

the same time that part of his Troops advanced to meet the Christian Army, caused a very furious assault to be given to Vienna, they were very bravely received by the Besieged, who encouraged with the approach of their relief, were not content to repulse them, but Sallied out and beat them out of the Ditch, and from the Counterscarp, and the Imperialists having by this time gained the Enemies Camp, the Turks were likewise attacked on that side, and all slain; of the besieged many were likewise killed, and of the Regiment of Mansfelds, all the Officers save one, and the Colonel of the Regiment of Soubeys was wounded. The 13. the Emperor arrived from Closter-Neubourg at Vienna, and Solemn Thanks were returned to Almighty God for this great Deliverance. The Poles were not yet returned from the pursuit of the Enemy.

The Princes that were in the Christian Army on this great day, were the King of Poland, the Electors of Saxony and Bavaria, the Duke of Lorraine, Prince Walddeck, General of the Empire, two Princes of Baden, the Prince d'Anhalt, the Duke de Croy, the Prince de Salmé, the Margrave of Brandenburg Bareith, the Landgrave of Hesse, the Prince of Hanouer, two Princes of Neubourg, four Princes of the House of Saxony, and three of Wirttemberg, the Prince of Hohenzeller. &c.

Hague, September 24. This State hath sent 8000 men to the Assistance of the Spanish Netherlands, of which 2000 will be put into Gaunt, and the rest into other places. The Deputies of the Council of State have been to visit the Frontier places of this State towards Flanders, and have made their report to the States General of the condition they found them in. The Fleet of this State, as we are informed, cruises to the Northward, to meet the Ships which our East-India Company expect home this year.

Brussels, September 24. Since the Account we gave you in our last of the defeat of the Turks, the Marquis de Grana has received no Letters from Vienna, from whence we are expecting an exact and particular Relation as well of what passed during the Siege, as of the great Victory obtained on the 12th. for which Te Deum was solemnly sung here on Wednesday, and then the Cannon were thrice discharged round the Town, which was again repeated at night; The like was done in the French Camp at Leffnes. The Letters we have from Passaw, Ratisbonne, and other places tell us, that when the Emperors Army entred the Turkish Camp, the Janisaries that were in the Trenches, sprang all the Mines they had ready, and gave a furious Assault to the Town, choosing to dye with their Swords in their hands, as they did, for they were all slain; that the Emperors Resident (whom the Grand Visier kept always by him) was left in the Visiers Tent, and had been killed among the rest, being in Turkish Habit, had he not been accidentally known, and that they were informed by him, that the Visier had there two millions of Crowns of his own, besides the Treasure of the Grand Signior. The Letters add, that they were expecting an account of what had passed in the pursuit of the Enemies Horse, who had several Rivers to pass, which had no Bridges.

Marschal d'Humieres continues at Leffnes, his Army increases daily, and the great Cannon and Mortars were yesterday expected in his Camp, his Troops forage as far as Engbien, where the Marschal and the Baron de Quincy were on Wednesday last to mark out (as is thought) a new Camp. Monsieur Montal is still encamped at la Buffieres, his Troops forage round the Country. And Monsieur Melac is with 1500 Dragoons in the Country of Limburg raising Contributions. The Dutch Troops which the States General have sent to our assistance, are encamped at Humbecke, between Malsines and the Canal of Brussels.

Paris, September 25. Our Letters from Germany give us an account of the great Victory obtained by the Christian Army against the Turks, of which we expect our next will give us a particular Relation. Monsieur du Quesne has done great Execution with his Bombes at Argiers. The Marschal d'Humieres, as our last Letters tell us, was still encamped at Leffnes.

Deale, September 17. Yesterday sailed out of the Downes His Majesties Ship the Tyger to the Westward; at the same time sailed about nine or ten Merchant Ships outward bound.
