FRIDAY, MARCH 27, 1829.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of March 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the training and regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewardry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewardry or stewardries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient, that such training or exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended; and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 24th day of November 1828,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the time limited by His Majesty's Order in Council, of the seventh of May last, for prohibiting the exportation of gun-powder, salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar), has expired; and whereas it is deemed expedient that the said prohibition should be continued for some time longer; His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth therefore hereby order, require, and command, that no person or persons whatever (except the Master-General of the Ordnance for His Majesty's Service), do, at any time during the space of six months (to commence from the date of this Order), presume to transport any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, to any port or place on the Coast of Africa (except to any ports or places within the Streights of Gibraltar) or ship or lade any gun-powder or salt-petre, or any sort of arms or ammunition, on board any ship or vessel, for the transporting of the same into any such ports or places on the Coast of Africa (except as above excepted), without leave or permission in that behalf first obtained from His Majesty or His Privy Council, upon pain of incurring and suffering the respective forfeitures and penalties imposed in that behalf by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for the general regulation of the Customs:"

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, the Master-General and the rest of the Principal Officers of the Ordnance, and His Majesty's Secretary at War, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

Crown-Office, March 27, 1829.

MEMBER returned to serve in this present PARLIAMENT.

Borough of Marlborough.

William John Bankes, Esq. in the room of Lord
Brudenell, who has accepted the Chiltern Hundreds.

Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Wigtown.

Sir Andrew Agnew, Bart. to be Vice-Lieutenant.
Dated 14th February 1829.

Commissions signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Dumfries.

James Veitch, jun. Esq. to be Deputy Lieutenant.

Lieutenant-Colonel William Mien to be ditto.
Dated 14th March 1829.

Whitehall, March 14, 1829.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Henry Dawson, of Milton-abbey, in the county of Dorset, Esq. (commonly called the Honourable Henry Dawson), a Captain in the Royal Navy, second son of John, first Earl of Portarlington, deceased, His royal licence and authority, that he may take and use the surname of Damer in addition to his present surname of Dawson, and bear the arms of Damer quarterly with those of Dawson (Damer in the first quarter), and that such surname and arms may be borne by his issue respectively, out of grateful respect to the memory of his cousin, Caroline Damer (commonly called the Right Honourable Lady Caroline Damer), late of Milton-abbey aforesaid, and of Came, in the said county of Dorset, spinster, deceased, the only daughter of Joseph, late Earl of Dorchester, Viscount Milton, and Baron Milton, also deceased, and in compliance with an injunction contained in her last will and testament, bearing date the 3d day of January 1827; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, March 14, 1828.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto George Lionel Dawson, of Came, in the county of Dorset, Esq. (commonly called the Honourable George Lionel Dawson), Companion of the Order of the Bath, and Lieutenant-Colonel in the Army, third son of John, first Earl of Portarlington, deceased, His royal licence and authority, that he may take and use the surname of Damer, in addition to his present surname of Dawson, and bear the arms of Damer quarterly with those of Dawson (Damer in the first quarter), and that such surname and arms may be borne by his issue respectively, out of grateful respect to the memory of his cousin, Caroline Damer (commonly called the Right Honourable Lady Caroline Damer), late of Milton-abbey and Came, both in the said county of Dorset, spinster, deceased, the only daughter of Joseph, late Earl of Dorchester, Viscount Milton, and Baron Milton, also deceased, and in compliance with an injunction contained in her last will and testament, bearing date the 3d day of January 1827; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to order, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, March 14, 1829.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Samuel-Helbert Israel, late of St. Mary-Axe, in the city of London, and now of Keppel-street, Russell-square, in the county of Middlesex, merchant, His royal licence and authority, that he may henceforth take and use the name of Ellis in addition to his own, and be called Samuel-Helbert Israel-Ellis, and that such name of Ellis may in like manner be taken, borne, and used by his issue, in compliance with a direction contained in the last will and testament of his maternal uncle, Ellis Delisser, late of Liverpool, in the county palatine of Lancaster and diocese of Chester, Gent. deceased, bearing date the 10th day of December last, as well as in testimony of his grateful and affectionate regard for the memory of the testator; provided the said concession and declaration be recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise the said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the same be duly registered in the College of Arms.

Whitehall, March 23, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Saturday the 7th instant, a barn, containing the produce of about twenty acres of wheat, belonging to a farm at Blakeney, near Holt, in the county of Norfolk, in the occupation of James Sparham, and adjoining to his dwelling-house, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire and burnt down, by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn) who shall discover his accom-police or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable Lord Calthorpe, proprietor of the said farm, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Admiralty-Office, March 5, 1829.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a Session of Oyer and Terminer and Gaol Delivery, for the trial of offences committed on the High Seas within the jurisdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held at Justice-Hall, in the Old Bailey, London, on Monday the 6th of April next, at eight o'clock in the morning.

And all Sheriffs, Gaolers, and Keepers of Prisons, in whose custody any prisoners, charged with offences committed on the High Seas, or within the said jurisdiction, may be, are hereby required to transmit a copy of the commitment of every such prisoner to Mr. Charles Jones, the Solicitor of the Admiralty, at his Office, No. 10, Lancaster-place, Strand, London, in order that the necessary measures may be taken, for removing all such prisoners to His Majesty's Gaol of Newgate, for trial at the said intended session. And all Mayors, Justices, Coroners, and other Officers, before whom any inquisitions, informations, examinations, or recognizances may have been taken touching any such offences, are required to transmit the same forthwith to Mr. Thomas Shelton, the Clerk of Arraignment of the High Court of Admiralty of England, at his Office, at the Sessions-house, in the Old Bailey, London.
