Whitehall, September 1 9.

He following Addresses having been presented to His Majesty, His Majesty was pleased to receive them very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The bumble Congratulation of the Bayliffs, Burgeffes, and Commons of the Corporation of Scarbrough; Together with divers others of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Freebolders from several parts, then residing as the Spaw there.

Most Dread Soveraign,

E the Bailiffs, with the unanimous Confent of the Commons, and Bur-geffes, of your Antient Town and Corporation of Scarbrough, toge-ther with divers others of the Nobi-

Corporation of Scarbrough, together with divers others of the Nobility, Gentry, Clergy, and Frecholders, Gentry, Clergy, and Frecholders, from feveral Parts, now refident at the Spaw, Do with the reli of Your Majelties Loyal and Obedient Subjects, Congratulate Your and His Royal Highness's great and happy Deliverance from that Barbarous Conspiracy, Your makicious Advertaries has contrived and complotted against your Sacred Person and Royal Brother, and against your Government; And though we were not so happy as to receive your Majelties late Proclamation, yet we are and shall be as forwardly inclined, and obsequiously bent couse our rumost endeavours for the safety and good of your Sacred Person, your Heirs and lawful Successors, as also the advantage and security of the present Government, as now by Law established in Church and State, as any other your Majesties Subjects, which we are ready to demonstrate with our Lives and Fortunes; And for the further continuance of Your Majesties Life, Crown and Honour, we Your Majesties most humble and Loyal Subjects, shall ever Pray.

Given under our Hands, and Seal of our Corporation, this Twenty eight day of July, Anno Regni Domini Regis nunc Caroli secundi Dei gratia Anglie, &c. Tricessimo quinto, Annoq; Dom. 1683.

The humble Address of the Grand Fury of and for the County of Kent, at the Asszes bolden at Maidstone on Tuesday the 31th of July, 1683.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

W B Your Majesties most Duriful and Loyal Subjects, do with hearts filled full of Joy, congratulate the Happy Deliverance of Your Majesties Sacred Person, and of that most Deliverance of Your Majetiles Sacred Perion, and of that molt Excellent Prince Your Royal Brother, from the late Cruel Conspiracy of Impious men, who to the Scandal of our Religion. call themselves Protestants, We do with great Affection and Sincerity devote to Your Majesties Service our Lives and Fortunes, and do promise that when your Majesty shall be pleased to Summon a Parliament, we in our Station will use our utmost endeavours that mone of those men may be chosen the inches has Dealizants as a feet distributions. We our utmoit endeavours that note or those men may be ende-fen who in the late Parliaments were for disinheriting His Roval Highness, there being nothing lattshe World more evi-dent now, than that the chief Promoters of that Vile Bill of Exclusion, were also the Principal Contrivers of the intended Murder of Your Majetty and most Dear Brother, as the Dis-tovery of this Hellish Conspiracy doth clearly demonstrate to all men that are not wilfully Blind: But on the contrary nothing hall be wanting in us, Pains nor Charges; that Gentlemen of known Loyalty and Affection to the Crown and the Church of England, even in all its height, as now by Law eltablished may be elected. Dread Sir, although it is not our Province to take upon us to advise Your Majelly, that the danger of this deep and Bloody Design, is very far from being over past, and this we are the rather induced to believe, by the Speeches of the Traytors who have already suffered, subject and allisted, we say not; but sure we are contrived with that crafty and close releavedness that they have at the hour of deathy-ventured apparently to leap into the Gulph of Biernal Perdicion, tather than by a full and free Confession glorisie God, and prevent the Execution of their Villanies, by their surviving Trayterous Complices: But we hope a little time will lay the Hell sh Treacheries of your Enemies as open and manifest in every point and circumstance, as they are in substance notorious and mischievous; God of his great goodness grant Your Majesty a long and Prosperous Reign over these deluded and much abused Kingdoms, and that there may be always one of Your Royal Family in the right Descent to rule over us and ours to the end of the World to all men that are not wilfully Blind : But on the contrary right Descent to rule over us and ours to the end of the World.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

Dread Soveraign,

TE your most Duriful, Loyal and Obedient Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, and Capital Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of Your Ancient Incorporation of Bridges water, in the County of Somerset, whose Names are iteration of Subscribes, having a deep Sense of the manifold Attempt and endeavours of a great number of wicked and ungold Man. (who not having any registed to their Allegiance) tempt and endeavours of a great number of wicked and ungodly Men, (who not having any regard to their Allegiance; but violating their Oaths, the most Sacred of Tests) have Conspired against the Life of your most Sacred Majesty, and your most Dear Brother, His Royal Highness, James, Duke of York, and thereby consequently to Invelve your Majesties three Kingdoms into a perpetuity of Blood and miserable Distractions, had not the All-Seeing Power timely detected the same, and by a seasonable Sacrifice, the Pire at Meymarker, lead You thence, as did that Cloud and Pillarethe Children of Israel our of Egypt, otherwise must our only Isaac have been offered up to the Rage, abomizable Pride, and Emulation, of such most excerable Villacies, what rather than live themselves (under a Pious, Peaceable, and Society, and Dearest Brother, as by good and muguetionable Winessies, and Dearest Brother, as by good and nuquetionable Winessies, what been sufficiently Evidenced at a late Tryal against force of these Bloody-intended Assassing a late Tryal against some of those Bloody-latended Affassi-

We therefore with hearts full of Joy, do most humbly, truly, and fincerely return our unfeigned Thanks to the great God of Heaven and Earth, for fuch your Majesties and Dearest Brother's Miraculous Deliverance and Preservaand Dearest Brother's Miraculous Deliverance and Preservation; and do hereby utterly detelt, abhor and abominate all such Diabolical Practices and Combinations carried, or the be carried on by Pactious Tuntultuary Petitioners, or Kingakilling Conspiring Associators, or other Fanatical and Disloyal Persons whatsever: And for the better Discomstraing and Rooring out such like generation of Vipers, we humbly pray Your Majesty, that as You have sufficiently manifested to the whole World that the Square of Your own Actions is and shall be agreeable to the Laws, that the said several Laws and Statutes be put in full Execution against all Dissenters and Conventiclers whatsoever; That so once being Union in the Church, it may be hoped the like will follow in the State, and then (and not before) shall king and Pooptes
