TUESDAY, OCTOBER 13, 1829.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of October 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council that the Parliament be prorogued, from Thursday the fifteenth day of this instant October, to Thursday the tenth day of December next.

Windsor-Castle, October 12, 1829.

This day Louis McLane, Esq. Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary from the United States of America, had his first private audience of His Majesty to deliver his credentials; to which he was introduced by the Earl of Aberdeen, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, and conducted by Sir Robert Chester, Knt. Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, October 5, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the 11th day of September last, Mr. James Booth and several other persons, who had dined together at an inn or public-house, kept by William Kay, and known by the name of "Naylor's-Green," in the township of Tottington-lower-end, in the parish of Bury, in the county of Lancaster, were almost immediately after dinner seized with sickness and vomiting; that the said James Booth died on the following day; and that his death was subsequently discovered to have been occasioned by arsenic, a quantity of which there is every reason to believe had been thrown into the vessel wherein a pudding, of which he had partaken, had been boiled;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually threw the arsenic into the vessel as aforesaid) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered by the inhabitants of the township of Tottington-lower-end, to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.

HAGUE'S INVENTION OF CERTAIN IMPROVEMENTS IN THE METHOD OF EXPELLING THE MOLASSES OR SYRUP FROM SUGAR.

WHEREAS His late Majesty King George the Third, by letters patent under the Great Seal of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, bearing date the 27th day of July 1816, granted to John Hague, formerly of Great Pearl-street, Spital-fields, in the county of Middlesex, but now of Cable-street, in the parish of St. George in the East, in the said county, engineer, his executors, administrators, and assigns, the sole privilege and authority, for and during the term of fourteen years from the date of the said letters patent, to make, use, exercise, and vend the invention of the said John Hague, "of certain improvements in the method of expelling the molasses or syrup from sugar," within that part of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland called England, Wales, and the town of Berwick-upon-Tweed; which invention consists in an improved method of expelling the molasses or syrup from sugar, by passing air through the sugar; notice is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session thereof, for leave to bring in a Bill for prolonging the term of the said letters patent.

Freshfield and Son, Solicitors, 5, New Bank-buildings, London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in an Act or Acts to repeal the following Acts, that is to say, an Act, passed in the 35th Geo. III. cap. 73, intituled "An Act for repealing several Acts, made in the eighth, tenth, thirteenth, and fifteenth years of the reign of George the Third, for regulating the nightly watch and beadles, and for paving, repairing, cleansing, and lighting the parish of St. Mary-le-Bone, in the county of Middlesex, and for the better relief and maintenance of the poor thereof, and for divers other purposes therein mentioned, and for making more effectual provisions for those purposes;" another Act, passed in the 46th Geo. III. cap. 90, intituled "An Act for altering and amending an Act, made in the thirty-fifth year of George the Third, for watching, paving, cleansing, and lighting the parish of St. Mary-le-Bone, in the county of Middlesex, and for the better relief and maintenance of the poor thereof;" another Act, passed in the 51st Geo. III. cap. 151, intituled "An Act to enable the Vestrymen of the parish of St. Mary-le-Bone, in the county of Middlesex, to build a new parish church and two or more chapels, and for other purposes relating thereto;" another Act, passed in the 53d Geo. III. cap. 163, intituled "An Act for altering and amending two several Acts, of the thirty-fifth and forty-sixth years of the reign of George the Third, for paving and improving the parish of St. Mary-le-Bone, in the county of Middlesex;" and another Act, passed in the 58th Geo. III. cap. 68, intituled "An Act for the regulation of parish vestries;" and other Acts, passed in the first, second, and third years of George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for altering, amending, and enlarging the powers of three several Acts, made in the thirty-fifth, forty-sixth, and fifty-third years of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, for regulating the nightly watch and beadles, and for paving, repairing, cleansing, and lighting the parish of St. Mary-le-Bone, in the county of Middlesex, and for the better relief and maintenance of the poor thereof, and for divers other purposes therein mentioned, and for making more effectual provision for those purposes;" another Act, of the seventh and eighth of George the Fourth, intituled "An Act for Macadamising certain parishes, so far as relates to the parish of St. Mary-le-Bone, in the county of Middlesex." In which said Act or Acts now applied for, provision will be made for a responsible and elected vestry, and the general better government and management of the affairs of the parish of St. Mary-le-Bone, in the county of Middlesex, with a view to prevent unnecessary and improvident expenditure of the parish funds, and for more effectually carrying into execution the several other purposes contained in the said Act or Acts.

H. Jackson, Honorary Secretary to the Parishioners, promoters of the new Bill.

Notice to the Creditors of Robt. Nicol, Cattle-Dealer, formerly in Brackmont-Miln, now in Strathburn, in the County of Fife.

Edinburgh, October 8, 1829.

THE Lord Ordinary officiating on the Bills, of this date, sequestrated the estate and effects, real and personal, belonging to the said Robert Nicol, and appointed his Creditors to meet within M'Gregor's Inn, at Newport, on Saturday the 17th day of October current, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, to name an Interim Factor; and, at the same place and hour, on Saturday the 14th day of November next, for the purpose of choosing a Trustee on said sequestrated estate.—Of which notice is hereby given.

Notice to the Creditors of John M'Arthur and Company, Merchants and Agents, in Glasgow, as a Company, and of Patrick George M'Arthur, and John M'Arthur, Partners of said Company, as Individuals.

Edinburgh, October 9, 1829.

THE Lord Ordinary, officiating on the Bills, upon the application of two of the Creditors on the sequestrated estates, appointed a meeting of the Creditors to be held within the Black Bull Inn, Glasgow, on Wednesday the 28th day of October current, at One of the Clock in the Afternoon, for the purpose of choosing a new Trustee, in room of the former one, resigned.—Of which notice is hereby given, in terms of the Statute.

Notice to the Creditors of Thomas and John Scotland, Writers to the Signet and Lime-Burners, at West Luscar, in the County of Fife, as a Company, and of the said Thomas Scotland and John Scotland, as Individuals.

No. 5, North St. David-Street, Edinburgh, September 17, 1829.

ALLEXANDER HUNTER, W. S. Trustee on the above-mentioned sequestrated estates, hereby intimates, that his accounts as Trustee having been audited by the Commissioners, he has prepared full and final states of the affairs, and of the debts proved under the sequestration, with a scheme of division among the Creditors, which will lie, for inspection of all concerned, at his Office here, until Thursday the 22d day of October next, when a first and final dividend will be paid to the Creditors ranked upon the estate of the said Company; but there is no dividend to the Creditors ranked upon the individual estates of the said Thomas Scotland and John Scotland.

The Trustee farther intimates, that a general meeting of the Creditors will be held in his Office upon the said 22d day of October next, at Twelve at Noon; and that the said estates, both as a Company and individually, being now fully realised, he intends to apply to the Court of Session to be exonerated and discharged of his Office of Trustee, and to have his bond of caution delivered up after the said meeting, and on payment of the said dividend.
