TUESDAY, SEPTEMBER 1, 1829.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of August 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued, from Thursday the twentieth day of this instant August, to Thursday the fifteenth day of October next.

Exchequer Bill-Office, September 1, 1829.

THE Exchequer Bills dated in the months of July, August, and September 1828, viz. 3 Geo. 4, cap. 86, for carrying on public works and fisheries; 5 Geo. 4, cap. 103, for building additional churches; 9 Geo. 4, cap. 2, £12,000,000, 1828; 9 Geo. 4, cap. 89, £16,046,800, 1828, with the interest due thereon, will be paid off on the 30th day of September 1829, when the interest will cease. Such bills will be received daily (holidays excepted), from ten o'clock till one, until and including the 19th day of September, at this Office, where lists are to be obtained, containing instructions for arranging the bills.
The bearers must endorse each bill with their usual signatures, and write their names and residences at the bottom of each list; and where the names of holders are inserted in bills, the bearers, not being such holders, must previously obtain their endorsements. The bearers must attend to give receipts for the payment.

Payment may be obtained, if required, previous to the said 30th day of September, upon leaving the bills for examination one day prior to that on which such payment is desired.

New bills, bearing an interest of one penny three farthings by the day upon every one hundred pounds, and dated the said 30th day of September, may be obtained in whole or in part payment of principal, upon stating the required amount on the lists, delivered on or before the said 19th day of September, which new bills, with the interest on the bills exchanged, will be issued on the 1st day of October.

N. B. All Exchequer Bills, dated prior to July 1828, have been advertised to be paid off.

Navy-Office, August 21, 1829.

POOR KNIGHTS OF WINDSOR.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice to such Lieutenants in His Majesty's Navy, as are desirous of being recommended for the appointment of Poor Knight of Windsor, under the will of the late Samuel Travers, Esq. that they must apply at this Office, on or before the 5th October next, when they will be informed of the nature of the certificates and testimonials which are required to shew that they come within the meaning of the said will, which expresses that they "are to be superannuated or disabled Lieutenants of English men of war," and shall be "single men without children, inclined to lead a virtuous, studious, and devout life, to be removed if they give occasion for scandal."

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Edward Glover, of the Town of St. Helens, in the Township of Windle, and County of Lancaster, Painter, Plumber, and Glazier, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on the 26th day of September instant, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Mr. Barnes, in St. Helens aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying, out of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, the costs and charges of preparing a certain deed of assignment, executed by the said Bankrupt, of his estate and effects, for the benefit of his Creditors, previous to the issuing of the Commission against him, and the expences necessarily incurred, under and by virtue of such deed, of proceeding in the trusts thereof, and of wages and other sums paid after the date and execution thereof, up to the issuing of the said Commission; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees disposing of the shares and other interest of the said Bankrupt of and in a certain building society, called the St. Helen's Building Society, either by public auction or private contract, at such price or prices, and at such time and place as they shall think advisable; and also to take into consideration and determine what course the Assignees shall pursue as respects certain property belonging to the Bankrupt, which a certain person, then to be named, claims as being a purchase, and made by him some years ago; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees entering into a compromise with such person, if found practicable; and to empower the said Assignees to proceed at law or in equity against such person, if found expedient, or to submit the matters in question or dispute to arbitration, as they may deem best; and to empower the Assignees to make sale of such property, if found to form part of the Bankrupt's estate, either by public auction or private contract, at such price or prices, and at such time and place as they shall think advisable; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting any action or actions at law, or any suit or suits in equity, or any other proceedings, against such parties as may be found necessary, for the recovery of the said Bankrupt's share and interest under and by virtue of the several wills of James Glover, late of Hardsbaw, within Wundle, in the said County, Beer Brewer, deceased, John Norman, late of Windle aforesaid, Farmer, deceased, and Mathew Robinson, late of Rainford, in the said County, deceased, or of any of them, or any other property claimed by him under any other will or wills; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees making such arrangements and compromises with the parties, or any of them, as they shall consider to be for the benefit of the said Creditors; or to the said Assignees submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing with the said persons; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees making sale of all and every or any the said Bankrupt's share and interest under such said wills, or any of them, and also all other his estate and effects, whatsoever and wheresoever, and of what nature, kind, or quality soever, and either by public auction or private contract, as they may deem best, and at such price or prices, and at such times and places as they shall see proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting any action or actions at law, or other proceedings, against certain parties, to be named at such meeting, for recovery of certain property withheld by them, and which forms part of the Bankrupt's estate; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting any action or actions at law, or suit in equity, against a certain person, then to be named, for recovery of all papers, invoices, writings, accounts, books, and documents in his possession, in any wise relating to the said Bankrupt's affairs; and also to confirm or allow or disapprove of the acts and proceedings which may have already been done or adopted by the petitioning Creditor, or by the provisional Assignee, or by the said Assignees elect, in and about the said Bankrupt's estate; and also to confirm the act of the said Assignees in their having employed an accountant in the investigation of the affairs of the said Bankrupt; and to assent to or dissent from such accountant continuing to investigate the affairs till he has completed the books, and to collect, recover, and receive the debts and effects due and belonging to the said Bankrupt, or otherwise to the winding up of the affairs of the said Bankrupt, and to their making such allowance or compensation to the said accountant, or other person or persons who, since the date of the said Commission or hereafter, may be employed in the affairs of the said Bankrupt, for his and their services respectively as to the said Assignees may seem just; and also to confirm and allow or disapprove of the sale of the said Bankrupt's household goods and furniture, stock in trade, and other effects, part of which the said Assignees sold at valuation, such valuation being taken by a competent person, and the other part the said Assignees sold by public auction; and also to assent to or dissent from another meeting of the Commissioners being called, for the Bankrupt's further examination respecting his estate and effects, and as to the propriety of certain other persons, to be named at such meeting, being summoned to attend such meeting, and to be examined respecting his affairs and other transactions; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying a certain bill of costs, to be then and there produced, of the Solicitor to the said Commission for certain business done respecting the Bankrupt's affairs, after the act of Bankruptcy had been committed upon which this Commission issued; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees taking such legal advice, touching the said Bankrupt's affairs, as they may think necessary; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity against any person or persons whomsoever, for the recovery, defence, or protection of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and to the said Assignees compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.
