FRIDAY, MARCH 13, 1829.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 24th day of November 1828,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the seventh of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is deemed expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, and command, that no person or persons whatever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, for the transporting of the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties imposed in that behalf by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the general regulation of the Customs:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, March 11, 1829.

The Lord Chamberlain of His Majesty's Household has appointed William Martins, Esq. one of the Gentlemen Ushers Quarterly Waiters in Ordinary to the King, in the room of John Savile Dobyns, Esq. resigned.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Thomas Welch, of Edgbaston, in the county of Warwick, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, March 5, 1829.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Fox the younger, of the town and county of Nottingham, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, March 6, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the afternoon or evening of Sunday the 1st instant, Mr. Samuel Langtreay, of Prospect-row, Portsmouth, late master-bricklayer, and Mrs. Charity Jolliffe, his housekeeper, were most inhumanly and barbarously murdered in their dwelling-house, situate in Prospect-row, in Portsmouth aforesaid;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murders before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually committed such murders) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said murders.—£100 of such reward to be paid by the parish of Portsmouth, and £100 by the executors of the said Mr. Samuel Langtreay, on application to Messrs. T. A. and W. Minchin, solicitors, Portsea.

Whitehall, March 9, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between the hours of seven and eight o'clock on the evening of Thursday the 5th instant, some evil-disposed person or persons did maliciously and feloniously set fire to a barn and straw rick, belonging to Mr. Tomlinson, at Hinckley, in the county of Leicester, and situate in a field in his occupation, adjoining the Leicester turnpike road; which barn and straw rick were entirely consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn and straw rick) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of SEVENTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.—£20 of such reward to be paid by the said Mr. Tomlinson, and £50 by the Treasurer of the Burbage Association for the Prosecution of Felons.

Admiralty-Office, March 5, 1829.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Monday the 6th of April next, at eight o'clock in the morning.

And all Sheriffs, Gaolers, and Keepers of Prisons, in whose custody any prisoners, charged with offences committed on the High Seas, or within the said jurisdiction, may be, are hereby required to transmit a copy of the commitment of every such prisoner to Mr. Charles Jones, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, at his Office, No. 10, Lancaster-place, Strand, London, in order that the necessary measures may be taken, for removing all such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol of Newgate, for trial at the said intended session. And all Mayors, Justices, Coroners, and other Officers, before whom any inquisitions, informations, examinations, or recognizances may have been taken touching any such offences, are required to transmit the same forthwith to Mr. Thomas Shelton, the Clerk of Arraignment of the High Court of Admiralty of England, at his Office, at the Sessions-house, in the Old Bailey, London.

J. W. Croker.

Admiralty-Office, March 9, 1829.

WIDOWS' PENSIONS.

NOTICE is hereby given, that all Widows who receive pensions from the Charity for the relief of the Widows of Commission and Warrant Officers of the Royal Navy, must send or bring to this Office, between the 20th and 31st of this month, the affidavit required by the rules of the Charity, in order to their being inserted on the Pension List, which will be prepared next month, and paid on the 1st of May next.

All letters from Widows respecting their pensions, or requesting supplies of blank affidavits, must state the rank their husbands held in the Navy.

J. W. Croker.

NOTICE is hereby given, that leave has been obtained from the Honourable the House of Commons to bring in a Bill, and that a Bill will be brought in accordingly, in order to obtain an Act, in the present session of Parliament, to confirm an agreement made between the Treasurer and Masters of the Bench of the Honourable Society of Lincoln's-inn, and the Governors and Directors of the poor of the united parishes of St. Andrew, Holborn, above the bars, and St. George the Martyr, Middlesex, pursuant to which agreement a permanent annuity or annual rent charge is to be secured to the Governors and Directors for the time being of the poor of the said united parishes, and subject to the payment of such annuity or rent charge, the several chambers, buildings, lands, tenements, and premises, called Lincoln's-inn Old-square, Lincoln's-inn Old-buildings, the Stone-buildings Lincoln's-inn, and Lincoln's-inn-gardens, and all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and premises in Lincoln's-inn, which are, or which are claimed to be, within the said united parishes, or either of them, and the several owners, inhabitants, and occupiers of the said several chambers, buildings, lands, tenements, and premises, (as far as regards their being such owners, inhabitants, or occupiers), are to be declared exempt from all parochial rates, whether for the relief of the poor, or for any other purposes and from all parochial interference; and the Treasurer and Masters of the Bench of the said Honourable Society of Lincoln's-inn, or other persons, to be named in the said bill, are to be authorised and empowered to raise and levy the before mentioned annuity or annual rent charge, by rates to be imposed upon the said several chambers, buildings, lands, tenements, hereditaments, and premises, or upon the owners, inhabitants, or occupiers thereof.—Dated this 7th day of March 1829.

