FRIDAY, JULY 31, 1829.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th day of July 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Saint John's, in the island of Newfoundland, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Saint John's, in the island of Newfoundland, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

jesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th day of July 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of His late Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the ballot or enrolment for the local militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order in Council, to direct that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia shall take place, but that such ballot and enrolment shall remain and continue suspended for the period specified in any such Order in Council, and from time to time by any like Order or Orders in Council, to continue such suspension as long as His Majesty shall deem the same expedient, any thing in any Act or Acts of Parliament to the contrary notwithstanding; and whereas by an Order in Council, made the twenty-eighth of June one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, it was ordered by His Majesty in Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia should take place for the space of one year from the sixteenth of July one thousand eight hundred and twenty-eight, but that the ballot should remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the said sixteenth of July; and whereas it is deemed expedient to continue such suspension of the ballot and enrolment for the local militia for the space of one year from the date of this Order; it is, therefore, ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that no ballot or enrolment for the local militia do take place for the space of one year from the date of this Order, but that the ballot and enrolment for the local militia do remain and continue suspended for the space of one year from the date of this Order.

C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 22d day of June 1829.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued, from Wednesday the twenty-fourth day of this instant June, to Thursday the twentieth day of August next.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of March 1829.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the training and regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewardry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewardry or stewardries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient, that such training or exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended; and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

C. C. Greville.

Foreign-Office, July 30, 1829.

The King has been graciously pleased to appoint Henry Unwin Addington, Esq.—now His Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary to the Diet at Frankfort,— to be His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the Catholic King.

The King has also been graciously pleased to appoint George William Chad, Esq.—(lately appointed His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the Republic of Columbia)—to be His Majesty's Minister Plenipotentiary to the Diet at Frankfort.

The King has also been graciously pleased to appoint William Turner, Esq.—now Secretary to His Majesty's Embassy to the Ottoman Porte,—to be His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to the Republic of Columbia.

CONTRACT FOR OATS.

Commissariat Department, Treasury-Chambers, July 29, 1829.

SUCH persons as are desirous of contracting with the Agent for Commissariat Supplies to deliver 336,000 Pounds of Oats at the Ordnance Depot in Tooley-street, may receive particulars of the contract at this Office, between the hours of ten and four, and deliver their tenders, sealed up and directed to the Agent for Commissariat Supplies, marking thereon "Tender for Oats," on or before Saturday the 8th August; but none will be received after twelve o'clock on that day; nor will any proposal be noticed unless made on or annexed to a printed particular, and the price inserted in words at length; nor unless a letter be subjoined to such proposal, signed by two persons of known property, engaging to become bound with the party tendering, in the sum expressed in the particulars, for the due performance of the contract.

Navy-Office, June 26, 1829.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that the contract for

Italian and Hungarian Hemp, advertised for Wednesday the 19th of August, is postponed till Wednesday the 23d of September next, on which latter day, at one o'clock, they will be ready to receive tenders for the same.

G. Smith.

CONTRACT FOR TRAIN AND SEAL OIL.

Navy-Office, July 23, 1829

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 5th of August next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying His Majesty's several Dock-yards with Train and Seal Oil.

A distribution of the oil and a form of the tenders may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £400, for the due performance of the contract. G. Smith.

CONTRACT FOR SHIPS' FIREHEARTHES.

Navy-Office, July 25, 1829.
