FRIDAY, JULY 17, 1829.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th day of July 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place, but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order in Council, and from time to time by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension as long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding; and whereas by an Order in Council, made the twenty-eighth of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, it was ordered by His Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the sixteenth of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, but that the ballot should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said sixteenth of July; and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year from the date of this Order; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from the date of this Order, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the date of this Order.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th day of July 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council,

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act :

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Saint John's, in the island of Newfoundland, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Saint John's, in the island of Newfoundland, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act :

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Sir George Murray, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

St. James's, July 16, 1829.

This day the Chevalier Dedel had a private audience of His Majesty, to deliver his credentials as Minister Plenipotentiary at this Court from the King of the Netherlands, during the temporary absence of the Ambassador; to which audience he was introduced by the Earl of Aberdeen, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Sir Robert Chester, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed William Royle, of Lymington, in the county of Southampton, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, July 10, 1829.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Joseph Colman, of the city of Norwich, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, July 17, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, some time in the night of Saturday the 11th instant, or the morning of Sunday the 12th, some evil-disposed person or persons entered an orchard at Clies Hole, in the parish of Saint John, Glastonbury, in the county of Somerset, belonging to Mr. Thomas Bath, of Northover, in the said parish, and maliciously and feloniously cut down and completely destroyed a quantity of young nursery trees, and also barked and injured a quantity of standard trees in such a way as to kill them ;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by Mr. Thomas Bath to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Navy-Office, July 4, 1829.

THE Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury having appointed money for the payment of half-pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st April to the 30th June last, according to His Majesty's establishment in that behalf; these are to give notice, that the several payments will begin to be made at the Pay-Office, by the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, at ten o'clock in the morning, on the following days, viz.

On the 20th, 21st, and 22d of July, to Admirals, Captains, and their Attorneys.

On the 23d, 24th, 27th, 28th, and 29th of July, to Lieutenants and Chaplains, and their Attorneys.

On the 30th and 31st of July, to Masters, Surgeons, and Pursers, and their Attorneys.

After which the lists will be recalled the first and third Wednesday in every month, that all persons may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and bring with them an affidavit as required by Order in Council of 30th July 1819, the forms of which were published in an advertisement from this Office, dated 16th September 1819, and may be procured at the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy; and in case any of the said Officers should not be able to attend themselves, but employ Attorneys for that purpose, the said Attorneys are to produce similar affidavits from the persons they are employed by.

Where Officers are abroad on leave, their agents are to produce attested copies of such leave, before the half-pay can be paid.

And as by Act of Parliament, passed in the thirty-fifth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for establishing a more easy and expeditious method for the payment of Officers belonging to His Majesty's Navy," it is enacted by the twentieth clause of the said Act, "that if any Commissioned or Warrant Naval Officer who shall be entitled to receive half-pay, and shall be desirous to receive and be paid the same at or near the place of his residence, he may apply to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy, in London, to have such half-pay paid at or near the place of his residence, &c. in the man-

"ner pointed out by the said Act;" and by a further Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act for enabling the Officers in His Majesty's Navy, and their representatives, to draw for and receive their half-pay," it is enacted by the first and third clauses of the said Act, "that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of his half-pay, shall be desirous of drawing a bill of exchange for the same upon the Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill, he shall signify such desire, by letter, to the Treasurer of His Majesty's Navy; and that if any Officer in His Majesty's Navy, who shall be entitled to receive any sum of money for or on account of half-pay, shall be desirous of having his half-pay paid to him by extract at any of His Majesty's Dock-Yards where Clerks for the payment of wages for the Navy shall reside, instead of receiving the same by remittance bill or bill of exchange, he is to apply either to the proper Clerk, at the Navy Pay-Office, in London, or at the Pay-Office at such Dock-Yard, signifying such his desire;" notice is hereby further given, that the half-pay ending the 30th of June last, will commence paying on the 20th instant; and all persons desirous of drawing for or of having their half-pay remitted to them, may apply as above directed. G. Smith

MEM.—Bills of exchange drawn under or by virtue of the Act above recited, are not liable to the stamp duty.

No persons residing out of His Majesty's dominions are entitled to the privileges of this Act.

Navy-Office, July 3, 1829.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 22d instant, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, the Officers of His Majesty's Dock-yard at Deptford will put up to sale, in that Yard, several lots of

Old Stores,

Consisting of Metal in Pigs, Bedding, Canvas and Hammocks in Rags, Cordage in Paper-stuff, Iron Casks, Bellows, &c. &c. &c.

all lying in the said Yard.

