

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday September 10. to Thursday September 13. 1683.

Whitehall, September 12.

The following Addresses having been presented to His Majesty, His Majesty was pleased to receive them very graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, the Nobility, Gentry, and Freeholders of Your Majesties County of Warwick.

Dread Sovereign,

WE Your Majesties most humble and Affectionately Loyal Subjects, notwithstanding the late Addresses from the Lieutenantcy, Grand-Juries, and Corporations in our County; Think it still a Duty incumbent upon us in our whole Body, to tender our unfeigned thanks to the Almighty God, for preserving Your Sacred Person, and Your most Dear and Royal Brother, from the late Hellish Conspiracy, which was contrived and endeavoured to have been effected by Conventiclers and other Factious and Traiterous Persons of Commonwealth Principles. In all humility we beg leave to assure Your Majesty, that from the bottom of our Hearts we abhor all Associations, that have been contrived or carried on by Traiterous Lords, disaffected Commoners, or the unruly and giddy Multitude; Declaring that we will be ever ready to the utmost of our Abilities to serve Your Majesty, Your Heirs Lineally descended from the Crown, and to support Your Government both in Church and State; and as occasion shall offer, we will testify the same by our Actions as well as Words. And as there has of late been Published a base, scandalous, and seditious Speech, in the name of the late Lord Russell, immediately after his just Execution; We cannot but stand amazed to think so much Impudence and Folly durst presume to Vindicate that Lord, when that Paper is filled with nothing but Vanity, foolish Contradictions, and intended Malice. However, we hope, not only this County, but the whole Kingdom, and all other Dominions under Your Majesties most August and happy Government, is truly sensible what a monstrous sort of Vipers there has of late been amongst us; And that the Old Shams and Tricks of the Canting Fanaticks will no more prevail amongst us: But that Religion and Loyalty may be joyed together both in publick and private Prayers to the Almighty God, for the continuation to Your Majesty of a long and prosperous Reign over us: And that Ignominy and Confusion may light upon the Heads of all Schismatical and Anarchical Persons; Which is the daily Prayers of Your Majesties most Obedient and ever Loyal and Dutiful Subjects.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the whole Militia, Clergy, and Gentry of the City of Chester.

Dread Sovereign,

WH having with great Astonishment heard of a cursed Conspiracy for the Assassination of your Majesties Sacred Person, and the Person of your Dearest Brother, His Royal Highness James Duke of York, cannot choose but be highly affected with Joy, when we consider God's wonderful Providences in protecting your Majesty, amidst so many threatening Dangers, and Devilish Combinations, but at the same time, we cannot but grieve for these ungrateful Returns unto your Majesties Mercy, and that notwithstanding the benign Influences of your Royal Grace, these evil Spirits are not yet laid, but the Sword of Justice must still be unhearth'd to cut off Traiterous and Disloyal Subjects. May that Great God, by whom Kings Reign, be still your Majesties mighty Defender, against the bloody Attempts of Schismatical Conventiclers, and perfidious Politicians, who under a specious Pretext of Reforming the Church, and bettering the Government, cover their Damnable Designs of Confusion and Anarchy, endeavouring thereby to render the Reformed Religion it self, and this most excellent Constitution of Government, the very scorn and obliquy of Heretics and Infidels. And may it please your Majesty graciously to accept these our deep and just Resentments of this Bloody Conspiracy, together with our unanimous Protestation, that neither the threatnings nor allurements of disaffected men, shall ever shake our Allegiance, or so far violate our Consciences, as to work us into any thoughts of altering the Government either in Church or State; but we are fully resolved (by Gods help) to manifest our Loyalty to the whole World, by a ready obedience to, and vigorous Defence, of your Majesties Royal Person, your Heirs and lawful Successors, against all Plots, Assassinations, Conspiracies, and Treacheries of Atheists, Papists, Dissenters, and bare Pretenders to Religion and Loyalty.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bailiff and Burgeses of your Majesties ancient and Loyal Borough of Cocker-mouth in your County of Cumberland.

May it please Your most Excellent Majesty,

TO permit us amongst the rest of your Honest and Loyal Subjects, to approach your Royal Presence, with an unfeigned tender of our Lives and Fortunes, to be readily employed in the defence of your Majesties Sacred Person, and unalterable Hereditary Government, against the Fanatical and Traiterous Principles of those accursed Projectors, who labour by ungrounded Jealousies, to establish their beloved Democracy, the very worst of Tyrannies.

