

matters aforesaid, or any thing relating thereto, as may seem to them most for the interest of the Creditors of the said Bankrupt, although no more specific authority and consent of the Creditors is given; and also to sanction and confirm the payments to be made or allowed by them, in pursuance of the said deeds, and to approve what they have already done in and about the matters aforesaid.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against John Chorley, late of Liverpool, in the County of Lancaster, Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 13th day of August next, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, at the Office of Messrs. Leigh and Sanders, Solicitors, Basnett-Street, Liverpool aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, as counsel may advise, for the purpose of recovering, receiving, and getting in from the Trustees and Executors named and appointed in and by the last will and testament of Richard Hetherington, late of the Island of Tortola, Esq. deceased, and from other persons, to be named at the said meeting, certain sums of money owing to the said Bankrupt's estate, on mortgage of certain plantations and estates, late of the said Richard Hetherington, in the said Island of Tortola, and otherwise, and which they have refused to pay; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or presenting any petition to the Lord High Chancellor, as counsel may advise, for the purpose of obtaining payment of, and dividing amongst the Creditors of the said Bankrupt, such proportion of the sum of £6,351 4s. as the said Bankrupt's estate is entitled to, and which sum was, some time in or about the month of January 1823, paid into the Bank of England, with the privity of the Accountant-General of the Court of Chancery, to the account of the estate of James Roberts, deceased, of whose will the said Bankrupt was the acting Executor, and is claimed by the personal representatives of the late William Wallace, Esq. deceased, and also by Stephen Sedgwick and William Sedgwick, some or one of them, and by other persons; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or presenting any petition to the Lord High Chancellor, as counsel may advise, for the purpose of taking the accounts between the said Bankrupt's estate and the personal representatives of the late Henry Rawlinson, deceased, formerly the Partner of the said Bankrupt John Chorley; and for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from the said Assignees, or any other of the Creditors of the said Henry Rawlinson and John Chorley, or either of them, obtaining letters of administration to the estate and effects of the said Henry Rawlinson, deceased; and also to authorise and empower the said Assignees to submit to arbitration, or otherwise agree or settle, any dispute, matter, or thing in any wise relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, or any wise relating to the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, or presenting any petition or petitions to the Lord Chancellor, for the recovery or protection of any part or parts of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, or otherwise in relation thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Frederick Oldfield, late of Pall-Mall, in the County of Middlesex, and now of Upper Norton-Street, Tottenham-Court-Road, in the said County of Middlesex, Wine-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet on Monday the 10th day of August next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, for the purpose of authorising and empowering the Assignees to compromise certain large claims made by them against a debtor to the estate, who will be then named, upon such terms as they may consider most beneficial and advantageous to the interests of the estate.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Hartnell, of the City of Bristol, Slate-Merchant, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 10th day of August next, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon precisely, at the White Lion Inn, in Broad-Street, in the City of Bristol, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's estate, either together or in lots, to any person or persons, either by public sale or private contract as the said Assignees shall deem meet, and upon such terms and credit, or upon such security as they shall deem proper; and that the said Assignees may be at liberty, in case of any public sale, to buy in and resell the said estate, or any part thereof, at the risk and expence of the said estate; and also to empower the said Assignees to employ an accountant, and any other persons, in and about the affairs and concerns of the said Bankrupt, and making him and them all such just allowances and compensation for his and their services as to the said Assignees shall seem just; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees making any arrangements or compromises, which they shall consider for the benefit of the Creditors, with any person or persons having, or claiming to have, any mortgages, liens, or other securities upon the estates of the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Bankrupt becoming the purchaser of his stock and goods in trade, and also his household furniture, or any part thereof, at a fair valuation and appraisement to be made and taken of the same, and to accept and take such security for payment thereof, and in all respects in such manner as the said Assignees may think proper, without incurring any risk or responsibility touching the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees settling and adjusting several actions at law commenced against the Bankrupt, and now depending, and paying the costs and expences incurred by the Bankrupt and his bail in regard to such several actions, in such manner as they the said Assignees shall think best and proper (the said actions having been defended by the said Bankrupt and his bail, for the purpose of preventing an undue preference to the several Creditors, the plaintiffs in said actions, and for the general benefit of the Creditors at large); and also all such other lawful costs and expences as were incurred by the said Bankrupt, with a view to a general compromise and adjustment of his affairs without prosecuting the said Commission of Bankrupt; and also the costs extraordinary (if any) attending the petitioning Creditor's debt, in such manner as they shall think fit; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, or to their preferring or opposing or answering any petition or petitions in His Majesty's Courts of law or equity, or any of them, which they may deem necessary or proper or advisable, for the recovery, obtaining, or keeping possession of any part of the debts, stock in trade, estate, and effects of the said Bankrupt; or to their compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.
