

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday September 6. to Monday September 10. 1683.

Whitehall, September 9.

THe following Addresses having been presented to His Majesty, His Majesty was pleased to receive them very graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Deputy-Lieutenants, Captains, and Officers of Your Majesties Militia, and other Principal Inhabitants of the Town of Plymouth.

Most Gracious and Dread Sovereign,

BEing well assured by Your Majesties Royal Proclamation, of the late Black and Execrable Design against the Lives of Your most Sacred Person, and Your only and Dearest Brother the most Illustrious Prince James Duke of York, we cannot sufficiently admire the Divine Providence, by which this Bloody and Damnable Conspiracy hath been discovered, nor can we enough declare our Abhorrence of such an Impious and Trayterous Attempt against the Best of Princes, which would have stain'd the Calendar with the Blackest of days.

And it being evident, that those who are now taken in this Hellish and Detestable Conspiracy, are the same Persons who have, under specious Pretences, been contriving the Alteration of the Government, and of the Succession to Your Majesties Crown and Dignity. We do declare our utter Detestation of all their Conspiracies, Associations and Policies, and do solemnly vow to expose our Lives and Fortunes for the Defence of the Persons of Your Sacred Majesty and Your Dearest Brother, and the Government as it is now Established in Church and State; And considering what the Practices of the Dissenters from the Church of England have from time to time been, and having no grounds to believe or hope that they can or will by any Acts of Grace or Mercy be reduced to Loyalty; we cannot rationally suppose any Safety can be to Your Royal Majesty, or Your Brother the Duke of York, or true Peace and Happiness to the Kingdom, till Schism and Faction are extirpated, and to that end we do humbly assure Your Majesty, that when ever You shall in Your Princely Wisdom think fit (according to Your undoubted Prerogative) to call a Parliament, we will carefully endeavour to choose such men as are of known Loyalty, haters of Faction and Republican Principles, and may assist Your Majesty in rooting out those venomous Weeds, and prevent them from taking root in Your Majesties Kingdom any more.

And we do likewise solemnly Vow and declare, that being duly sensible of the Happiness we enjoy by Your Majesties just Government, we will according to our duty of Allegiance, continue our Loyal and Faithful Subjection to Your most Sacred Majesty, Your Heirs and Successors, and do unanimously sacrifice our unfeigned and hearty thanks to Almighty God, for his miraculous and gracious Deliverance of Your Majesty and Royal Brother from that Cursed Machination, and will never cease offering up our fervent Prayers to the Divine Majesty, that his watchful Providence may continually Protect and Preserve Your Sacred Person, and Your Dearest Brother, and that no manner of Conspiracy or Confederacy against Your Majesty or him may take effect, but terminate in the deserved Destruction of all its Contrivers, Actors, and Abettors.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High-Sheriff, Lord-Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and other the Gentry, Clergy, and Free-Holders of the County of Rutland, at the Assizes held for the said County, the twentieth day of July, in the Five and thirtieth year of His Majesties Reign.

Most Dread Sovereign,

After our most hearty thanks to Almighty God, and our sincere Congratulation of Your most Sacred Majesty, for Your Happy Deliverance from that Bloody Design against the Life of Your Majesty, and Your Dear Brother His-Royal Highness the Duke of York, when we come to consider by what Heads it was contrived, and by what Hands to have been perpetrated by a pernicious Crew of restless Conventiclers, and perfidious insolent and Atheistical Republicans, who disturb the Government in Church and State established, and unreasonably despise our Holy Communion; the first of which no Indulgences can oblige, and the second no Acts of Grace can endear; we do not much wonder that men of the former Principles should never scruple at an Assassination, who durst heretofore commit the most barbarous Murder, with the Solemnity of pretended Justice, or that the latter, who allow no Providence at all, should strive against that which hath been so remarkable in the Preservation of Your Majesty hitherto.

In a just Detestation therefore of such Principles and such Practices, we do hereby declare our Abhorrence of all Leagues, Covenants, Confederacies, and Associations whatsoever, not approved by Your Majesty. And our earnest Prayers are, that Your Majesty may long continue to be an impartial Distributor of Justice, according to the Laws established, a zealous Defender of the Faith that we profess, an encourager of Loyalty in Your Subjects, a Support to Your Neighbours, and a Terror to Your Enemies; for the securing of all which, and the preserving the Succession in the right Line, We shall think our Lives and Fortunes a cheap Sacrifice; and as in duty bound, ever remain,

Your Majesties most Faithful and Loyal Subjects,

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of Your Majesties most Loyal and Obedient Subjects, the High-Sheriff, Lords, Justices of the Peace, and Gentlemen of this County, attending at the Assizes held at the Castle of York, the twenty third day of July 1683.

