

Whitehall, May 8, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the nights of Sunday the 3d, Monday the 4th, Tuesday the 5th, and Thursday the 7th instant, certain evil-disposed persons riotously assembled and entered the dwellings of the journeymen weavers in Spitalfields, and maliciously cut and destroyed the silk in the looms, being therein;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the offence before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL,

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Whitehall, May 8, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, between the nights of Sunday the 26th and Wednesday the 29th ultimo, the parish church of Conover, in the county of Salop, was feloniously entered by some evil-disposed person or persons, who broke open the parish chest and carried off several pieces of communion plate;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered by the Churchwardens of Conover, to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

IN obedience to an order of the Court of Lord Mayor and Aldermen, dated the 28th day of April 1829, made in pursuance of an Act of Parliament, passed in the fifty-first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, ch. 203, intituled "An Act for raising an additional sum of money for carrying into execution the several Acts for widening the entrance into the city of London near Temple-bar, for making a more commodious street at Snowhill, and for raising money, on the credit of the Orphan's Fund, for those purposes, and for extending the powers of the said Acts;" and of a certain other Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fifty-second year of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for increasing the fund for watching, lighting, cleansing, watering, and repairing Blackfriars-bridge;" I do hereby give notice, that between the hours of ten in the forenoon and two in the afternoon, on the 28th day of October next ensuing, at my Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, in Guildhall, London, the principal sums of money, together with all interest due on the said 28th day of October next ensuing, upon the under-mentioned bonds, being the remaining part of the sum of £40,000, and part of the sum of £20,000, raised by the authority of the aforesaid Acts of the fifty-first and fifty-second of George the Third, under the common seal of this city, and made payable to Richard Clark, Esq. his executors, administrators, or assigns (by indorsement), will then be paid off, at my said Office at Guildhall, to the several and respective person or persons respectively entitled to receive the same; and that from thenceforth the interest on the said bonds will cease and determine. And, in further obedience to the said order, I do hereby give notice, that if the said several persons respectively entitled to the said bonds, or any of them, shall be minded to be paid the said several principal sums, with such interest as may become due in respect thereof, at any time previous to the said 28th day of October, and will severally declare such their intention, in writing under their hands, and deliver such declaration at my said Office of Chamberlain of the City of London, between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon, ten days previously to the day on which they, or any of them, shall elect to receive the same (the usual holidays of the said Office excepted), I will, on the day expressed in such declaration, at my said Office, pay to the several persons the principal sums respectively due to them in discharge of the said bonds, together with all interest as shall on the day specified in such declaration for the payment thereof have become due thereon; and which interest or annuity will, upon the said day expressed in such declaration for payment, cease and determine, viz.

Ninety-nine bonds, of one hundred pounds each, under the first-mentioned Act of the fifty-first George the Third, ch. 203, numbered 302 to 400, both inclusive; and fifty bonds, of one hundred pounds each, under the second-mentioned Act of the fifty-second George the Third, numbered 1 to 50, both inclusive; and eight hundred pounds, part of a bond for fifteen thousand pounds, under the said second-mentioned Act, numbered 51.

Richard Clark, Chamberlain.