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to the Officers of the Yard, for a note of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here and at the Yard. G. Smith

TO be sold, pursuant to Orders of the High Court of Chancery, made in a certain cause intituled Cunliff against Hall, with the approbation of William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, some time in or about the month of August or September 1829, in lots;

Several estates, comprising farms, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, situate at Wycoller, near Colne, in the County of Lancaster, being copyhold of inheritance, and fine certain of one year's chief rent, payable to the Duke of Buccleugh on death and alienation.

The time and place of sale will be duly advertised; and printed particulars may then be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; at the Offices of Mr. Owen, Solicitor, Worksop, Nottinghamshire; and of Mr. G. C. Hall, Solicitor, Alfreton, Derbyshire; also of Messrs. Hall and Brownley, Solicitors, New Boswell-Court, Carey-Street, London, and of Messrs. Dawson and Hawkins, of the same place, Solicitors.

A plan of the estates may be seen at Messrs. Hall and Brownleys; and the lots may be viewed by applying to John Varley, at Wycoller-Hall, near Colne.

PURSUANT to a Decree of His Majesty's Court of Exchequer at Westminster, made in a cause of Thompson against Topham, the Creditors of Osborn Thompson; formerly of Middlesex-Street, Aldgate, in the City of London, and late of Olney, in the County of Bucks, Gentleman (who died in June 1825), are, on or before the 28th day of July instant, to come in, by their Solicitors, and prove their debts before Richard Richards, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at his Chambers, in the Inner-Temple, London, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded benefit of the said Decree.

TO be sold, at the Castle Inn, Norwich, on Saturday the 8th day of August next, at Two o'Clock in the Afternoon (by order of and before the major part of the Commissioners named and authorised in and by a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Warner the younger, late of North Walsham, in the County of Norfolk, Scrivener, Dealer and Chapman), upon the application of the Mortgagees, the following valuable property, in lots, subject to conditions which will be produced at the time of sale;

Lot 1. A desirable farm, situate at Mildenhall and Lakenheath, in the County of Suffolk, containing 300 acres and upwards of excellent land, with farm-house, barn, and other outbuildings, now in the possession of the said Mortgagees.

The estate lies contiguous to the new turnpike road from Mildenhall to Wisbeach and Lynn, and is distant about 20 miles from Lynn and Cambridge, and about 12 from Bury, all excellent market towns, to which it possesses the advantage of a navigable communication. Possession may be had at Michaelmas next.

The farm is subject to a drainage tax, payable to the Corporation of Bedford Level, and to the local district tax.

Lot 2. The residue of a term of years, ending on the 10th day of October 1855, subject to an annual rent of 10s. payable half yearly, and in a capital message, with the offices, gardens, and plantation, called Empon-Place, situate at North Walsham, in the County of Norfolk, lately occupied by the said Bankrupt. The same is now underlet to Mr. Charles Maitland, for a term of which two years will be unexpired on the 6th day of April next, at the annual rent of £25, payable half yearly.

For further particulars apply to Messrs. Sewell, Blake, Keith, and Blake, Solicitors, Norwich, or Messrs. Tolver and Preston, Solicitors, Great Yarmouth.

ASSIGNMENT.