May it please Your Majesty,

As we cannot but in the most humble Prostration of our Souls, acknowledge the Divine Mercy in the continued and repeated Preservation of Your Majesty, from the Hellish Machinations and Practices of Fanatick Seditious and Atheistical People; so we cannot but wonder with an unspeakable amazement at such as in defiance of so great Providences, dare yet go about to endeavour the Subversion of the best of Governments under the best of Kings.

Notions of Sedition and Rebellion, seem now raised to so great a height within these your Majesties Dominions, that

Some have not only dared to draw them into Reatrice in their Life time, by conspiring the Death of your Sacred Majesty, and His Royal Highness your Dearest Brother, but to propagate them to Posterity with their last breath. And therefore we conceive it high time to own our Separation from such Persons, and our Abhorrence of such Principles. Beseeching Almighty God, by whom Kings Reign, to enable you to tread upon the necks of your Enemies. And that your Crown may flourish upon your Sacred Temples, your Heirs and lawful successors, till time shall be no more.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

Dread Sovereign,

W E your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Justices, and Burgeses of Your Ancient Corporation of Macclesfield in Cheshire, do in all sincerity give our most humble and hearty thanks to our good God that hath so miraculously preserved your most Sacred Person from so many eminent Dangers, especially at this time in delivering you from the hands of those wicked Conspirators, who designed the Ruine of your self, your Dearest Brother, and these three Kingdoms.

We humbly beg your Sacred Majesty to give a Gracious acceptance to the steady Resolutions of us your most obedient and Loyal Subjects which no time, no Treachery, no Power, no Fraud or Factions shall ever make us to decline or alter. Beseeching you to be assured, that our Lives and Fortunes lye at your Royal feet. And that we will upon all occasions be ready to Sacrifice them both in defence of your Majesties Sacred Person, and the established Government of Church and State.

Your Majesties most Humble, most Loyal, and most Obedient Subjects and Servants.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bayliffs, Burgeses, and Commonalty of your Majesties Ancient Borough and Corporation of Dunwich in your County of Suffolk, in Common-Council Assembled.

Great Sir,

W E your Majesties most Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, have with great Astonishment of heart, heard of the Discovery of a most Damnable and Traiterous Conspiracy of divers Wicked, Desperate, and Ill-affected Persons, to compass the Death of your Sacred Person, and your Royal Brother James Duke of York, thereby to Subvert and Ruine the Ancient and flourishing Monarchy, the best of Governments, and to involve your Majesties Kingdoms, in Blood, Confusion, and Slavery.

All which we do utterly detest and abhor; And do offer our humble thanks to Almighty God for so great a Deliverance, and for the seasonable Discovery of so Wicked and Barbarous a Design.

And we do most humbly beseech your Majesty, graciously to receive this Assurance from us, that we will (as it is our duty) on all occasions expose our Lives and Fortunes to the utmost, in defence of your Royal Person, your Heirs and lawful Successors, and your most excellent Government, as by Law established, against all Conspiracies, Associations, and Attempts whatsoever. And shall daily pray for your Majesties Long Life and Prosperous Reign over us: Given under our Common Seal, the One and twentieth day of July, in the Five and thirtieth year of your Majesties Reign.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

W E your Majesties most Obedient and most Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, and Burgeses of your Majesties most Loyal and Ancient Corporation of Launceston in Your Majesties County of Cornwall, having with Horror and Astonishment been well assured by your Majesties Royal Proclamations of the late most Accursed and Traiterous Conspiracy and Design against the Lives of your most Sacred Majesty and Dearest Brother, the most Illustrious Prince, James, Duke of York, Do render our most humble and hearty thanks to Almighty God (by whose Divine Providence this bloody and damnable Conspiracy hath been discovered) for His miraculous and most wonderful Deliverance of your Majesty and Royal Brother, from that Hellish Contrivance and Cursed Machination. And do most humbly beseech the Divine Majesty continually to protect and defend your sacred Majesty and Royal Brother from the Contrivances of all yours and his Enemies, and to infatuate their Councils and Confound all such their Devices. And we do with Loyal hearts declare our utter Abhorrence and detestation of all Traiterous Principles, Conspiracies, Associations and Attempts whatsoever, by or under any Presence whatsoever, whether Popish or Phanaetick, against the Persons of your Sacred Majesty and dearest Brother, and of the Impious and unparalleled Endeavours and Practices of those horrid Conspirators to Subvert the present and best Government in the World, and to alter the succession to your Majesties Crown and Dignity in the Royal Line. And we do with one Consent most Solemnly vow and declare (according to the duty of our Allegiance) to defend your Majesties Sacred Person and Your dearest and only Brother, and the Government now by Law established in Church and State, with the utmost hazard of our Lives and Fortunes.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Lord-Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, and other Officers of the Militia of Your County of Salop.