We could not, without a great deal of Horror and Detestation, take a Prospect of that most Barbarous and ingrateful Design (most providentially discovered) against your Majesty (the best and most merciful King in the World) and your only Royal and Dearest Brother, the illustrious Prince James Duke of York.

It is our unspeakable Felicity that we live under the gentle Influences of a Prince, who does not only Protect our Lives and Property from the bold Invasions of unjust Persons, but our Religion also from all Foreign Tinctures either of Rome or Geneva.

Monarchy and Hierarchy have most unquestionably been the Governemene of this Nation ever since our Primitive Christianity. And although the Antimonarchical Faction have (of late) so far prevailed, as to tempt many unthinking Persons to a forgetfulness of this, and the Duties that result from it, yet the Intreagues of the Faction being now laid open by your Majesties Princely Care and Vigilance, the deluded Vulgar do now begin with Horror to Survey those Precipices of Ruine, into which they were ready to tumble.

The Mills which those Religious Juglers had cast before their Eyes, are now dissipated to that excellent and long wished degree, that whensoever your Majesty shall, in your Princely wisdom think fit to call a Parliament, your Majesty will so far be, from running the hazard of encountering Seditious and unwarrantable Votes, that all those places which are Ignored and entrusted with Power of sending Representatives to that Honorable Assembly, will choose such Persons, as in their common Discourses and Practices, give the fairest hopes and Testimony of their Loyalty and Submission.

continues

We with for such a Proof of Obedience from all our Fellow-Subjects, and do faithfully ingage for our selves, that when your Majesty shall please to call your great Council, we shall elect such Members for this our ancient and Loyal Borough, as shall comply with your Majesties Just and Honorable Designs, and enable you to assert and vindicate your own, and the Nations Honor, against all Foreign and Domestick Oppositions.

May your Majesties Reign over us, be long, flourishing and Prosperous: May the Succession of your Imperial Crown never be interrupted, nor so much as ever any more be called in Question: May the Religion already established amongst us by Law, be inviolably preserved to us and our Posterity; And may those Atheistical Persons, and their Fellow-Conspirators (who have occasioned to your Majesty, the trouble of this and all other Addresses to the like purpose) learn from the many Defeats, of their wicked purposes, Lessons of Loyalty and true Obedience to your Majesty, and your Officers in Church and State, and to yours and their Successors. These, Great Sir, are the heart, and unfeigned Wilhes, and daily Prayers of,

Most Dread Sovereign,
Your most Loyal, and most Obedient Subjects.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Burgesse, and other the Inhabitants of Your Majesties ancient Borough of Arrundell in the County of Suffex.

Dread Sovereign,

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, being truly sensible of the Horrid, Bloody, and Treasonable Conspiracies for the Destruction and Murdering of Your Sacred Majesty, and Your Royal Brother James Duke of York, now lately discovered to be designed, contrived, and carried on by several sorts of desperate, bloody, and wicked minded Persons, thereby to extirpate Your Royal Family, and so to ruine and subvert this ancient and flourishing Monarchy (which we pray God long to continue to the comfort of all Your Majesties Loyal Subjects) and to bring Confusion and Desolation upon this and all other Your Majesties Kingdoms by imbrewing Your Majesties Subjects in Blood, and levying a Civil War; do from the bottom of our hearts with unexpressable Joy, acknowledge Gods great mercy towards us in the timely discovery of such Hellish Plotting, and the blessed and miraculous deliverance of Your Sacred Person and Royal Brother from the malicious Designs of Your Majesties and our Enemies. And we shall ever be ready, according to our Duty, for the Preservation, and in defence of Your Majesties Royal Person, Your Heirs and Successors, and Your Government both in Church and State as by Law now established, against all Treasonable Conspiracies, and Traiterous Associations cheerfully and heartily to expose and Sacrifice both our Lives and Fortunes, and continually offer up our humble and fervent Prayers to Almighty God, that Your Majesty may live long, to reign prosperously, happily, and gloriously over us; In Testimony whereof, we have hereunto subscribed our Names, and caused the Common Seal of this Borough to be hereunto set, this one and twentieth day of July in the Five and thirtieth year of Your Majesties Reign, &c, Annoq3 Dom. 1693.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

