The Lord Chancellor has appointed John Waters, of Carmarthen, Esq. to be one of the Keepers of the Peace for the said county.

The Lord Chancellor has also appointed John Evans, of Carmarthen, Clerk, to be one of the Keepers of the Peace for the said county.

Whitehall, April 7, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Thursday the 12th ultimo, the premises in the occupation of Mr. Martin Harsant, in the parish of Framsdon, in the county of Suffolk, the property of Mr. Nathaniel Barthropp, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire by some evil-disposed person or persons; and that, on the evening of the 23d ultimo, the same premises were again wilfully and maliciously set on fire, when two hay stacks were consumed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—£50 of such reward to be paid by the proprietor and tenant of the said premises, and £50 by the Equitable Assurance-Office, Norwich.

Whitehall, April 10, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the evening of Tuesday the 31st ultimo, the farm buildings of Mr. William Chalk, at Linton, in the county of Cambridge, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire and destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said premises) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of THREE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on application to Mr. Good, of Saffron Walden, Treasurer to the Linton Association.

WHEREAS the Professorship of Chemistry, in the University of Dublin, will become vacant on the 16th day of May next, by the expiration of the period for which Francis Barker, Esq. Doctor of Medicine, the present Professor, was elected to hold said office; now notice is hereby given, that, pursuant to the Act of the fortieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, an election will be held in the Board-Room of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth, near Dublin, on Saturday the 18th day of July next, at the hour of twelve o'clock at noon of said day, for a Professor of Chemistry in said University. The emoluments and advantages attending such Professorship arise from fees payable by every Student of the University at a certain standing; from fees of three guineas each from every Student who chooses to attend the entire course; and also from fees payable by those Students who may attend such courses of Clinical Lectures as the Professor shall have in his term to give at Sir Patrick Dunn's Hospital; in all amounting annually to an average income of about £350.

All persons intending to offer themselves as Candidates must send in a statement of their names, the places of their education, the Universities in which they have taken their medical degrees, and the places where they have practiced, to the Register of the College of Dublin, and to the Register of the College of Physicians, on or before the 1st day of July next, to the end that opportunity may be given to enquire into the merits of every Candidate.—Dated this 9th day of April 1829.