WHEREAS James Cunliffe, of Carr and Stanley-Mills, within Ashton in Mackerfield, in the County of Lancaster, Miller and Corn-Dealer, hath, by indenture, duly executed, bearing date the 9th day of July instant, assigned all his personal estate and effects to Harry Gough, of Ashton in Mackerfield aforesaid, Gentleman, and Peter Worsley, of Haydock, in the said County, Miller and Corn-Merchant, in trust, for the equal benefit of such of his Creditors as shall execute the said indenture of assignment, on or before the 27th day of August next; the said indenture was severally executed by the said James Cunliffe, Harry Gough, and Peter Worsley, on the said 9th day of July instant, in the presence of John Barnes, of Saint Helen's, in the said County, Attorney at Law, and Silvester Marsh, his Clerk.—Notice is therefore hereby given, that the said indenture of assignment will remain at the Office of the said John Barnes, for the execution of such of the Creditors of the said James Cunliffe as shall think proper to execute the same; and such of his Creditors as shall neglect or refuse, within the time limited for that purpose as aforesaid, will be excluded all benefit to arise therefrom.—And notice is hereby further given, that all persons indebted to the said James Cunliffe are requested forthwith to pay their respective debts to the above-named Assignees, or to the said John Barnes, Solicitor to the Assignees, otherwise proceedings will be commenced for the recovery.—Saint Helen's, 10th July 1829.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the meeting of Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against George Edwards, of Saint Alban's, in the County of Hertford, Money-Scrivener, Dealer and Chapman (advertised in the London Gazette of the 26th of June last to be holden at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, on the 20th day of this instant July, at Twelve at Noon), is abandoned, the necessity of the same having been superseded by a meeting of the said Creditors, held at the said Court of Commissioners on the 27th day of June last.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Robinson Westray, of Stockport, in the County of Chester, Grocer, Dealer and Chapman (surviving Partner in trade of Jonathan Westray, deceased), are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Saturday the 8th day of August next, at Twelve at Noon, at the Office of Mr. Hodgson, Solicitor, in Whitehaven, in the County of Cumberland, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees compounding with the debtors to the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, or any of them, and taking such part of the debts in discharge of the whole, as they may think fit, and to their giving such time, or taking such security for the payment of such debts, or any of them, or any part thereof, as they may think fit; and also to the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, or touching or concerning the same; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and also to authorise the said Assignees to sell, by private contract, the real estate of the said Bankrupt, or any part thereof; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Mason, of Great Russell-Street, Bloomsbury, in the County of Middlesex, Bookseller, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday the 10th day of August next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, or preferring or opposing any petition or petitions to the Lord High Chancellor, for the recovery, defence, or protection of the said Bankrupt's estate, or any part thereof; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing in relation thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, either by public auction or private contract, at such time or times, place or places, and in such manner as the said Assignees shall think fit; and particularly to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees being empowered to buy, on their own account, at any public auction or auctions, any part or parts of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Sarah Crickitt, Robert Alexander Crickitt, and Samuel Hunt Russell, late of Chelmsford, in the County of Essex, Bankers and Copartners, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupts, on the 13th day of August next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Saracen's Head Inn, in Chelmsford aforesaid, to receive from the Assignees a statement or account of an arrangement and agreement made by them with Edward Bacon, Esq. touching his claim on the estate of the said Bankrupts, under and by virtue of certain securities executed by the said Robert Alexander Crickitt, and if approved, to confirm the same arrangement or agreement; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees proceeding, pursuant to such arrangement, to sell the life estate and interest of the said Robert Alexander Crickitt of and in all or any part of the real estates of Charles Alexander Crickitt, Esq. deceased, by public auction or private contract, or otherwise purchasing the interest, or compounding for the demand of the said Edward Bacon therein, at such sums or for such prices, and upon such terms as the Assignees shall think proper; with liberty for the said Assignees, in case of a sale, to buy in and offer the same again to sale, from time to time, as they shall deem advisable, and to indemnify the said Assignees therein; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits in equity between the said Assignees and the Trustees and Executors of the will of the said Charles Alexander Crickitt, respecting any mutual claims or demands between them; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any accounts, debts, demands, differences, or disputes between the said Assignees and the said Trustees and Executors, and to indemnify the said Assignees therein; and generally to authorise the said Assignees to act for the benefit of the estate of the said Bankrupt, and each of them, in such manner as to them shall seem most beneficial; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Gray Gerard, of Basinghall-Street, London, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Monday the 10th day of August next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees empowering their agent in the Island of Jamaica to compound with a certain person, then to be named, who claims to be entitled for life to a certain estate in the said Island of Jamaica, in mortgage to the said