May it please Your Majesty,

W E our Majesties most Loyal and Obedient Subjects, having with great Horror and Detestation, heard of a most Traiterous and damnable Conspiracy for the Death and Destruction of your most Sacred Person, and of your dearest Brother, the Duke of York, as also of several Meetings and Consults by some Factions and restless Spirits for a Rebellious Insurrection against your Majesties Government, under which both they and all Your Subjects have enjoyed so great Felicity; unavoidably involving thereby these Your three Kingdoms, and all your Dominions in an universal deluge of Blood and Confusion.

Do with all humble Thanks to Almighty God for so timely a Prevention thereof, and for so miraculous a Deliverance, beseech Him of His Mercy to all your Dominions, to continue His wonderful Providence to your Majesty in the Preservation of Your Royal Person, as the greatest Blessing we can receive on Earth; by whose Gracious Government the true Protestant Religion and the just Rights of Your Subjects have been revived and preserv'd, and by your no less Gracious Promises in your late Declaration, shall ever be so.

And we do most humbly and solemnly declare, That (as we hold our selves bound by the Laws of God and the Realm) we as your Militia, shall always expose our Lives and Estates, in defence of your Sacred Person, the succession of the Crown in its true and Legal Descent, and the Government in Church and State by Law established against all damnable Conspiracies and Designs of all wicked Persons of what Perswasion soever. Beseeching Almighty God to make your Reign long and Prosperous over us, and our selves truly sensible of and thankful for so great a Blessing.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble and hearty Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Common Council, and Freemen of Your Majesty's Ancient Borough of New-Woodstock in the County of Oxford.

Great Sir,

W HEN we consider the great happiness which we have long enjoyed under your Majesties most Auspicious Reign, how by the Prudence of your Conduct, we have so many years had the blessings of Peace and Plenty while all Neighbouring Nations have groaned under the heavy pressures of War and Confusions, How Justice is most impartially distributed to all your Subjects without Oppression or Delay, and every Man's Life, Liberty, and Estate, secured unto him, not only by the best Laws, but also by your Majesties most especial Care in the just and equitable Administration of them, It cannot but surprize us with the greatest Amusement that any should be found among us so desperately wicked, as to Conspire against so excellent a Government and so Gracious and just a Prince, and yet it is plainly evident to the World that there was a most Hellish and Traiterous Conspiracy lately contrived against the Life of your most Sacred Majesty, and Your Dear Brother, James, Duke of York, and for the involving these Nations again into Blood and Confulſon, by Fanatical, Antimonarchical, and Atheiſtical Perſons diſturb- ing themſelves under the name of True Proteſtants, (but being as far from True Proteſtants as they are from being True Subjects) and that the Ring-leaders and chief Conſpirators in this Deſpicable Treafon were either thoſe that held their Lives by Your Majeſties former Clemency, or owe their Fortunes to Your Favour. We therefore, Your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, having ſeriously reflected upon the ſaid Execrable and Damnable Conſpiracy, Do offer up our ſolemn and hearty Thanks to Almighty God for your Majeſties, and your moſt Illuſtrious Brother's miraculous Preſervation from the ſame; And ſhall always with Hearts full of Loyalty and Duty be ready with our Lives and Fortunes to defend your Sacred Majeſty, Your Heirs, and Lawful Succeſſors, and the Government, as it is by Law eſtabliſhed, from all Traiterous Aſſociations, Plots and Conſpiracies whatſoever. In Teſtimony whereof we have ſet our Hands, and cauſed the Common Seal of the ſaid Borough to be herunto affixed, the Twenty fourth day of July, in the Five and thirtieth Year of Your Majeſties Reign.

