C. C. Greville.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 22d day of June 1829.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued, from Wednesday the twenty-fourth day of this instant June, to Thursday the twentieth day of August next.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of March 1829.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the training and regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewardry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewardry or stewardries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient, that such training or exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended; and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

C. C. Greville.

Commission signed by the Lord Lieutenant of the County of Forfar.

David Wedderburn, Esq. to be Deputy Lieutenant.
Dated 10th July 1829.

Whitehall, July 29, 1829.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto John Edwards, of Rheola, in the parish of Cadoxton, juxta Neath, in the county of Glamorgan, and of Regent-street, in the city of Westminster, Esq. one of the Deputy Lieutenants, and late Representative in Parliament for the said county of Glamorgan, His royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may, in testimony of his grateful respect to the memory of William Vaughan, late of Lanelay, in the aforesaid county of Glamorgan, Esq. Barrister at Law, deceased, sometime Lieutenant-Colonel of the local militia for that county, take and use the surname of Vaughan, in addition to and after that of Edwards, and also bear the arms of Vaughan, quarterly with those of Edwards; such arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.