Dread Sovereign,

WE your Majesties most Loyal, Dutiful, and Obedient Subjects, the Aldermen, Recorder, Comburgers, Gentlemen, and Inhabitants of your Ancient Town and Corporation of Grantlam, in the County of Lincoln. Having formerly with all Humility Addressed our selves to your Majesty, and now upon a late Discovery of a most Trayterous Conspiracy against the Person of your Sacred Majesty, your Crown and Dignity and against the Person of His Royal Highness the Duke of York. We do again most humbly Address our selves to your Sacred Majesty, with the offers of our most hearty Thanks to Almighty God for his late Preservation of your Majesty and His Royal Highness, from the Bloody Designs of those Traiterous Conspirators: And do humbly beg of your Majesty, that you would be graciously pleased to accept the Real Proffers of our Lives and Fortunes in Defence and Preservation of your Majesties Royal Person and Government, your lawful Heirs and Successors, and of the Religion of the Church of England, as is now established. And we do further promise your Majesty, that whensoever you shall think fit to call your Great Council in Parliament, we will chaage such Burgesse to assist in the same, on whose Loyalty and hearty Intentions, we agree with us in all Points of this our sincere and humble Address, we may confide and rely. And we in all Humility Subscribe our selves

Your Majesties most Dutiful
and Loyal Subjects,

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Grand Jury of the County of Wilts, at the Assizes held for the said County at the City of New-Sarum, the twentieth day of July, in the Five and thirtieth Year of Your Majesties Reign.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

SINCE Your Majesty was pleased to accept at the like Meeting, our hearty Abhorrence of an Association against your Government, only in Scheme, as it then appeared, and now to our Astonishment and Indignation, finding it really designed for an unparalleled Conspiracy against your Majesties Sacred Person and Illustrious Brother, and through your Royal Family, against all your good Subjects; we with Impatience have waited for this Opportunity, with all Humility to offer up, as the unanimous and loud cry of your Loyal County of Wilts, our utmost Detestation of this Bloody contrivance, those blackest of Treasons, (so miraculously discovered by the hand of God, and so prudently defeated since, by the great Wisdom of your Majesty) carried on by many of those Men, who the better to Palliate their most wicked Designs, seem'd heretofore to be most solicitous for the Preservation of your Majesties Life and Government. We do most earnestly beseech your Majesty to believe, that no Presence, how specious soever, shall make us swerve in the least from our Duty and Allegiance to your Majesty, and your lawful Successors. And we most sincerely offer up our Prayers to Almighty God, who hath so often delivered your Majesty from so many imminent Dangers, to continue your Majesty and Royal Family over us in these Kingdoms unto the Worlds end.

We the Lord Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, and Justices of the Peace of the County of Wilts, with others, do humbly and heartily concur with this Address.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgesse of the Borough of Devizes in the County of Wilts.

Dread Sovereign,

WE your Majesties Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, being deeply sensible of that damnable Plot and Traiterous Conspiracy against the Life of Your Sacred Person, and of Your Dearest Brother and against your Government in Church and State, lately discovered to us, as well by your Majesties Royal Proclamation, as by Legal Conviction of divers of the Traitors therein concerned, Do return our hearty thanks to Almighty God, that He hath so wonderfully brought to light those black and hellish Deeds of Darknes, to the great comfort and satisfaction of us and all other your Majesties Loyal Subjects, but to the shame and confusion of the Contrivers thereof, who under the greatest pretences for Religion, and Loyal Affection to the Government, by such their Treasons, designed nothing less than the utter Extirpation of both; We do therefore from the bottom of our Hearts, declare our utter detestation and abhorrence of such Traiterous Conspiracies, and do most humbly assure Your Majesty, that we shall always with a steadfast and constant Loyalty, to the utmost of our power, Defend Your Majesty, Your lawful Heirs and Successors, and Your Government in Church and State, as now by Law Established; And we hope that all others whom their Duty and Interest hath not hitherto obliged them thereunto, out of a due sense and consideration of those dismal and fatal Consequences of such Treasons, for the Preservation of Your Majesty and Government, will for ever hereafter be more firmly united.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of Your Loyal Inhabitants within the Borough of Clifton-Dartmouth-Hardness, with other of the Neighbouring Gentlemen and Free men of the said Corporation.

