number of lights or burners; and that the said Self-Acting Governor is employed for regulating the efflux or discharge of gas through any opening or openings, or burners, at which the gas is to be burned, so that the gas shall always issue from the said openings or burners with an uniform, or nearly uniform, velocity.
