TUESDAY, MARCH 24, 1829.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day
of March 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the training and regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewardry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewardry or stewardries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient, that such training or exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended; and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 24th day
of November 1828,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the seventh of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is deemed expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, and command, that no person or persons whatever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Straights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, for the transporting of the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties imposed in that behalf by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the general regulation of the Customs."

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, March 21, 1829.

The King has been pleased to direct letters patent to be passed under the Great Seal, appointing Lieutenant-General Sir Henry Fane, G.C.B. to be Master-Surveyor and Surveyor-General of the Ordnance of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland.

The King has been pleased to present the Reverend Augustus FitzClarence to the Vicarage of Mapledereham, alias Maple Durham, in the county and diocese of Oxford, void by the promotion of Doctor John Bird Sumner to the See of Chester.

Kensington-Palace, March 21, 1829.

His Royal Highness the Duke of Sussex has been pleased to appoint Richard Jones, of Leamington, Esq. to be His Royal Highness's Surgeon.

Office of Ordnance, 21st March 1829.

Royal Regiment of Artillery.

Captain George Spiller, from unattached half-pay, to be Second Captain, vice Simmons, retired on half-pay. Dated 12th March 1829.

Crown-Office, March 24, 1829.

MEMBERS returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Borough of Launceston.

Lieutenant-General Sir James Willoughby Gordon, Bart. G.C.B. of Niton, in the Isle of Wight, Quartermaster-General of His Majesty's Forces, in the room of the Honourable Pownall Bastard Pellew, who has accepted the Chiltern Hundreds.

Borough of Newport (Cornwall).

The Right Honourable William Fitzgerald Vesey Fitzgerald, of Somerset-place, in the city of Westminster, President of the Board of Trade and Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in the room of the Honourable Charles Greathead Bertie Percy, who has accepted the office of Comptroller of the Household to the Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

Whitehall, March 23, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Saturday the 7th instant, a barn, containing the produce of about twenty acres of wheat, belonging to a farm at Blakeney, near Holt, in the county of Norfolk, in the occupation of James Sparham, and adjoining to his dwelling-house, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire and burnt down, by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable Lord Calthorpe, proprietor of the said farm, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Admiralty-Office, March 5, 1829.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Monday the 6th of April next, at eight o'clock in the morning.

And all Sheriffs, Gaolers, and Keepers of Prisons, in whose custody any prisoners, charged with offences committed on the High Seas, or within the said jurisdiction, may be, are hereby required to transmit a copy of the commitment of every such prisoner to Mr. Charles Jones, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, at his Office, No. 10, Lancaster-place, Strand, London, in order that the necessary measures may be taken, for removing all such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol of Newgate, for trial at the said intended session. And all Mayors, Justices, Coroners, and other Officers, before whom any inquisitions, informations, examinations, or recognizances may have been taken touching any such offences, are required to transmit the same forthwith to Mr. Thomas Shelton, the Clerk of Arraignment of the High Court of Admiralty of England, at his Office, at the Sessions-house, in the Old Bailey, London.

J. W. Croker.

Admiralty-Office, March 21, 1829.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of King George the Second, notice is hereby given, that information has been received at this Office, that the ship Agincourt, of Bristol, Mr. Joseph E. Harris, Master, bound to Nevis, was lost, on the 29th January last, on a reef off the island of Antigua; the crew all safe, but none of the cargo saved, excepting a few articles of no value. John Barrow.

IN pursuance of an Order of the Honourable the House of Commons, notice is hereby given, that application is now making to Parliament for an Act to light and watch such roads and parts of roads in the parish of Saint George the Martyr, in the borough of Southwark, in the county of Surrey, as are now lighted and watched by the Trustees of the Surrey New-Roads, whose powers so to do are about to cease, and the parts adjacent or near to such roads in the said parish, and for the improvement and regulation of the said roads, preventing obstructions therein, and for other purposes.

Russell and Son, Solicitors, Lant-street, Southwark.
