AT the Court at Windsor, the 22d day of June 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued, from Wednesday the twenty-fourth day of this instant June, to Thursday the twentieth day of August next.

And the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor, of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, is to cause a Commission to be prepared, in the usual manner, for proroguing the Parliament accordingly.

It is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Convocations of the Provinces of Canterbury and York be prorogued, from the day to which the same now stand prorogued, to Friday the twenty-first day of August next.

And the Right Honourable the Lord High Chancellor, of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, is to cause Commissions or Writs to be prepared, in the usual manner, for proroguing the said Convocations accordingly.

The Speech of the Lords Commissioners to both Houses of Parliament, on Wednesday, June 24, 1829.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

WE are commanded by His Majesty, in releasing you from your attendance in Parliament, to express to you His Majesty's acknowledgments for the zeal and assiduity with which you have applied yourselves to the despatch of the public business, and especially to the consideration of those important matters which His Majesty recommended to your attention at the opening of the session.

His Majesty directs us to inform you, that He continues to receive from His Allies, and from all
