

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Partnership heretofore subsisting between us the undersigned, John Bouhote and Joseph Greenway, of Villiers-Wharf, Strand, in the County of Middlesex, Coal-Merchants, was on the 30th day of June last dissolved by mutual consent: As witness our hands the 1st day of July 1829.

*Jno. Bouhote.
Jos. Greenway.*

Skinners'-Hall, July 2, 1829.

THE Worshipful Company of Skinners hereby give notice, that they are ready to grant several loans, of £200 each, to young Freemen of the Company, for the space of three years, at interest after the rate of £2 10s. per cent. per annum, upon security to be approved of by the Master and Wardens.—All Freemen applying for the loans must have served an apprenticeship of seven years to their trade or business, and must also have been employed two years at the least as journeymen at wages, and must be householders of good repute, and produce proper testimonials of apprenticeship and of their capability to give the required security.

T. G. KENSIT, Clerk.

PURSUANT to an Order of His Honour the President of the Honourable Court of Criminal and Civil Justice of the United Colony of Demerary and Essequibo, bearing date the 9th of December 1828;

I, the undersigned, Deputy First Marshal, at the request of Thomas Nurse and Edward Barnwell, as deliberating Executors to the last will and testament of John Barnwell, late of this Colony, deceased, do hereby, by edict, ad valvas curiæ, summon all known and unknown Creditors, both European and Colonial, of the estate of the said John Barnwell, deceased, to appear in person, or by their Attorney, before the Bar of the Honourable Councillor Commissary attending at the Court-House, in George-Town, on the 19th and following days of October next, in order then and there to render in their claims, properly attested and substantiated, and in due form, against said estate.

Whereas in default of which will be proceeded against the non-appears according to law.—Demerary, this 24th of April 1829.

J. D. HALEY, Deputy First Marshal.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Andrew v. Andrew, with the approbation of James William Farrar, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Chapel Inn, in Great Coggeshall, in the County of Essex, on the 11th day of July 1829, at Four o'Clock in the Afternoon, in one lot;

A freehold estate, consisting of a dwelling-house and out-buildings, and tenement adjoining, with a garden, situate in Great Coggeshall aforesaid.

Printed particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Mr. Wilson, Solicitor, 9, King's-Bench-Walk, Temple, London; and of Mr. Thomas Andrew, Solicitor, Great Coggeshall, Essex.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 12th day of March 1829, made in a cause Coltman against Barber, it is (amongst other things) referred to Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire who was or were, at the time of her death, the heir or co-heirs at law of Elizabeth Walker, named in the will of Thomas Coltman, late of Hagnaby-Priory, in the County of Lincoln, Esq. (who died on or about the 11th day of October 1826), which said Elizabeth Walker is supposed to have lived at Great-Hale, in the County of Lincoln, or in some adjoining Parish; therefore any person or persons claiming to be such heir or co-heirs at law are, on or before the 25th day of July 1829, by their Solicitors, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out their claims, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

WHEREAS by a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 13th day of March 1829, made in a cause Coltman against Barber, it is, amongst other things, referred to Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire who were or was the heir or co-heirs at law, at the time of their respective deaths, of Sarah, formerly Sarah Walker, Spinster, afterwards Sarah Watson, and subsequently Sarah Marriott, and also of Mary Walker, nieces of Elizabeth Walker, respectively named in the will of Thomas Coltman, Esq. late of Hagnaby-Priory, in the County of Lincoln (who died on or about the 11th day of October 1826); and which said Sarah and Mary are supposed to have lived at Great Hale, in the County of Lincoln, or in some adjoining Parish; therefore any person or persons claiming to be such heir or heirs or co-heirs at law, or claiming to be the personal representatives of such of them as are since dead, are, on or before the 25th day of July 1829, by their Solicitors, to come in before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and make out their claims, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

WHEREAS by a Decree made on the hearing of eight several causes for further directions wherein William Brandon, and another are plaintiffs, and Richard Brandon, and others are defendants, and wherein the said William Brandon and another are plaintiffs, and Robert Williams and others are defendants, and wherein Richard Brandon the elder and others are plaintiffs, and Sarah Brandon and others are defendants, and wherein Richard Brandon the elder, and others are plaintiffs, and James Crundell and others are defendants, and wherein the said Richard Brandon the elder, and others are plaintiffs, and Thomas Fleming and another are defendants, and wherein the said Richard Brandon the elder, and others are plaintiffs, and Mary Ann Brandon, an infant, and another are defendants, and wherein William Brandon and another are plaintiffs, and John Saunders Bowden and another are defendants, and wherein Richard Brandon and others are plaintiffs, and Sarah Brandon and others are defendants, it was amongst other things referred to James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire whether any, and what sales and incumbrances, charges, or other dispositions had been made, or had taken place of, or affecting the shares or interests of and in the residue of the said Testator's real and personal estate respectively given to or in trust for the said defendants Thomas Brandon, William Brandon the elder, William Brandon the younger, the only child of the said William Brandon the elder, John Branch Trehearn, Henry Trehearn, Elizabeth Barrara Brandon, wife of James Quennell, or the said James Quennell in her right, Elizabeth Hodgson Mackay, John Scofield and Ann his wife, Frederick William Rankin, one of the children of the said Anna Scofield by her former husband, Frederick Adolphus Rankin, or any and which of them, and whether such sales, incumbrances, or dispositions, or any and which of them, were or was valid, and what was then due in respect of such incumbrances as the said Master should find to be valid for principal monies and interest thereon respectively, or for the arrears of any annuity or annuities thereon, and to whom and in what right the same was due; and it was ordered that the said Master should inquire and state whether any and which of such incumbrancers had any and what other security or securities for the principal monies and interest due to them thereon respectively, or any part thereof; any person or persons claiming to have any incumbrance or incumbrances, charge or charges, affecting the shares or interests of and in the aforesaid residue of the said testator's real and personal estate respectively so given to or in trust for the last named parties, are forthwith to come in and prove their respective claims before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said Decree.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Comber against Tolley, the Creditors of Philip Jenner, late of Cuckfield, in the County of Sussex, Butcher, deceased (who died on or about the 16th day of July 1824), are on or before the 10th day of August 1829, to come in and prove their debts before Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Decree.