To the King's Moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Adreſs of the Bayliffs, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty of the Borough of Fewkeſbury, in the County of Glouceſter.

Great Sovereign,

WHILE Your Majeſties moſt Obedient and Loyal Subjects, having with great Aſtoniſhment and Horror heard of the late Execrable Conſpiracy, to take away the Life of Your Sacred Majeſty, and of His Royal Highneſs (Your deareſt Brother) contrived and carried on by deſperate Miſcreants, of Fanatick and Atheiſtical Principles, do from the bottom of our Souls, deteſt and abhor ſo devilish and unheard of Treafon. And we heartily bleſs and adore the infinite Goodneſs of Almighty God, in the happy diſcovery of it.

May the ſame Providence ſtill Protect and Preſerve Your Majeſty, and the Royal Family, from the Curſed Deſigns of all Your Enemies, that the Imperial Crown of theſe Kingdoms may for ever continue to Your Majeſty, Your Heirs, and Lawful Succeſſors; Which, as we Pray in all Sincerity, ſo we humbly preſume to repeat our engagement and ſteady reſolution, to ſtand by and defend the ſame, and the Government Eſtabliſhed by Law, both in Church and State, to the utmoſt of our Lives and Fortunes, againſt all Traiterous Aſſociations and Confederacies whatſoever.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Adreſs of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Capital Burgeſſes, and all other the Inhabitants of Your Ancient and Loyal Corporation and Borough of Stamford.

Humbly ſheweth,

THAT we Your Majeſties moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, whoſe Hearts have been deeply affected with Amazing Sorrow, upon the firſt ſenſe and apprehenſion of theſe Treafonable and Horrid Conſpiracies, againſt your Majeſties Sacred Perſon, and Royal Brother, James, Duke of York, deſign'd and contriv'd by Men as much void of all Humanity, as of the fear of God, or any ſenſe of true Religion, endeavouring to extirpate the Royal Family, to ſubvert this Ancient and Flouriſhing Monarchy, to reduce us into the Chaos of Modern Anarchy, and by that means to plunge all Your Majeſties Dominions into an Ocean of Blood, Ruine, and Confuſion, Do now with all poſſible expreſſions of Loyal Joy, Congratulate the happy and miraculous Deliverance of your Sacred Perſon and Royal Brother, from the moſt deſperate and impious Attempts of Barbarous Traitor; Humbly imploring the Mercy of Heaven, that as He hath hitherto moſt ſignally delivered from many imminent Dangers, and doth deliver, ſo He would pleaſe (as we truſt He will) yet to deliver both of You from the blow and reach of all ſuch detestable Machinations; and moſt ſolemnly declaring, That we Your moſt Loyal and Obedient Subjects, in Defence of Your Majeſties Royal Perſon, your Heirs and Succeſſors, and for the Maintenance of your Government in Church and State, as by Law eſtabliſhed, againſt all ſuch Treafonable Conſpiracies, and Traiterous Aſſociations, will moſt heartily and zealouſly appear upon all Occaſions, with the utmoſt expence of all our Temporal Interests, whether they reſpect our Lives or Fortunes, and ſhall continually offer our humble and fervent Prayers to Almighty God, that as your Majeſties Reign hath been to us and to all your Loyal Subjects moſt graciously Auſpicious, ſo it may be to Your Royal Self moſt happy, long, and Glorious over us.

Lintz, Auguſt 31. The 29th Inſtant we had an account by ſeveral Perſons, who came hither, that the King of Poland arrived the 27th with 15000 Horſe at Welckerſdorf, three miles from Vienna, and that his Foot would be come up in two or three days. Their Imperial Majesties are ſtill here, and we are told the Emperor's journey to Crems to meet the King of Poland, is laid aſide. An Expreſs arriv'd this day brings news that the Imperialiſts have poſſeſſed themſelves of a ſmall Iſland lying in the Danube, not far from Vienna; the ſtrict account we have of the condition of that place, is contained in the following Letter from the Governor to the Duke of Lorraine.

A Copy of a Letter from the Count de Starenberg Governor of Vienna, to the Duke of Lorraine, Dated Auguſt 27. 1683.