Bankrupt; also to take into consideration a proposition made by the same person in regard to the said estate, and certain other estates in the said Island of Jamaica, also in mortgage to the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or taking any other measures that they may be advised and think expedient, for the recovery or protection of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the said Assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any dispute, matter, or thing relating thereto; and also to authorise and empower the said Assignees generally to take such measures in the management and settlement of the affairs of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, as they shall from time to time consider reasonable, just, and beneficial for the Creditors of the said Bankrupt; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt, bearing date the 11th day of January 1811, awarded and issued forth against Thomas Hinde, late of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Merchant, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 10th day of August next, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Messrs. Shackleton, Wright, and Hunter, 35, Brunswick-Street, in Liverpool aforesaid, to consent that the Assignees may compound with persons, debtors to the estate, in respect of mortgages of estates in Jamaica, according to a deed of compromise (which will be submitted to the Creditors at such meeting), by the terms of which deed a considerable sum of money, now funded by the Assignees, will be released and become divisible amongst the Creditors, and the Assignees will be empowered to recover other moneys in the hands of third persons, and, in consideration whereof, the Assignees are to give up and release the unsatisfied mortgage debt, and to release the estates, and the owners thereof, therefrom; and whereby all parties are to join in other acts, therein mentioned; and whereby, upon payment of, or indemnity against, certain costs and expences by the Assignees, certain suits, now pending in the Chancery of Jamaica, are to be dismissed as against the Assignees and other persons, therein mentioned, but which deed is made dependent as to its validity upon certain contingencies, therein specifically mentioned; and also to consent to and authorise the Assignees paying the sum of £500, out of the estate of the Bankrupt, to certain persons (who will be named at the meeting), being parties to the said deed, for the purpose of carrying the arrangements in the said deed into effect; and also to consent to another deed of compromise and release (which deed will also be submitted to the Creditors at the meeting), between the Executor and the residuary Devisees of a person deceased (who will be named at such meeting), formerly resident in Jamaica, and a debtor of the said Bankrupt and other parties, and the Assignees, whereby the said Executor and Devisees, who were also parties to the said first-mentioned deed, for the considerations therein, covenanted to be paid or allowed to them by the Assignees, out of the property to be realised and received by the Assignees by virtue of such deed, or out of the estate of the said Bankrupt, as therein mentioned, and upon certain conditions as to costs and ex-pences, have covenanted to convey and assign all the real, mixed, and personal estate of such debtor to the said Assignees; and by which deed certain powers and authorities are covenanted to be given and granted to the Assignees, the better to enable them to recover the estates and effects thereby covenanted to be conveyed and assigned; and also to put a more speedy and less expensive end to certain other suits, now pending in Chancery in Jamaica, to which the said Assignees and other persons are parties complainants, and in other instances parties defendants, and whereby the Assignees will be better enabled to bring certain parties to account, and to wind up the affairs of the Bankrupt; and also to consent to the Assignees paying a certain sum of £400 to another person (who will be named at such meeting), a Legatee named in the will of the said person, who died in Jamaica, and whose Executor is a party to the said last-mentioned deed; and to confirm an agreement made between such Legatee, Executor, and Assignees, for the payment of such last-mentioned sum of money by the Assignees, upon the said Legatee executing a general release to such Executor, as in such agreement is provided for; and also, in case the said deeds and agreement, or either of them, shall become invalid, by reason of the non-performance of the conditions in such respective deeds contained, to consent to the said Assignees entering into any other or further deed or deeds, compromise or compromises, or to commence, prosecute, and defend any fresh, or the said pending suits, or any of them, as may be necessary with or against the proper parties, so as to obtain a final settlement with all or any of the parties who are parties to the said deeds and agreements, or any of them, or with or against any other person or persons interested in the said pending suits, or any of them, to or with or against any other person or persons intended to be affected by such deeds and agreement, or any of them, or otherwise, and upon such terms as the Assignees may in their discretion think fit and shall be advised as necessary, and without any further or more specific authority; and more especially, in case the said deeds and agreement, or any of them, shall be made valid, to consent that the Assignees shall fully carry the same into effect; and in case any person or persons mentioned or referred to in either of the said suits, or any other person or persons whomsoever (and such of them in particular, whose names are known, will be disclosed at such meeting), who are or may be liable to account to the Assignees, or to them and any third person and persons, either in the said pending suits, or by virtue of the said deeds, or either of them, or otherwise, will not do so, or will not pay the money or moneys demanded of them, or in case the same deeds and agreement, or any of them, shall not be duly fulfilled, may refer such account and accounts, or any matter of account, to arbitration, or shall and may compromise or compound the amount claimed to be due by them for a sum certain, and discharge the debtor or debtors accordingly, or shall and may bring any necessary and fresh suit or suits, for enforcing payment of what may be due to, or