

"abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Pictou, in Nova Scotia, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Pictou, in Nova Scotia, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Sir George Murray, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

Royal Regiment of Artillery.

Captain Arthur Carter, from unattached half-pay, to be Second Captain, vice Mainwaring, retired on half-pay. Dated 21st March 1829.

Whitehall, April 1, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the month of January 1828, about one hundred and fifty trees, the property of William Bray, Esq. growing in a lane leading from Shere-heath to the Hurtwood, in the county of Surrey, were barked and otherwise injured or destroyed by some person or persons unknown; and that in the night of the 7th ultimo, one hundred trees, belonging to the said William Bray, growing in Shere-heath aforesaid, and in a plantation adjoining thereto, were cut down and barked: and whereas it hath been also humbly represented unto the King, that in the night of Thursday the 26th ultimo, the underwood growing in a place called the West Churt or Hurtwood, in the said county, the property of Edward Bray, Esq. was set on fire and burnt in several places;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually injured and destroyed the said trees, or set fire to the said underwood) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said William and Edward Bray to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, April 1, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Saturday the 28th ultimo, some evil-disposed person or persons did wilfully and maliciously set on fire two stacks of hay, belonging to and standing near the dwelling-house of John Peachey, Esq. at Rumboldswick, in the county of Sussex, which were entirely consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stacks) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said John Peachey, Esq. to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, April 2, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about eight o'clock on the night of Wednesday the 25th ultimo, the premises in the occupation of Henry Ashford, in the parish of Cretingham, in the county of Suffolk, were