Green, Pemberton, and Crawley, Solicitors for the Bill.

IMPROVED GAS APPARATUS, CONSISTING OF A GAUGE OR ROTATIVE GAS METER, AND SELF-ACTING GAS GOVERNOR.

IN pursuance of an application to the Honourable the House of Commons, notice is hereby given, that leave has been granted to bring in a Bill in the present session of Parliament, for prolonging and extending the term of certain letters patent for England granted to Samuel Clegg, his executors, administrators, and assigns, bearing date the 9th day of December, in the 56th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for the term of fourteen years; and also the term of certain other letters patent, for Scotland, also granted to the said Samuel Clegg, his executors, administrators, and assigns, bearing date the 1st day of May, and sealed the 17th day of June, in the year of our Lord 1816, for the term of fourteen years, and both which said letters patent have been respectively assigned and made over by the said Samuel Clegg to Samuel Crosley, and which said letters patent were respectively granted for an Improved Gas Apparatus; and which said Bill relates to certain parts only of the said Improved Gas Apparatus, that is to say, a GAUGE OR ROTATIVE GAS METER, and a SELF-ACTING GOVERNOR. And notice is hereby also given, that the said Gauge or Rotative Gas Meter is intended for measuring out and registering the quantity of gas which passed through a pipe or opening, so as to ascertain the quantity consumed by any certain number of lights or burners; and that the said Self-Acting Governor is employed for regulating the efflux or discharge of gas through any opening or openings, or burners, at which the gas is to be burned, so that the gas shall always issue from the said openings or burners with an uniform, or nearly uniform, velocity.

IN pursuance of an order of the Honourable the House of Commons, of the 3d day of March instant, notice is hereby given, that application is now making to Parliament in the present session, for leave to bring in a Bill to watch, light, and cleanse, and to prevent nuisances and annoyances in, and otherwise improve such part and parts of the parish of Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, as is comprised in the ecclesiastical district called the Waterloo District, and the district of the original parish church of St. Mary, Lambeth aforesaid, left as belonging to that church after the other divisions of the same parish into ecclesiastical districts were made (called or known as the Old Lambeth Church District); and for other purposes relating thereto.—Dated this 5th day of March 1829.

Wm. Wood, Solicitor, Richmond-buildings, Soho.

East India-House, March 11, 1829.

THE Court of Directors of the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, do hereby give notice,

That certain goods, imported from places within the Company's charter, previous to the 5th July 1821, and now remaining in the Company's warehouses, which from their perishable nature have become of no value, and were not therefore put up at the Rummage Sale, held at this House on the 29th April 1825; as also certain goods which were refused by the buyers at that sale, although put up without any price; also certain lots of goods which, although sold at that sale, have not been cleared by the buyers out of the Company's warehouses, will be destroyed with the sanction and in the presence of the Officers of the Honourable Board of Customs, on Saturday the 28th day of March instant, unless the owners thereof shall actually clear and take the same out of the East India Company's Warehouses, on or before Wednesday the 25th day of March instant.

The Court of Directors further give notice, that in the meantime every information respecting the goods will be given by the Company's Warehouse-keepers to the holders of warrants, or other parties interested therein.

Peter Auber, Secretary.

D

WHEREAS the acting Commissioners in a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Smith, of Uttoxeter, in the County of Stafford, Tauner, Dealer and Chapman, have certified to the Right Hon. John Singleton Lord Lyndhurst, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, that the said Thomas Smith hath in all things conformed himself according to the directions of the Act of Parliament made concerning Bankrupts; this is to give notice, that, by virtue of an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, his Certificate will be allowed and confirmed as the said Act directs, unless cause be shewn to the contrary on or before the 3d day of April next.

Notice to the Creditors of D. and D. M'Gowan, Distillers, at Glenmurray, near Cambusbarron, and of David M'Gowan, now or formerly residing at Hollandbush, near Cambusbarron, a Partner of said Company, and as an Individual.

Stirling, February 24, 1829.

JAMES SAMUEL, Accountant, in Stirling, Trustee on said sequestrated estates, hereby intimates, that at a meeting of the Creditors, held on the 21st current, an offer of composition was made on the debts due by the said Company at the date of sequestration, with the expence of sequestration and Trustee's commission, and also an offer of composition on the debts due by the said David M'Gowan as an individual, at the date of sequestration, and security named for payment of these offers.