ICASE myſelf at Your Highneſs's feet, moſt humbly to thank your Highneſs for the goodneſs you were pleaſed to expreſs towards me in your laſt Letter. Your Highneſs knows I am perfectly Devoted to you, and that I deſire nothing more paſſionate than by my beſt labours and ſervices to render my ſelf worthy thereof. Since my laſt the Enemy have ſprung 6 or 7 Mines in the Ravine, which, after having reſuiſed them, we preſently repaired again, and we ſtill maintain our Retrenchments, the Enemy having hitherto gained no more than a Lidgemen on the Point of the Ravine. We ſearch above and under Ground, and have Countermine'd ſome of the Enemies Mines, and ſprung two Mines, which had good effect, and would have had better, were our Miners more brave and expert, but being People which we get together any way, it is impoſſible to make them enter a Mine when they once ſee the Enemy at work. In the Counterscarp the Enemy have 1 Kenel ſprung, three Mines near a Retrenchment, Paſſado's, which we ſtill maintain, to cover the Caponiers we have in the Dutch and ſo the Paſſado's were in ſome ſort ſeized down by the laſt Mine, yet 100 men remain in the Piſt with their Swords in their hands, ſuch as are the Enemy made good again, and we do ſtill keep it. The Enemy have again made two deſcents into the ditch, the one towards the Baſtion of Lebel and the other towards that of the Count, from whence our men did in open day, under the favour of the Fire we gave upon the Enemy two hours together, very bravely diſlodge them, while others, Commanded for that purpoſe, filled up their Works and burnt their Gabions and Galleries, ſo that they muſt now begin again. But, Sir, it is time to ſuccor us, we loſe a great many men, and many Officers, more by the bloody flux than by the Fire of the Enemy, for there dies almoſt every day 60 of this ſtemper; we have 10 more Grenado's, which was our laſt defence; our Cannon are partly ſpoiled by the Enemy, and partly burnt, not having endured ſo ſtill by reaſon of the badneſs of their Metal; And the Enemy finding they cannot with ſmall numbers ſodge themſelves in the ditch, make great Lodgments on the Counterscarp, to keep a great number of men there, and to make an extraordinary Effort. For the reſt it is certain that the Enemy have liſt, and do liſt every day a great many Spaniſh, and that they have many wounded and ſick of the ſame Diſtemp'r, which kills ſome amongſt them. They have ſeveral Camps far and nigh ſtill each other, and may be easily beaten if they stay for your Highness here, which I do not believe they will do. They are not at present 60000 fighting men, and one Camp may be beaten before it can be assisted by the other. We expect Your Highness with the greatest impatience, but I not so much to be delivered of this Siege, as to have the honor to assure your Highness of the respect with which I am, &c.

P. S. At this Instant my Miners inform me, that they hear the Enemy working beneath them under the Bastion of the Court; They must have passed the Ditch under ground, and there is no more time to be lost.

Francfort, September 6. The Letters from Lintz give us an account that the King of Poland had joynd the Imperial Army the 29th with 15000 Horse; and that his Infantry, as likewise the Troops of the Elector of Saxony, were expected in three or four days: and that all things were disposing for the relief of Vienna, which began to be very much pressed, the Enemy being lodged in the Ditch, and having brought their Mines under the Bastion, near which is the Emperor's Palace. From Raisibonne they write that the States of the Empire assembled there, have declared, it is their opinion that the Truce offered by his most Christian Majesty, should be accepted, but that a longer time be desired to adjust the Conditions upon which it is to be made, and the time it is to last.

Cologne, September 10. The Letters we received by the last Post from Lintz, inform us, that the King of Poland had joynd the Imperial Army with his Cavalry, consisting of 18000 men, most of them Polish Gentlemen, who have each of them a Servant or two; and that the Foot, which it was said were 15000 strong, were expected in two or three days: The Letters add, that the Duke of Lorraine had taken a small Island near Vienna, which will be of great use to him, and that the Turks do very much press the Siege of Vienna, the Grand Visier having, as they say, sworn that he will take the Place, or loose his Life before it. The last account we have of the Siege, comes in a Copy of a Letter written by the Governor to the Duke of Lorraine on the 27th past, wherein he presses his Highness to hasten to their relief. On the first instant the Chapter of Munster chose our Elector Bishop of that See; and it's said his Electoral Highness will make the Bishop of Strasbourg his Coadjutor.