Great Sir,

THAT we were no forwarder in our Dutiful Congratulations for the signal Deliverance of Your Sacred Person; and the Person of Your Dear Brother (the Illustrious James Duke of York) from the Horrid and Hellish Attempts of Traitors, Trayterous, Antimonarchical, Blood-thirsty, and Treasonable Men, was not for want of hearts truly thankful to God, and Loyal to our King, but because we could not mix our selves in the Address drawn up by some of the Borough, in which a few Loyal well-meaning Subjects were allured to sign with men, whose Principles (we verily believe) are not sound, and whose Practices in the late times, have given us a sufficient Demonstration, that they are neither Lovers of Monarchy, or the established Government, which (through the Blessing of Heaven, and Your Pious Care and Goodness) we now happily enjoy in our Church; separate therefore from such a medly, we, throw our selves, low before Your Majesties Feet, with fixed Resolutions to stand firm both to Your Crown and Dignity, and with the final hazard both of our Lives and Fortunes, to endeavour the Preservation of Your Royal Person; Your Heirs and lawful Successors, against the Plots and Machinations of all Rebellious, Tumultuary, and Associating Men, who seek Your Life to destroy; that God would Bless you with a long and peaceable Reign over us, to the utter shame and disappointment of Your Enemies; and Crown you at last with Glory; shall be our continual Prayers.

The following Addresses from the Counties of Anglesey and Carnarvan (whereof His Majesty was pleased to declare His Gracious Acceptance) were presented by his Grace the Duke of Beaufort; which together with those of several Counties of Wales, were prepared against his Grace's late intended Progress into those parts:

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Grand-Jury, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Clergy; and other Loyal Inhabitants of Your Majesties County of Anglesey, assembled at the Great Sessions held for the said County at Bewmares, on Monday the Three and twentieth Day of July, 1683.

Great Sir,

WE Your Majesties Loyal Subjects, with hearty Acknowledgments of God's great and signal Mercies, do with enlarged Hearts and most dutiful Affections, Congratulate Your Majesties happy Deliverance from the Horrid Designs of those restless Seditious Monsters of Men; who most wickedly contrived Your Majesties and Your Royal Brother's Destruction, and the Subversion of this Established Government in Church and State; And as at first we received the knowledge of it with Horror and Astonishment, so we now most humbly assure Your Majesty of our constant Obedience and entire Acquiescence under Your Just and Milde Government, which we will defend to the utmost expence of our Lives and Fortunes.

And with inflamed Desires suitable thereunto, do, and shall ever pray for Your Majesties long Life and happy Reign over us; and an uninterrupted Succession in Your Royal Line.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the County of Carnarvan, presented by the Grand Inquest for the Body of the said County, at the Great Sessions held at Carnarvan the 30th day of July, 1683. with the Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, and the rest of the Gentry of the said County:

Great Sir,

THE tender Mercies of our good God that first graciously restored You to us, and since so our defended and preserved Your Majesty, and Your Royal Brother from the Bloody Designs of Your Majesties and our Enemies on both hands, especially the late Horrid Conspiracy; require from us a most humble Acknowledgment; And that Testimony from Heaven, together with Your Gracious and Milde Government, have fixt in our Hearts an unalterable resolution of Duty and Obedience to Your Majesty, and Successors, according to the Precepts of our Religion, and Laws of our Church and State, against all Your Enemies whatever. We all enjoy Religion and Property, and both in Peace under You, for which we heartily bless God and thank Your Majesty.

And therefore in Gratitude as well as Duty; we praise God Almighty for what he has done. And pray for the continuance of His favour in Your Majesties long Life, and an undisturbed happy Reign and Government, as now Established over us; and our Posterity, in You and Your Royal Line for ever; In defence of which; we are ready to Sacrifice our Lives and Fortunes.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

Great Sir,

WE the Governour, the Judge, Jurats, Minister, Officers, and other Your faithful Subjects and Inhabitants of Your Island of Auregny, part of Your Ancient Duchy of Normandy, Having with Horror heard of a most impious Treason lately contrived against Your most Sacred Person; and that of His Royal Highness Your Brother, happily discovered; We have and shall ever from the bottom of our Hearts give thanks to the Living Majesty, who by His special and miraculous Providence from time to time, keeps and preserves Your Majesty and His Royal Highness; so the happiness of all your Subjects, and to the blessing of this small Island, under Your so happy Reign; All our Weisare proceeding from and consulting entirely in Your Grace and Sovereign Goodness to us.

