

And whereas the conditions mentioned and referred to in the said Acts of Parliament have not in all respects been fulfilled by the Government of His Most Catholic Majesty the King of Spain, and therefore the privileges so granted as aforesaid by the Law of Navigation to foreign ships, cannot lawfully be exercised or enjoyed by the ships of Spain, unless His Majesty, by His Order in Council, shall grant the whole or any of such privileges to such Spanish ships:

And whereas His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, doth deem it expedient to grant the privileges aforesaid, in certain cases, to ships of the dominions of His Most Catholic Majesty the King of Spain, His Majesty doth therefore, by the advice aforesaid, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers and authority in him vested by the said recited Acts of Parliament, declare and grant, that it shall and may be lawful for Spanish ships to import into any of the British possessions abroad, from the colonies and foreign plantations of His Most Catholic Majesty, goods, the produce of those colonies and possessions, and to export goods from such British possessions abroad, to be carried to any foreign country whatever:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable William Huskisson, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein, as to them may respectively appertain. Jas. Buller.

Whitehall, March 23, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Saturday the 7th instant, a barn, containing the produce of about twenty acres of wheat, belonging to a farm at Blakeney, near Holt, in the county of Norfolk, in the occupation of James Sparham, and adjoining to his dwelling-house, was wilfully and maliciously set on fire and burnt down, by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said barn) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable Lord Calthorpe, proprietor of the said farm, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, April 1, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the month of January 1828, about one hundred and fifty trees, the property of William Bray, Esq. growing in a lane leading from Shere-heath to the Hurtwood, in the county of Surrey, were barked and otherwise injured or destroyed by some person or persons unknown; and that in the night of the 7th ultimo, one hundred trees, belonging to the said William Bray, growing in Shere-heath aforesaid, and in a plantation adjoining thereto, were cut down and barked: and whereas it hath been also humbly represented unto the King, that in the night of Thursday the 26th ultimo, the underwood growing in a place called the West Churt or Hurtwood, in the said county, the property of Edward Bray, Esq. was set on fire and burnt in several places;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually injured and destroyed the said trees, or set fire to the said underwood) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said William and Edward Bray to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.