The meeting having entertained the offers as fair and reasonable, the Trustee, in terms of the Statute, appointed another meeting of the Creditors to be held within the Writing-Office of Robert Haldane, Writer, in Stirling, on Saturday the 21st day of March next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, for deciding on said offers, either with or without amendment.—Of which intimation is hereby given.

NOTICE TO CREDITORS.

Elgin, March 3, 1829.

MR. ALEXANDER DUNCAN, Wood-Merchant and Millwright, in Garmouth, finding, from various losses sustained in the course of trade, and from the dilatory payments of those indebted to him, he cannot meet all the present pressing demands of his own Creditors; but anxious to prevent undue preferences, and the expence of separate legal measures, and to place all on an equal footing, has determined, with the concurrence of those interested, to call a meeting of his Creditors, before whom to disclose and lay a complete state of his affairs for their consideration and directions.

The meeting is to take place in Mr. Burnett's Inn, Elgin, on Friday, the 27th day of March current, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, when all concerned are requested personally to attend, or authorised persons for them, with states of their claims. In the meantime measures are taking to prepare as complete a state of matters as possible, but it would facilitate the business, and enable the Creditors to act with more certainty and decision, did they state the nature and amount of their claims before the day of meeting, which they are requested to do to Mr. Robert Bain, Writer, in Elgin, who is authorised to this effect by several of those who are deeply interested in the premises.

Notice to the Creditors of Philip Taylor, Senior, Builder and General Agent, in Edinburgh.

Edinburgh, March 7, 1829.

THE Lords of Council and Session (First Division), of this date, sequestrated the whole estate and effects, heritable and moveable, real and personal, of the said Philip Taylor, senior, and appointed his Creditors to meet in Ambrose's Hotel, Picardy-Place, Edinburgh, upon Thursday the 19th day of March current, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, to name an Interim Factor; and again, at the same place and hour, upon Monday the 6th day of April next, to elect a Trustee, as directed by the Statute.

Notice to the Creditors of David Stephen, Ironmonger, in Aberdeen.

Edinburgh, March 10, 1829.

UPON the application of the said David Stephen, with the requisite concurrence, the First Division of the Court of Session this day sequestrated his estate and effects, and appointed the Creditors to meet within the Lemon Tree Tavern, Aberdeen, upon Wednesday the 25th day of March current, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, to name an Interim Factor; and to meet again, at the same place and hour, upon Wednesday the 15th day of April next, to elect a Trustee.—Of which notice is hereby given, in terms of the Statute.

Notice to the Creditors on the sequestrated Estate of Messrs. Wilson and Sons, late Ironmasters at Wilsontown, and William Wilson, jun. and James Wilson, individual Partners of that Company.

Edinburgh, March 10, 1829.

THE Court of Session has this day appointed a meeting of the Creditors on the said sequestrated estate to be held within the Royal Exchange Coffee-house, in Edinburgh, upon Monday the 30th day of March instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, for the purpose of choosing a new Trustee, in room of the former Trustee, resigned.—Of which notice is hereby given, in terms of the Statute.

Notice to the Creditors of the late Walter Smith, Merchant and Manufacturer, in Stirling.

Stirling, March 7, 1829.

WILLIAM MALEY, Manufacturer, in Stirling, Trustee on the said sequestrated estate, hereby intimates, that a general meeting of the Creditors will be held within Gibb's Inn, Stirling, on Saturday the 28th day of March current, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, for the purpose of giving the Trustee such directions as shall appear to them proper for the disposal, by public sale, of the outstanding debts, or the furniture which belonged to the Bankrupt, and otherwise as they shall think proper, in regard to the situation of the said estate.

Notice to the Creditors of James Low, Merchant, Brechin.

March 9, 1829.

JAMES SPEID, Writer, in Brechin, hereby intimates, that he has been confirmed Trustee upon the sequestrated estate of the said James Low; and that the Sheriff of the County of Forfar has fixed Saturday the 21st day of March current, and Saturday the 4th day of April next, for the public examination of the Bankrupt and others, in terms of the Statute,—the examinations to proceed within the Sheriff Court-House, in Forfar, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon of each day.

He farther intimates, that a general meeting of the Bankrupt's Creditors is to be held within Ross's Inn, Brechin, upon Monday the 6th day of April next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon; and that another general meeting will be held, at the same place and hour, on Monday the 20th day of April next, for the purposes mentioned in the Statute.

And the Trustee requires those Creditors of the said James Low; who may not previously have lodged their claims and vouchers or grounds of debt, with oaths of verity thereto, to produce the same, at or previous to the first-mentioned meeting; with certification, that unless the said productions are made to the Trustee, between and the 3d day of December next, being ten months after the date of the first deliverance on the petition for sequestration, the party neglecting shall have no share in the first distribution of the debtor's estate.