We humbly beg your Majesties pardon for this our boldness in making this Address and Protestation which we cannot omit in this Occasion; Therefore we humbly throw our selves at the Feet of Your sacred Majesty, declaring that we do detest and abhor all such execrable Plots; And that we are and shall ever be ready to employ our Lives and Estates for the preservation of Your Majesty and lawful Successors, not only against such abominable and impious Conspirators, but against whomsoever shall disturb or annoy your Government in Church or State. And we shall never cease to implore the Almighty for the continuance of His Blessings upon Your Majesty and Your Royal Family for ever.

This Address of the Island of Auregny; was Signed by all the Inhabitants thereof, and presented in French to His Majesty at Windsor, by Doctor John Saumarez, Dean of Gurmeffy, Mr. Richard Beauvoir, and Mr. Charles Andros.

Lintz, September 4. On Thursday last the King of Poland arrived at Holbrun, six Miles from Vienna, where he was met by the Duke of Lorrain, accompanied with several Generals and other Persons of the first Quality; The next day the King returned the Duke of Lorrain his Visit, and a Council of War was held, after which they marched together, and Yesterday their Troops began to pass the Bridge which is laid over the Danube above Tûln. In the mean time the City of Vienna defends it self bravely; And the Duke of Lorrain has received a Letter from the Governour, dated the first Instant at nine a Clock at night, in which he gives an account that they had discovered the great Mine under the Ballion; in which they found some of the Enemies Miners, and that they took out of it 40 Quintals of Powder, each Quintal being 100 weight, and by that means had freed themselves from the assault the Turks intended to make when this Mine took effect. But that the Gunpowder was much weakened (many dying daily of the Bloody-flux) and besides was almost wearied out with continual Duty, and therefore he prays his Highness to hasten their Relief. The Grand Viceroy has drawn his three Camps together, and fortifies himself. He has commanded Count T. Keley, Abassi Prince of Transilvania, the Walachians, and the Moldavians, to join his Army. And yesterday arrived here a Courier with Letters from
Entine

Prince Abaffi, wherein he assures the Emperor, that though he had been obliged by the Grand Visier to take the Field with 10000 Men, he would not fight against the Christians, and that there were others of the same mind. The Emperor will part from hence to-morrow with few Attendants for the Army.

Ratisbonne, Septemb. 9. We have Letters from Lintz of the fourth instant, which give us an account, that by several Couriers arrived there, they were informed, That the King of Poland had joined the Imperial Army the Thursday before; That the next day a great Council of War was held, to consult in what manner the relief of Vienna is to be undertaken, which it's said will be on the 9th or 10th instant; That the Duke of Lorraine had received a Letter from Count Starenberg, written the first instant, wherein he gives an account, that he had discovered the great Mine which the Enemy had made under the Bastion of the Court, and had taken the Powder out of it; and that he had burnt all the Fagots, with which the Turks had almost filled the Ditch, in order to the forming the Town when the said Mine should operate, by which means he was rid of a great fear; That the Grand Visier had drawn his three Camps into one, which he fortified, and that he had summoned Count Teckelej, the Transylvanians, the Moldavians, and the Walachians, to join him, being resolved to expect the Christian Army there. Yesterday arrived here an Express from the Imperial Army, who confirms what our Letters from Lintz tell us, and adds, that the Elector of Saxony is arrived in the Imperial Army, and that the Elector of Bavaria was on his way thither.

We receive just now an account that the Besieged have driven the Enemy out of the Counterscarp, and that the Turks began to remove their Baggage.

Cologne, September 14. According to all our advices from Lintz, Passaw, and other Places, the ninth or tenth instant was designed for the Relief of Vienna, so that we begin to be in very great impatience to know the Success of that great day. It is said, that the King of Poland and the Duke of Lorraine were to command the main Body, the Elector of Bavaria and Prince Waldecke the right Wing, and the Elector of Saxony and the Duke of Saxe Lawenburg the Left. Our Elector has written to the Emperor, to give him an account of his being chosen Bishop of Munster.