claimed in respect of, such account or accounts or dispute, or any of them, or for the purpose of affording to such person or persons, liable to account for and pay the same money demanded, a more perfect indemnity for the payment or payments required of him or them, or for compelling, by the party or parties aforesaid, the due execution and fulfilment of the covenants and clauses contained in such respective deeds and agreement, and so as to obtain the full effect thereof respectively, or otherwise to settle the same by arbitration or compromise, according to their discretion; and also, in case the Creditors will not consent to the said deeds and agreement, and the payments of money aforesaid, forming part of the same arrangements, to consent to the Assignees proceeding in all such suits as are now pending, and to commence and prosecute any further and other suit or proceeding as may be requisite, for bringing the matters of such suit and suits to a final close, or for protecting the rights and interests of the Creditors of the said Bankrupt; and also to consent to the Assignees referring, and upon such terms as they may think fit, any other account or accounts between the Assignees, or in which they have, or claim to have, any interest, and the person and persons who will be named at such meeting, to arbitration or adjustment; and to consent to and authorise the Assignees compromising or compounding, without reference, the same, or any of such accounts with the persons or person aforesaid, for a sum or sums certain they the Assignees may agree to accept or take for the whole they demand, as they the Assignees may think fit, and discharge the debtor or debtors accordingly; and generally, in respect of all such matters aforesaid, to consent to the Assignees acting according to their discretion in such cases and matters aforesaid, or any thing relating thereto, as may seem to them most for the interest of the Creditors of the said Bankrupt, although no more specific authority and consent of the Creditors is given; and also to sanction and confirm the payments to be made or allowed by them, in pursuance of the said deeds, and to approve what they have already done in and about the matters aforesaid.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Chorley, late of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 13th day of August next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Office of Messrs. Leigh and Sanders, Solicitors, Basnett-Street, Liverpool aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, as counsel may advise, for the purpose of recovering, receiving, and getting in from the Trustees and Executors named and appointed in and by the last will and testament of Richard Hetherington, late of the Island of Tortola, Esq. deceased, and from other persons, to be named at the said meeting, certain sums of money owing to the said Bankrupt's estate, on mortgage of certain plantations and estates, late of the said Richard Hetherington, in the said Island of Tortola, and otherwise, and which they have refused to pay; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or presenting any petition to the Lord High Chancellor, as counsel may advise, for the purpose of obtaining payment of, and dividing amongst the Creditors of the said Bankrupt, such proportion of the sum of £6,351 4s. as the said Bankrupt's estate is entitled to, and which sum was, some time in or about the month of January 1823, paid into the Bank of England, with the privity of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery, to the account of the estate of James Roberts, deceased, of whose will the said Bankrupt was the acting Executor, and is claimed by the personal representatives of the late William Wallace, Esq. deceased, and also by Stephen Sedgwick and William Sedgwick, some or one of them, and by other persons; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or presenting any petition to the Lord High Chancellor, as counsel may advise, for the purpose of taking the accounts between the said Bankrupt's estate and the personal representatives of the late Henry Rawlinson, deceased, formerly the Partner of the said Bankrupt John Chorley; and for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said Assignees, or any other of the Creditors of the said Henry Rawlinson and John Chorley, or either of them, obtaining letters of administration to the estate and effects of the said Henry Rawlinson, deceased; and also to authorise and empower the said Assignees to submit to arbitration, or otherwise agree or settle, any dispute, matter, or thing in any wise relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, or any wise relating to the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or presenting any petition or petitions to the Lord Chancellor, for the recovery or protection of any part or parts of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, or otherwise in relation thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Frederick Oldfield, late of Pall-Mall, in the County of Middlesex, and now of Upper Norton-Street, Tottenham-Court-Road, in the said County of Middlesex, Wine-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet on Monday the 10th day of August next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, for the purpose of authorising and empowering the Assignees to compromise certain large claims made by them against a debtor to the estate, who will be then named, upon such terms as they may consider most beneficial and advantageous to the interests of the estate.