Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 7, 1829.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Majesty will hold a Levee at St. James's-Palace, on Wednesday the 29th instant, at two o'clock.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE KING'S LEVEE, AT ST. JAMES'S-PALACE.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen who propose to attend the Levee to be held on Wednesday the 29th instant, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Gentlemen who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Gentleman who is to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office on Saturday the 25th or Monday the 27th instant, before three o'clock, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation, it being His Majesty's command, that no presentation shall hereafter be made at the Levee, but in conformity with the above regulations.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

Lord Chamberlain's-Office, April 7, 1829.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the King will hold a Drawing-Room at St. James's-Palace, on Thursday the 30th instant, at two o'clock, to celebrate His Majesty's Birth-day.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders to wear their Collars.

REGULATIONS TO BE OBSERVED AT THE COURT AT ST. JAMES'S.

The Ladies who propose to attend the Drawing-Room to be held on Thursday the 30th instant, are requested to bring with them two cards with their names thereon written, one to be left with the King's Page in attendance in the Presence-Chamber, and the other to be delivered to the Lord in Waiting, who will announce the name to His Majesty. And those Ladies who are to be presented are hereby informed, it is absolutely necessary that their names, with the name of the Lady who is to present them, should be sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office on Saturday the 25th or Monday the 27th instant, before three o'clock, in order that they may be submitted for the King's approbation, it being His Majesty's command, that no presentations at the Drawing-Room shall hereafter be made by the Lord in Waiting, but by the Lady whose name, with that of the Lady to be presented, shall appear on the card to be delivered as before directed, corresponding with the names sent in to the Lord Chamberlain's-Office.

No Lady can be received by His Majesty at the Drawing-Room, but in conformity with the above regulations.

The state apartments will not be open for the reception of company coming to Court, until half past one o'clock.

At the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of March 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions

"abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Pictou, in Nova Scotia, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Pictou, in Nova Scotia, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Sir George Murray, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, April 4, 1829.

The King has been pleased to direct letters patent to be passed under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, conferring the honour of Knighthood upon James Dewar, Esq. Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of Judicature at Bombay.

Whitehall, April 4, 1829.

The King has been pleased to present the Reverend William Mackenzie to the church and parish of Comrie, in the presbytery of Auchterarder and county of Perth, void by the death of the Reverend Patrick M'Isaac.

Ordnance-Office, April 6, 1829.

Royal Regiment of Artillery.

Captain Arthur Carter, from unattached half-pay, to be Second Captain, vice Mainwaring, retired on half-pay. Dated 21st March 1829.

Whitehall, April 1, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the month of January 1828, about one hundred and fifty trees, the property of William Bray, Esq. growing in a lane leading from Shere-heath to the Hurtwood, in the county of Surrey, were barked and otherwise injured or destroyed by some person or persons unknown; and that in the night of the 7th ultimo, one hundred trees, belonging to the said William Bray, growing in Shere-heath aforesaid, and in a plantation adjoining thereto, were cut down and barked: and whereas it hath been also humbly represented unto the King, that in the night of Thursday the 26th ultimo, the underwood growing in a place called the West Churt or Hurtwood, in the said county, the property of Edward Bray, Esq. was set on fire and burnt in several places;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually injured and destroyed the said trees, or set fire to the said underwood) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said William and Edward Bray to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, April 1, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Saturday the 28th ultimo, some evil-disposed person or persons did wilfully and maliciously set on fire two stacks of hay, belonging to and standing near the dwelling-house of John Peachey, Esq. at Rumboldswick, in the county of Sussex, which were entirely consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stacks) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said John Peachey, Esq. to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, April 2, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about eight o'clock on the night of Wednesday the 25th ultimo, the premises in the occupation of Henry Ashford, in the parish of Cretingham, in the county of Suffolk, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, and that a barn, two stables, a granary, and other buildings, together with a quantity of corn and farming implements, were entirely consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable Lord Rendlesham to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, April 7, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Thursday the 12th ultimo, the premises in the occupation of Mr. Martin Harsant, in the parish of Framsdon, in the county of Suffolk, the property of Mr. Nathaniel Barthropp, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons; and that, on the evening of the 23d ultimo, the same premises were again wilfully and maliciously set on fire, when two hay stacks were consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—£50 of such reward to be paid by the proprietor and tenant of the said premises, and £50 by the Equitable Assurance-Office, Norwich.
