Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, MARCH 17, 1829.

At the Court at Windsor, the 24th day of November 1828,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the seventh of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is deemed expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, and command, that no person or persons whatever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, for the transporting of the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties imposed in that behalf by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act. for the general regulation of the Customs:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, March 16, 1829.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto John Samuel Wanley Sawbridge, of Charborough-park, in the county of Dorset, Esq. and to Jane Frances his wife, now sole surviving heir of Richard Erle Drax Grosvenor, late of Charborough-park aforesaid, Esq. deceased, by Sarah Frances his wife, who was daughter and heir of Edward Drax, Esq. His royal licence and authority, that they and their issue (pursuant to a direction and injunction contained in a deed of settlement, made in the year 1818 by the aforesaid Richard Erle Drax Grosvenor and Sarah Frances his wife) may take and use the surnames of Erle Drax, in addition to and after that of Sawbridge; that the said John Samuel Wanley Sawbridge, and his issue as aforesaid, may bear the arms of Drax and Erle quarterly with those of Sawbridge; and that the said Jane Frances Sawbridge, his wife, may bear the arms of Drax and Erle quarterly with those of Grosvenor; the whole according to the laws of arms:

Provided that such His Majesty's royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms, otherwise to be void and of none effect.

Whitehall, March 10, 1829.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Abraham Bass, of Burton-upon-Trent, in the county of Stafford, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, March 9, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between the hours of seven and eight o'clock on the evening of Thursday the 5th instant, some evil-disposed person or persons did maliciously and feloniously set fire to a barn and straw rick, belonging to Mr. Tomlinson, at Hinckley, in the county of Leicester, and situate in a field in his occupation, adjoining the Leicester turnpike road; which barn and straw rick were entirely consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn and straw rick) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL,

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of SEVENTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.—£20 of such reward to be paid by the said Mr. Tomlinson, and £50 by the Treasurer of the Burbage Association for the Prosecution of Felons.

Admiralty-Office, March 5, 1829.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of the Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Monday the 6th of April next, at eight o'clock in the morning.

And all Sheriffs, Gaolers, and Keepers of Prisons, in whose custody any prisoners, charged with offences committed on the High Seas, or within the said jurisdiction, may be, are hereby required to transmit a copy of the commitment of every such prisoner to Mr. Charles Jones, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, at his Office, No. 10, Lancaster-place, Strand, London, in order that the necessary measures may be taken, for removing all such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol of Newgate, for trial at the said intended session. And all Mayors, Justices, Coroners, and other Officers, before whom any inquisitions, informations, examinations, or recognizances may have been taken touching any such offences, are required to transmit the same forthwith to Mr. Thomas Shelton, the Clerk of Arraignment of the High Court of Admiralty of England, at his Office, at the Sessions-house, in the Old Bailey, London.

J. W. Croker.

NOTICE is hereby given, that leave has been obtained from the Honourable the House of Commons to bring in a Bill, and that a Bill has been brought in accordingly, in order to obtain an Act, in the present session of Parliament, to confirm an agreement made between the Treasurer and Masters of the Bench of the Honourable Society of Lincoln's-inn, and the Governors and Directors of the poor of the united parishes of St. Andrew, Holborn; above the bars, and St. George the Martyr, Middlesex, pursuant to which agreement a permanent annuity or annual rent charge is to be secured to the Governors and Directors for the time being of the poor of the said united parishes, and subject to the payment of such annuity or rent charge, the several chambers, buildings, lands, tenements, and premises, called Lincoln's-inn Old-square, Lincoln's-inn Old-buildings, the Stone-buildings Lincoln's-inn, and Lincoln's-inn-gardens, and all the lands, tenements, hereditaments, and premises in Lincoln's-inn, which are, or which are claimed to be, within the said united parishes, or either of them, and the several owners, inhabitants, and occupiers of the said several chambers, buildings, lands, tenements, and premises, (as far as regards their being such owners, inhabitants, or occupiers), are to be declared exempt from all parochial rates, whether for the relief of the poor, or for any other purposes and from all parochial interference; and the Treasurer and Masters of the Bench of the said Honourable Society of Lincoln's-inn, or other persons, to be named in the said bill, are to be authorised and empowered to raise and levy the before mentioned annuity or annual rent charge, by rates to be imposed upon the said several chambers, buildings, lands, tenements, hereditaments, and premises, or upon the owners, inhabitants, or occupiers thereof. — Dated this 17th day of March 1829.