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Hartnell, of the City of Bristol, Slate-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 10th day of August next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the White Lion Inn, in Broad-Street, in the City of Bristol, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's estate, either together or in lots, to any person or persons, either by public sale or private contract as the said Assignees shall deem meet, and upon such terms and credit, or upon such security as they shall deem proper; and that the said Assignees may be at liberty, in case of any public sale, to buy in and resell the said estate, or any part thereof, at the risk and expence of the said estate; and also to empower the said Assignees to employ an accountant, and any other persons, in and about the affairs and concerns of the said Bankrupt, and making him and them all such just allowances and compensation for his and their services as to the said Assignees shall seem just; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees making any arrangements or compromises, which they shall consider for the benefit of the Creditors, with any person or persons having, or claiming to have, any mortgages, liens, or other securities upon the estates of the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Bankrupt becoming the purchaser of his stock and goods in trade, and also his household furniture, or any part thereof, at a fair valuation and appraisement to be made and taken of the same, and to accept and take such security for payment thereof, and in all respects in such manner as the said Assignees may think proper, without incurring any risk or responsibility touching the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees settling and adjusting several actions at law commenced against the Bankrupt, and now depending, and paying the costs and expences incurred by the Bankrupt and his bail in regard to such several actions, in such manner as they the said Assignees shall think best and proper (the said actions having been defended by the said Bankrupt and his bail, for the purpose of preventing an undue preference to the several Creditors, the plaintiffs in said actions, and for the general benefit of the Creditors at large); and also all such other lawful costs and expences as were incurred by the said Bankrupt, with a view to a general compromise and adjustment of his affairs without prosecuting the said Commission of Bankrupt; and also the costs extraordinary (if any) attending the petitioning Creditor's debt, in such manner as they shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, or to their preferring or opposing or answering any petition or petitions in His Majesty's Courts of law or equity, or any of them, which they may deem necessary or proper or advisable, for the recovery, obtaining, or keeping possession of any part of the debts, stock in trade, estate, and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to their compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt, bearing date the 27th day of June 1826, awarded and issued forth against John Coupland, of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Factor, (Partner with William Thomas Coupland, of Kingston, in the Island of Jamaica, Factor, carrying on business with him in Liverpool aforesaid, under the firm of William Thomas and John Coupland, and in Kingston, under the firm of Coupland and Company), and also the Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt, bearing date the 26th day of June 1827, awarded and issued forth against the said William Thomas Coupland, are requested to meet the respective Assignees under the said two several Commissions, on the 7th day of August next, at Eleven in the Forenoon, at the Office of Messrs. Radcliffe and Duncan, in Exchange-Street-West, in Liverpool, in the said County of Lancaster, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees, with all other necessary parties, compounding with a debtor to the said Bankrupts' estate, resident in Panama, and taking part of the debt in discharge of the whole by certain instalments, and on certain terms, the name of which debtor, and the particulars of which proposed composition, will be stated to the meeting, and in the mean time may be known by any Creditor who has proved his debt under either of the said Commissions on application to the said Messrs. Radcliffe and Duncan, Solicitors to the said Assignees.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Jones, of the Town of Brecon, in the County of Brecon, Innkeeper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Friday the 7th day of August next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Old Golden Lion Inn, in the said Town of Brecon, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling or disposing of the stock in trade, goods, furniture, fixtures and other effects of the said Bankrupt, or any part or parts of the same, either by public auction or private contract, or by valuation, appraisement, or otherwise, or partly in one mode, and partly in another, and for such price or prices, to such person or persons, upon such terms and credit, and taking such security, if any, as the said Assignees shall think proper or deem expedient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery of any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees entering into any arrangement with the mortgagees of the freehold estates of the said Bankrupt for sale of the same, or any part thereof; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of the said mortgaged or any other of the said Bankrupt's estates, either by public auction or private contract, at such time, in such lots, and for such prices, as they the said Assignees may deem proper and reasonable, and to their buying in and reselling the same estates, or any part thereof, at any auction for sale thereof, or if any or either of the said sales, acts, and deeds above-mentioned or referred to, shall have been effected, made, or done, prior to the said meeting, to confirm the same respectively; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignees to act in and about, manage and conduct, the affairs of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, as they may think fit and necessary, or be advised, for the benefit and interest of the Creditors of the said Bankrupt; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Richard Heale, of Mincing-Lane, in the City of London, Wholesale Grocer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on Monday the 3d day of August next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to take into consideration the result of investigation entered into by the said Assignees relative to a claim made by the certain individuals, to be named at the meeting, to a part of the said Bankrupt's leasehold property; and to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees entering into such arrangements for the management or disposal of the said leasehold property, as may appear to the said Assignees advisable and proper; or to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees abandoning all right and interest to the same as they shall think proper so to do, or otherwise to give such directions and authority to the said Assignees, relating to the said property, as the said Creditors may think proper; and on other special affairs.
