Foreign-Office, April 8, 1829.

The King has been graciously pleased to appoint the Right Honourable Robert Gordon (lately appointed His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary at the Court of His Catholic Majesty) to be His Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary to the Sublime Ottoman Porte.

Commissions signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Glamorgan.

Morgan Popkin Traherne, Esq. to be Deputy Lieutenant. Dated 24th March 1829.

Henry Seymour, Esq. to be ditto. Dated 24th March 1829.

Whitehall, April 1, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the month of January 1828, about one hundred and fifty trees, the property of William Bray, Esq. growing in a lane leading from Shere-heath to the Hurtwood, in the county of Surrey, were barked and otherwise injured or destroyed by some person or persons unknown; and that in the night of the 7th ultimo, one hundred trees, belonging to the said William Bray, growing in Shere-heath aforesaid, and in a plantation adjoining thereto, were cut down and barked: and whereas it hath been also humbly represented unto the King, that in the night of Thursday the 26th ultimo, the underwood growing in a place called the West Churt or Hurtwood, in the said county, the property of Edward Bray, Esq. was set on fire and burnt in several places;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually injured and destroyed the said trees, or set fire to the said underwood) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the said William and Edward Bray to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, April 1, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the night of Saturday the 28th ultimo, some evil-disposed person or persons did wilfully and maliciously set on fire two stacks of hay, belonging to and standing near the dwelling-house of John Peachey, Esq. at Rumboldswick, in the county of Sussex, which were entirely consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said stacks) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the said John Peachey, Esq. to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, April 2, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about eight o'clock on the night of Wednesday the 25th ultimo, the premises in the occupation of Henry Ashford, in the parish of Creetingham, in the county of Suffolk, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, and that a barn, two stables, a granary, and other buildings, together with a quantity of corn and farming implements, were entirely consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the Right Honourable Lord Rendlesham to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders; so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, April 7, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Thursday the 12th ultimo, the premises in the occupation of Mr. Martin Harsant, in the parish of Framsdon, in the county of Suffolk, the property of Mr. Nathaniel Barthropp, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or
