WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the afternoon or evening of Sunday the 1st instant, Mr. Samuel Langtreay, of Prospect-row, Portsmouth, late master-bricklayer, and Mrs. Charity Jolliffe, his housekeeper, were most inhumanly and barbarously murdered in their dwelling-house, situate in Prospect-row, in Portsmouth aforesaid;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the murders before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually committed such murders) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said murders.—£100 of such reward to be paid by the parish of Portsmouth, and £100 by the executors of the said Mr. Samuel Langtreay, on application to Messrs. T. A. and W. Minchin, solicitors, Portsea.

Whitehall, March 9, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between the hours of seven and eight o'clock on the evening of Thursday the 5th instant, some evil-disposed person or persons did maliciously and feloniously set fire to a barn and straw rick, belonging to Mr. Tomlinson, at Hinckley, in the county of Leicester, and situate in a field in his occupation, adjoining the Leicester turnpike road; which barn and straw rick were entirely consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn and straw rick) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of SEVENTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.—£20 of such reward to be paid by the said Mr. Tomlinson, and £50 by the Treasurer of the Burbage Association for the Prosecution of Felons.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Monday the 6th of April next, at eight o'clock in the morning.

And all Sheriffs, Gaolers, and Keepers of Prisons, in whose custody any prisoners, charged with offences committed on the High Seas, or within the said jurisdiction, may be, are hereby required to transmit a copy of the commitment of every such prisoner to Mr. Charles Jones, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, at his Office, No. 10, Lancaster-place, Strand, London, in order that the necessary measures may be taken, for removing all such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol of Newgate, for trial at the said intended session. And all Mayors, Justices, Coroners, and other Officers, before whom any inquisitions, informations, examinations, or recognizances may have been taken touching any such offences, are required to transmit the same forthwith to Mr. Thomas Shelton, the Clerk of Arraignment of the High Court of Admiralty of England, at his Office, at the Sessions-house, in the Old Bailey, London.