Hamburg, September 14. The King of Denmark continues still at Rensburg. He has laid a new Tax upon the Country of Holftein, which is to be paid within a certain time. The Danish and French Fleet cruises off of Bornboime.

Brussels, September 14. The Marschal d'Humieres continues still at Leffines, and hath published very strict Orders, forbidding upon pain of Death, as well Officers as Soldiers, to pass the River Dender, and several have been hanged for disobeying them, and committing Disorders in the Country. Monsieur Pellejer the French Intendant, has allowed the Country some few days longer to make the first payment of their Contributions. Monsieur Montal is Encamped with a flying Body at la Buffiere on the Sambre; and the French have likewise a small Camp near Dixmuyde. This morning the Marquis de Grana parted from hence for Antwerp, to meet the Prince of Orange to-morrow at West Wesel. We are told that the States General have resolved to assist us with 8000 Men, according to their Treaty, and that these Troops are on their march. The States of Flanders have made the Marquis de Grana a present of 300 thousand Florins, towards remounting and recruiting his Cavalry; His Excellency has already employed the moneys given him by the States of this Province, in buying 2000 Horses, which some Persons have contracted with his Excellency to furnish, and with this farther supply of the States of Flanders, his Excellency will be enabled not only to remount all the dismounted Cavalry and Dragoons, but to make up the Cavalry 5000 effective.

Hague, September 17. We are told that the States General have resolved to assist the Spanish Netherlands, according to their Treaty with the King of Spain, with 8000 men in case any Place be attacked; and that the Troops of this State do march towards the Frontiers to encamp there. The Prince of Orange is gone to meet and confer with the Marquis de Grana, at a place near Antwerp. The Letters from Stralsund tell us, that the Danish and French Fleet was seen off of Bornboime.

Paris, September 18. The Kings Army, under the command of the Marschal d'Humieres, continued according to our last Advices, encamped between Aeth and Grammont, the Marschal having his Quarters at Leffines. The 16th instant the Count de Baumgarten Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Bavaria, had Audience of the King, the Dauphin, &c. to make his Electoral Highness a complement of Condolance upon the death of the Queen. Monsieur du Quesne continues still before Argiers.

Advertisements.

This is to give Notice, That the second New Fair that is to be kept on Black-Heath, will be there begun upon the first day of October next, and hold two days after.

The Creditors of Benjamin Hinton of London, Goldsmith, are desired to repair forthwith to Mr. Edward Ambrose's House, an Attorney, in the Stocks-Market, there to Sign and Seal a Writing of Agreement betwixt him and his said Creditors, to which their Trustees and many of the Creditors have already Signed, the old Writing, being void by reason all the Creditors did not Sign the same before the time therein limited for that purpose, was elapsed.

Stolen on Tuesday the 11th of September, between 4 and 5 of the Clock in the Afternoon, out of the Lady Bellings Lodgings in Somerset-House in the Strand, two silver Porringers with silver Covers, and two silver Forks; all the said Plate being marked with a half Lyon Rampant, holding a Cross in his Paws. Whosoever gives notice thereof to Mr. Willson (the Porter of Somerset-House) so as the said Plate may be had again, shall have two Guinea's Reward.

Lost on Thursday Night last, between Catherine-Street in the Strand, and St. James's, one Silver and gilt Shuff-Box, two square Lockets, two round Lockets, one with a Diamond in the middle, with two silver Darts cross the Diamond, three Gold Seals, one with an Old Man's Head, another with a Womans Head, and the other with an Antick; two little red Bobs for the Ears, set with Gold; one gilt and red Box to hang; all these things were tied up in a perfumed Leather Purse Embroidered with Gold. Whosoever brings them to Henry Rodes, Bookseller, next door to the Bear Tavern near Bride Lane, Fleet-Street, shall have two Guinea's Reward.

Lost from Waltham Abby in Essex, upon the fourth day of this Instant September, a brown Gelding about 14 hands high, with a Star in his Forehead, about nine years old, broken Winded, Clip-marked with I. D. upon both his Buttocks; And a grey Gelding about the same height and age, Pitch-marked with E. K. on both sides behind. If any one can give notice of them to John Dye of Waltham Abby in Essex, they shall have 30 s. Reward.