likewise Audiences to the Count de la Trinise Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Savoy, and to the Sicur Ranucci the Pope's Nuncio. The Letters from Germany tell us, that the Polish Army was the 13th of the laft month at Troppen sthat the under General with the Huffars and the Cavalry, arrived the 17th at Olmutz, and that it was hoped he would be at the Rendezvous on the 27th or 28th, and that the King of Poland would be there with the reft of the Army about the 30th. That in the mean time the City of Vienna continues to make a very good Defence, and that the Duke of Lorrain had received a Letter from the Count de Starenberg, giving an account, That the Enemy had advanced no farther than the Counterfcarp, till the 14th paft, when they made a Defcent into the Ditch before the Baltion of Lebel, and the following night made a great Lodgment there, which they did with the lefs difficulty, for that the deeppels of the Ditch did secure them against the great and finall Shot of the Befieged, and becaufe the Works they had railed, like Hills round their at-tack of the Counterfearp, did cover their passage into the Ditch; which made the Governor refolve to point his Cannon against these Hills, and to attack them the next day; the first attack was made in the day, and the Turks were put into great diforder, but after an hours Engagement, the Imperialifs were obliged to retire, for that they had not Pioneers enough to ruine the Enemies Works; in the evening they made a fecond attack, and in the night a third, and ruined all the Enemies Works, and burnt their Gabions and greatest part of their Gallery. That the 18th the Turks fprung a Mine under the Ravelin, and entring the Breach, attacked the fame with 1000 cholen men, who were fo well received by the Befieged, that after having loft 300 men, they were forced to quit the Bt each, and to be content to lodge themfelves at the foot of the Ravelin, but they did not continue long there, for the next day the Befieged diflodged them again, having buried most of them by a Mine they forung ; the Letters add, that the Count de Starenberg had made feveral Retrenchments within the Baffions that are attacked; and luch other provision for the defence of the place, that it was not doubled but with the Bleffing of God, the Polifh Army, and the Troops of the Empire, would joyn the Duke of Lorrain time enough to relieve the place. The Duke of Lorrain has totally defeated a Body of 15000 Turks and Tartars.

Port Royal in Famaica, Fune 15. 1683. All things (God be thanked) are in a flourishing condition here, and the People exceedingly fatisfied with His Majefty's Grace and Favour, in fending the Ruby Frigat, in accepting our Address, and passing our Laws. Our Governor has been here these to days, providing Pilates and hiring a Sloop, Ge. to go with the Ruby to Windward, for we hear there are 4 or 5 Pyrats, who infest the Charibbee Islands, and intend to Cruife in the Latitude of Barhadoes; So that upon Complaint of the Injuries done therealthough the Guernsey be now to Windward also. We do not hear of one Pyrate in all these parts of the Indies; and those Privateers that pretend to

The fame day His most Christian Majefly gave French Commissions, are very Civil to all our Vcfikewife Audiences to the Count de da Trinite isewife Audiences to the Count de da Trinite ise doubt not but the reputation of the King's Frigats will keep us fecure. The Governor's Conduct and the Publique Spirits in fetting out Men of War, have contributed much to it, and extremely failfied all People. Yelferday at 12 at Noon the Galley built here by the Governor's Order, with 34 Oars, was Launched with great Solemnity, and we doubt not will be of great use for the lecuring with the reft of the Army about the 30th.
