To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The bumble Addrefs of the Mayor, High Steward, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgeffes of the Borough of Evenham in the County of Worceffere

E your Majorities molt Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, ha-W E your Majetties molt Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, ha-ving with Altonilliment heard of a molt Treafonable, Bloody, and Damnable Configuray, againit the Lives of your Majetty and molt Dear Brother, contrived and carried on by Men of Factious, Ameiltical and Diabolical Principles, for the involving these Nations in Blood and Confusion, the Excirpation of Monarchy, and utter Subversion of this An-cient and well ettabilized Government; Do with Hearts full of Joy, chearfully Congratulate the happy Detiverance of Your Sacred Perfon, and Royal Brother, from those Bloody and Impious Contrivances.

And as we have in Teltimony of our Loyalty, laid our Charter at Your Majellies Feet, with our urter Detellation and Abhorrence of all Treatonable and Dilloyal Aflociations and confederacies, so we do now repeat fact our Abhor-rence, and do, and ever thall molt foleranly Devote our selves, our Lives, and Fortunes, to the Defence of your Maje-lies Sacred Perfon, Your Heirs, and lawful Succeffors, and the Government effablished both in Church and State, againt his and all other Treatonable Configuracies and Practices whatfoever.

And we humbly Implore Almighty God, That as His Pro-vidence hath fignally appeared in your Majefties Prefervation brough the whole courie of your Life path, So that the fame may fill fupport You, to adore the Throne of Your Auce-thors, with a long Life and happy Reign.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

W E Your Majefties molt Obedient and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bayliff, Aldermen, and Capital Bur-geffes of the Yown of Cardiff in the County of Clamorgan, geffes of the Town of Cardiff in the County of Glamorgan, being full of unfpeakable Surprife at 16 Monthrous a birth of a Fanarical and Rebellious Aflociation, which would have terminated in the Aflatinating of your Royal Self, and Dear-elt Brother, James, Duke of York, and the Faral Miteries which would neceflarily hare followed: Humbly befech your Majeffy, to accept of this our unfeigned Tellimony of our real Rejoycing for Your Deliverances, hoping that fuch vifible repeated Afts of wonderful Providence, will fo Con-vince the World of God's fighting for You, that no Treafon Inall be hereafter contrived becaufe of his Omnifciency, nor attempted out of dread of that Power, which is apparently exerted in Your Prefervation. And that Curfing of Kings in Bed-Chambers, and privately Ipeaking Evil of, them and their Governments, thall not fear only the detection of the In Bed-Chambers, and privately speaking Evil of them and their Governments, thall not fear only the detection of the Birds of the Air, but the difcovery of thole winged Spirits of Heaven, who are appointed by the Governor of the World to guard your sacred Majelly, being as an Angel of God. And that this exectable deep laid Plot, though dug as low as Hell, may be fo difcovered, and its serpenine Jaws and Teeth fo ground, by Your continued afts of Julitice, that there may not be the least Particle of them left, which may be capable of raifing a new (tock of Armed Rebels. To the effecting of which, we do with trueft zeal from the med immed narts of of raifing a new flock of Armed Rebels. To the effecting of which, we do with trueft Zeal from the moft inmost parts of our hearts affure your Sacred Majelly, that we hall be dili-gent and faithful in fearching for and difcovering all Man, Words, and Actions, which have any way contributed, or do or fhall endeavor to continue or palliate fo great and Mon-ftrous a Villany, and orderly, mealoully, and unanimoully Pray, That God may never be for far provoked by our un-thankthank-
