Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, JULY 28, 1829.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th day of July 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Saint John's, in the island of Newfoundland, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Saint John's, in the island of Newfoundland, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

jesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th day of July 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place, but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order in Council, and from time to time by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension as long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding; and whereas by an Order in Council, made the twenty-eighth of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, it was ordered by His Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the sixteenth of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, but that the ballot should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said sixteenth of July; and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year from the date of this Order; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from the date of this Order, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the date of this Order.

C. C. Greville.

The Honourable Frederick Stewart, commonly called Lord Viscount Castlereagh.

Whitehall, July 28, 1829.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Thomas Bosville Lee, of Ravenfield-park, in the county of York, Esq. His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in compliance with a clause contained in the last will and testament of his kinsman, the Reverend Thomas Bosville, late of Ravenfield aforesaid, and of St. Mary Magdalen College, in the University of Oxford, Clerk, deceased, assume and henceforth use the surname of Bosville only, and also bear the arms of Bosville only; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, July 11, 1829.

The Lord Chancellor has appointed Alfred Grainger, of Holywell, in the county of Flint, Gent. to be a Master Extraordinary in the High Court of Chancery.

Whitehall, July 17, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, some time in the night of Saturday the 11th instant, or the morning of Sunday the 12th, some evil-disposed person or persons entered an orchard at Clies Hole, in the parish of Saint John, Glastonbury, in the county of Somerset, belonging to Mr. Thomas Bath, of North-over, in the said parish, and maliciously and feloniously cut down and completely destroyed a quantity of young nursery trees, and also barked and injured a quantity of standard trees in such a way as to kill them;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by Mr. Thomas Bath to any person who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

Sale of Property in and near the Town of Leicester.

TO be sold, pursuant to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in a cause Stracy v. Richards, with the approbation of Francis Cross, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, in the Town of Leicester, about the end of the month of September or the beginning of the month of October 1829, of which due notice will be given;

The following valuable freehold estates, late the property of Henry Richards the elder, of the said Town of Leicester, Wine and Spirit-Merchant, deceased, that is to say:

A messuage or dwelling-house and shop, situate at the corner of Humberstone-Gate and Gallowtree-Gate, in the said Town of Leicester.

A warehouse, stable, and yard, situate in Fox and Goose-Lane, in the said Town of Leicester.

A garden or piece of freehold ground, situate behind the last mentioned premises.

A freehold messuage or dwelling-house, warehouse, stable, garden, and orchard, situate on the east side of the turnpike-road leading from Leicester to Uppingham.

A freehold messuage, tenement, or cottage, garden, and several closes, pieces, or parcels of land, containing, by estimation, 7A. 2R. 27P. adjoining the last mentioned premises.

And the Manor of the South End of Thurleston, in the County of Leicester.

Particulars whereof may shortly be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; of Mr. Tustin, Solicitor, New Bridge-Street, London; of Messrs. Holme, Frampton, and Loftus, New-Inn, London; of Mr. Samuel Taylor, of John's-Street, Bedford-Row, London; of Mr. Bond, Solicitor, Leicester; of Mr. Dalby, Solicitor, Leicester; of Mr. Parsons, Surveyor and Architect, Saint Martin's, Leicester; and at the Three Crowns Inn, Leicester.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to Orders of the High Court of Chancery, made in a certain cause intitled Cunliffe against Hall, with the approbation of William Wingfield, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Public Sale-Room of the said Court, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London, on Monday the 17th day of August 1829, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, in eight lots;

Several estates, comprising farms, lands, tenements, and hereditaments, situate at Wycoller, near Colne, in the County of Lancaster, being copyhold of inheritance, and fine certain of one year's chief rent, payable to the Duke of Buccleugh on death and alienation.

Particulars may be had (gratis) at the said Master's Chambers, in Southampton-Buildings, Chancery-Lane, London; at the Offices of Messrs. Howarth and Ridehalgh, Ripponden, near Halifax, Yorkshire; of Mr. Owen, Solicitor, Worksop, Nottinghamshire; and of Mr. G. C. Hall, Solicitor, Alfreton, Derbyshire; also of Messrs. Hall and Brownley, Solicitors, New Boswell-Court, Carey-Street, London; and of Messrs. Dawson and Hawkins, of the same place, Solicitors.

A plan of the estates may be seen at Messrs. Hall and Brownleys; and the lots may be viewed by applying to John Varley, at Wycoller-Hall, near Colne.

TO be peremptorily sold, pursuant to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in a Cause wherein Thomas Jervis Biddulph and others are plaintiffs, and Thomas Hughes and others are defendants, with the approbation of James William Farrer, Esq. one of the Masters of the said Court, at the Eagles Inn, Machynlleth, in the County of Montgomery, on Saturday the 19th day of September 1829, in two lots;

A freehold estate, consisting of three farms, called Dyffryn-Gwyn, Allt-lwyd, and Bwlch-Gwyn, in the Parish of Towyn, in the County of Merioneth, near the Market Towns of Machynlleth, Dolgelly, and Aberystwith, and containing together 351A. 1R. 30P. of arable, meadow, and pasture land, with sheepwalks on the adjoining hills capable of depasturing between two and three hundred sheep.
