11, Manchester-Buildings, Westminster,
July 3, 1829.

THE Commissioners in England, acting in execution of an agreement made between the United Company of Merchants of England trading to the East Indies, of the one part, and the private creditors of His late Highness Ameer Sing, formerly Rajah of Tanjore, of the other part, give notice, that no claim whatever can be preferred before them after the 3d day of October 1829.

George Parkhouse, Secretary.

Shoreham-Bridge Tolls or Life Annuities, with Benefit of Survivorship, granted pursuant to an Act of Parliament, passed in the twenty-first Year of the Reign of His late Majesty, for building a Bridge over the River Adur, at or near Old Shoreham, in the County of Sussex.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Subscribers to the said Bridge may receive their dividends arising from the tolls, up to the 24th day of June last, by applying to Mr. Buckman, at the West-street Brewery, Brighton, on or after the 29th day of September next.

A certificate of the life of the nominee must be produced at the time of receiving the dividend, unless the nominees appear in person.

The Subscribers are desired to take notice, that if any person, entitled to receive any share of the said dividends, neglects to demand the same for three years or more next after it shall become due, every such person forfeits the arrears of the share so neglected to be demanded, and the same is to be divided amongst the persons entitled to the dividends in the same class.

By order of the Trustees,
Attree and Clarke, Clerks.

Seven freehold houses and shops, situate and being on the east side of Drury-Lane, and in Clare-Court, two of them being the corner houses leading into Clare-Court, most eligibly situated for trades, in the several occupations of Mr. Griffin, Cook; Mr. Isaacs, Orange Merchant; Mr. Brett, Butcher; Mr. Thomas Hall, Fishmonger; Mr. Stephen Allen, Green-Grocer; Mr. Thomas Courtney, Cheesemonger; Mrs. Thomson, Broker; and Mr. Nathan Harris, Salesman; on leases and at will.

Also a desirable freehold dwelling and spacious back premises, situate No. 12, on the north side of Portland-Street, Soho, in the Parish of Saint James, within the Liberty of Westminster, and being the fifth house west from Berwick-Street, Soho, now and for many years past in the occupation of Patrick Egan, Tailor, a yearly tenant.

Also a leasehold house, situate No. 58, in Lower George-Street, near Sloane-Square, in the Parish of Saint Luke, Chelsea, in the County of Middlesex, in the occupation of Mr. George Stacey, a yearly tenant, held for the remainder of a term of 75 years, at a ground rent of £5.

To be viewed upon application to the tenants; and printed particulars may be had at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, Lane, London; of John Hanson, Esq. 52, Upper Norton-Street, Portland-Place, London, where a plan of the estate may be seen; and of Mr. Drew, Surveyor, No. 20, Queen's-Buildings, Brompton; and of the tenants.

TO be sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of Lombe-against Stoughton, with the approbation of William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, on the premises at Bylaugh, in Norfolk, on Monday the 27th and Tuesday the 28th days of July instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon of each day, in 82 lots on each day;

Eighty well seasoned oak trees, twenty large oak beams, and about one thousand oak scantlings, slabs, and planks, of various dimensions, all in a good state of preservation, now lying and being on Bylaugh-Heath; and which timber is part of the materials some time since provided and intended for the erection of a mansion-house at Bylaugh aforesaid.

Printed particulars of the lots, and of the terms and conditions upon which the same will be sold, may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, and of Mr. Tomkins, Solicitor, Essex-Court, Temple, London; also of Messrs. Mitchell and Clarke, Solicitors, Wymondham, Norfolk; of Mr. Corby, of Wythingham, near Norwich, Land-Surveyor; of Mr. Spelman, Auctioneer, Norwich; and of William Barrett, at Bylaugh Lodge, who will shew the timber.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, bearing date the 5th day of June 1828, made in the matter of Rose's Charity School, it is (amongst other things) referred to Samuel Compton Cox, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to inquire in whom the legal estate in the Charity estate and premises, situate at Ditchet, in the County of Somerset, in question in the said matter is now vested; and whereas it appears that such legal estate is now vested in the heir or heirs at law of Richard Chandler, Esq. who in the year 1677, resided at Idmiston, in the County of Wilts, and who afterwards removed to the Parish of Fafeham, in the County of Hants, where he died in or about the month of February 1728; therefore any person or persons claiming to be such heir or heirs at law are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 20th day of July 1829, to come in and establish their claims before the said Master, at his Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London.