Green, Pemberton, and Crawley, Solicitors for the Bill.

IMPROVED GAS APPARATUS, CONSISTING OF A GAUGE OR ROTATIVE GAS METER, AND SELF-ACTING GAS GOVERNOR.

IN pursuance of an application to the Honourable the House of Commons, notice is hereby given, that leave has been granted to bring in a Bill in the present session of Parliament, for prolonging and extending the term of certain letters patent for England granted to Samuel Clegg, his executors, administrators, and assigns, bearing date the 9th day of December, in the 56th year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for the term of fourteen years; and also the term of certain other letters patent, for Scotland, also granted to the said Samuel Clegg, his executors, administrators, and assigns, bearing date the 1st day of May, and sealed the 17th day of June, in the year of our Lord 1816, for the term of fourteen years, and both which said letters patent have been respectively assigned and made over by the said Samuel Clegg to Samuel Crosley, and which said letters patent were respectively granted for an Improved Gas Apparatus; and which said Bill relates to certain parts only of the said Improved Gas Apparatus, that is to say, a GAUGE OR ROTATIVE GAS METER, and a SELF-ACTING GOVERNOR. And notice is hereby also given, that the said Gauge or Rotative Gas Meter is intended for measuring out and registering the quantity of gas which passed through a pipe or opening, so as to ascertain the quantity consumed by any certain number of lights or burners; and that the said Self-Acting Governor is employed for regulating the efflux or discharge of gas through any opening or openings, or burners, at which the gas is to be burned, so that the gas shall always issue from the said openings or burners with a uniform, or nearly uniform, velocity.

IN pursuance of an Order of the Honourable the House of Commons, notice is hereby given, that application is now making to Parliament for an Act to light and watch such roads and parts of roads in the parish of Saint George the Martyr, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, as are now lighted and watched by the Trustees of the Surrey New-Roads Cut, whose powers so to do are about to cease, and the parts adjacent or near to such roads in the said parish, and for the improvement and regulation of the said roads, preventing obstructions therein, and for other purposes.

Russell and Son, Solicitors, Lant-street, Southwark.

THOMPSON, Mayor.

A Common Council, holden in the Chamber of the Guildhall of the City of London, on Thursday the 12th day of March 1829.

THE Mayor, Aldermen, and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, do hereby, in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the forty-seventh year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Third, intituled "An Act for repealing the several Acts for regulating the vend and delivery of coals within the cities of London and Westminster, and liberties thereof, and in certain parts of the counties of Middlesex, Surrey, Kent, and Essex, and for making better provision for the same," give notice of their intention to pay off the several annuities granted in respect of the sum of £7700, the remaining part of £39,000, raised under and by virtue of a certain Act of Parliament, made in the forty-third year of the reign of His late Majesty George the Third, intituled "An Act for establishing a free market in the city of London for the sale of coals, and for preventing frauds and impositions in the vend and delivery of all coals brought into the port of London, within certain places therein mentioned," to the person or persons to whom the same may respectively belong, on the 12th day of September next; and that the person or persons entitled thereto may then receive the same, at the Office of the Chamberlain of the said City for the time being, in the Guildhall of the same City; at which time the annuity or annuities payable to such person or persons respectively shall cease and determine, viz.

Seventy-seven bonds, of one hundred pounds each, numbered 313 to 369, and 371 to 390, both inclusive. Woodthorpe.