Hamburg, Sept. 10. The King of Denmark is still at Rensburg; and the Sieur Meinders and Sieur de Groot, who are there on the part of the Elector of Brandenburg, and the Duke of Hanover, have had several Conferences with the Ministers of that Court. From Berlin they write that 15 Brandenburg Regiments that have had their Quarters in Prussia, are marching to Crossin, where his Electoral Highness intends to form a Camp. The Elector of Cologne is chosen Bishop of Munster.

Hague, September 14. The 12th Instant arrived here an Express with Letters from the Marquis de Grana, to give the States-General and the Prince of Orange an account of the proceeding of the French in Flanders. We have Letters from Stralsund, which tell us, that the Danish and French Fleet, consisting of between 50 and 60 Sail, had been seen off of Bornholm, but that it was not known whether they were going. They write from Lintz of the first Instant, That the Turks made a very terrible Storm upon Vienna the 29th past, but that the Letters from Passaw make no mention thereof.

Brussels, September 10. The Marschal d'Humieres continues still at Lessines, from whence it's said he will remove in a day or two; and the Count de Montbron commands a flying Camp between Dixmude and Bruges; in the mean time the Country suffers very much. Such as desire Safeguards, have them for their Houses, Goods, and Horses, but for their Cattle, Corn, Hay, and other Provisions, there is no Protection. We told you in our last, that the Magistrates of this City have undertaken to raise and maintain 2000 men, since the States of Brabant following their Example, have made the Marquis de Grana a Present of 200 thousand Florins in ready Money, to buy Horses for the dismounted Cavalry and Dragoons, which was very acceptable to his Excellency in this Conjunction. Several Dutch Troops are marching towards Bolduc, where they are to Encamp, and at the same time their Frontier Garisons on this side are reinforced.

Paris, Sept. 15. The Marschal d'Humieres, as our Letters from Flanders tell us, was encamped between Aeth and Grammont, from whence he had sent out several Parties. He has laid a Tax upon the Country of Alost, and set a day for the payment of it. Monsieur du Quesne continues still before Argiers, and toatt ck that place with his Bombs, but the season that's coming on will, it's believed, oblige him to return home very suddenly, having already sent away the Gallies. The News we have here concerning Vienna, is in general, that the place holds out bravely, and that the King of Poland was joynd with the Duke of Lorraine, and marching to its relief.

Advertisements.

The strong Jersey Gun-Powder is now sold by William Sharpe Gunsmith, near the Coach and Horses in Exeterstreet in the Strand, at 3s. per Pound by retail, and 2s. 6d. by whole-sale.

Stolen from Wilby near Willingborough in Northamptonshire, the 29th past, a black Horse with a Star and bob-tail, about six years old and 14 hands high, as is suspected by a tall brown man with gray Cloaths, and a new pair of Boots, who has been burnt in the hand; whoever gives notice to Mr. Wilson at the Seven Stars near Newgate, or to Mr. Galton at Wilby aforesaid, shall have 20 s. reward.

Rid away from Yarmouth by a brisk young Fellow about twenty years of Age, with a whitish gray Mare, somewhat Fleabitten, about 14 hands high, and about twelve years old, her Ear from the Mauward slit, hath all her Paces, and a small slip of her Nose, if any one give notice of the said Mare. So that the may be had again, to Mr. Henry Browne of Barnards Inn London, or to Mr. Robert Meadow of Great Yarmouth in Norfolk, shall have a Guinea reward.

Stolen or strayed the latter end of August last, out of the Grounds of Cresfield Draper Esq; of Crayford near Darrford in Kent, a bright bay Mare near fourteen hands and a half high, nine years old, with a long Tail, three white Feet, a Star in the Forehead, the oft Ear slit, with a small Scar in the Footlock Joynt of the oft Leg behind. Whosoever shall give notice of the aforesaid Mare to Cresfield Draper, or to Mr. William Dingley Linnen-Draper at the Golden Bolt in Southwark, shall have a very good Reward.

Stolen or strayed the sixth day of this instant September, out of the Grounds of Richard Wheate in the Parish of Paddington in the County of Middlesex, a black brown Gelding, with three white Feet, a small Star and Snip, fifteen hands high, six years old, with a Brand mark M. upon the near Buttock, with a bob-tail, whoever shall give notice of the said Gelding to Mr. Henry Bigg Tobacconist, next door to the Angel Inn in St. Giles's in the Fields near the Church, or to Richard Wheate at the White Lyon Inn in Paddington aforesaid, shall have a Guinea reward and all Charges borne.