TO BUILDERS AND OTHERS.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause of His Majesty's Attorney-General, at the relation of William Jefferys, informant, and the Mayor and Citizens of the City of Rochester and others defendants, it was referred to Sir Giffin Wilson, Knt. one of the Masters of this Honourable Court, to cause advertisements to be issued, and tenders and proposals received, for granting building leases of all or any part of the charity estates in the said Order mentioned.—Notice is hereby given, that the said Mayor and Citizens (the Trustees of the said charity estates) will assemble at the Guildhall of the said City, on Monday the 10th day of August 1829, and be ready to receive tenders and proposals, to be afterwards laid before the said Master, for one or more lease or leases to be taken of a part of the charity estates, consisting of a vacant piece of ground adjoining the High-Street, in Chatham, in the County of Kent, near to the Sun Tavern, whereon four dwelling-houses (which were destroyed by fire) formerly stood, and for building thereon; and of another piece of vacant ground, between the west side of Globe-Lane and the east side of Holborn-Lane, in Chatham aforesaid; and of another piece of ground, situate between the east side of Globe-Lane and the Ordnance Military-Road, in Chatham aforesaid; and a small piece of ground on the opposite side of the said road.

The tenders to be of a certain ground rent, by the foot, according to the frontage on the High-Street aforesaid; and plans for building upon each piece of ground to be submitted by the persons proposing to take the same, for the approbation of the Trustees, and to be subject to the approbation of the said Master; the leases to be for a term not exceeding 99 years, and to contain covenants, on the part of the lessees, for payment of rent, land tax, and all other taxes, for keeping the buildings fully insured against loss or damage by fire, and such other covenants and conditions as are usually inserted in building leases.

Particulars may be had at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Messrs. Willoughby, Solicitors, No. 4, Lancaster-Place, Waterloo-Bridge; Mr. Park Nelson, Solicitor, No. 14, Essex-Street, in the Strand; Messrs. Heming and Baxter, Solicitors, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields; Messrs. Sandys and Sons, Solicitors, Crane-Court, Fleet-Street; Mr. Aubrey, Solicitor, Took's-Court, Curitor-Street; of Messrs. Jefferys and Parkin, Solicitors, at Chatham; Mr. James Simmons, Solicitor, Rochester; Messrs. Twopeny and Essell, Solicitors, Rochester; Mr. John Gibbs, Solicitor, at Strood; and of Mr. James Boys, Town-Clerk, at his Office, in Rochester; at all which places further necessary information may be had, and plans of the several pieces of ground inspected.

WHEREAS by an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Pickford v. Corpe, it is referred to John Edmund Dowdeswell, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, to enquire and state to the Court whether Henry Oliver, one of the children of George Oliver, formerly of Cornhill, in the City of London, Draper (the testator in the pleadings of the said cause named), was living or dead, and if dead whether he died before or after he had attained the age of 21 years, and in case he died after he attained his age of 21 years whether he left any and what issue him surviving; therefore the said Henry Oliver (if living), or in the event of his decease, any person or persons claiming to be his issue, is or are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 20th day of October next, to come in before the said Master, Mr. Dowdeswell, at his Office, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, and establish such identity or claim, or in default thereof he or they will be peremptorily excluded the benefit of the said Order.

The said Henry Oliver left England about 12 years ago, and enlisted in the Regiment of Royal York Rangers, in America, in the name of George Henry Stewart, and from which Regiment he was discharged at Halifax, Nova-Scotia, in June 1819, and has not since been heard of.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given to the said Prisoner, in writing, three clear days before the day of hearing, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of giving such notice and of the said day of hearing.

2. But in the case of a Prisoner, whom his Creditors have removed, by an order of the Court, from a gaol in or near London for hearing in the country, such notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

3. The petition and schedule will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, at the Office of the Court in London, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, between the hours of Ten and Four; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

N.B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-Street, Lincoln's-Inn-Fields.

4. The duplicate of the petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced for inspection and examination by the Clerk of the Peace, Town Clerk, or other person with whom the same shall have been directed to be lodged for such purpose, at the Office of such Clerk of the Peace or other person; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be there provided according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 77, or the Act, 5 Geo. 4, c. 61, sec. 11, as the case may be.

WHEREAS the Assignee of the estate and effects of Alexander George Watson, late of Church-Gate, Cheshunt, in the County of Hertford, Schoolmaster, an Insolvent Debtor, lately a prisoner in the Fleet Prison, has caused his account of the said estate and effects, duly sworn, to be filed in the Court for Relief of Insolvent Debtors, the Creditors of the said Insolvent are requested to meet the Assignee at the House of Thomas King Everett, known by the sign of the Green Dragon, at Church-Gate, Cheshunt aforesaid, on the 14th day of August next, at Four of the Clock in the Afternoon precisely, when and where the Assignee will declare the amount of the balance in his hands, and proceed to make a dividend with the same amongst the Creditors whose debts are admitted in the schedule sworn to by the Insolvent, in proportion to the amount thereof, subject to such correction of the rights to receive dividends as may be made according to the Statute,—

If any person has a demand which is stated in the schedule but is disputed therein, either in whole or in part; or if the said Insolvent, the said Assignee, or any Creditor objects to any debt mentioned therein, such claims and objections must be brought forward at the said meeting, in order that proceedings may be had for the examination and decision of the same according to the Statute.
