gratulate Your Majelties Safety, the Prefervation of Your only Brother, and the Deliverance of all Yowr Loyal Subjects from the Cruelty of thole monitrous Rebels who have ren-dred themfelves the very reproach of Mankind, and would have delug'd our Land (which hath been To long happy under Your-aufpicious Reign) with a Sea of annocent Blood. We roursauppeious Reign) with a sea of annocefit Blood. We do further make bold to repeat our utter abhorence of all Traiterous Machisations, whether publickly herded amongfit thofe caufelefs Bawlings for Liberty and Property, in oppo-fither to Your Majetties known Prerogative (whereby they are only fecured) or privately coucled on the Cells of dark-nefs, with Oaths of Secrecy by the Art of that lare Machia-vel, whofe Principal Malter-piece was to do milchief; and we do humbly by glauge to derive the act is consumptifi we do humbly beg leave to declare, that as it is our unquelti-onable Dury, lo we are unalterably ref.lved, to expole our Lives and Fortunes in the detence of Your Majelties Royal Perfon, Prerogative, and Royal Family, againtt all Plots, Afflociations, and Artempts whatfoever, and do heartily pray that Your Majelty may long Live, and may ever detect, con quer, and contound all Your Enemies. Given under our Hands, and the Common Scal of the faid Borough the Three and twentieth day of July, in the Fire and thirtieth year of Your Majeflies Happy Reign over us.

To the King's Molt Excellent Majefty.

The humble Address of the Principle Inhabitants of the Antient Borough and Parifs of Wundover in the County of Bucks.

Most Gracious Soveraign,

WE Your Majeflies molt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, i a juft Detellation and Abhorence of the lare wick-ed and abominable Conforacy, against the Life of your Sa fred Majefly, and the Illustricov Prince Your Dareft Brother; Do here with all humility prolitate our falves at the Feet of Your molt Dread Majefly, humbly befeeching You to believe and accept t is our unfeigned, though lare Declaration of our Dity and Loyalry Great Sir. In a fincere confideration of our Duty and Loyalry

Great Sir, In a incere confideration of our Duty to God, and our Chriftian Obedience to You our Lawiul King, and molt Indulgent Governor. We do now make this publick Acknowledgment of our hearty thanks to Almighty God, for the Difcovery of this Unchriftian and Inhumane Delign; and with much fervencyfof Spirit, pray, That it may be more and more manifetted, treely declaring from our hearts, that we do wholly difowing and abominate all Antimonarchican Principles, and Rebellious Aclions and Contrivances; and that we will, to the utmolt of our powers, thered the Perfon of your Sacred Majelly, and this Excellent Monarchy, as it is now by Law established in Church and State, against all Oppolers whatfoever, with our Lives and Fortunes; Humbly imploring the Divine Goodnefs to blefs Your Majelties Per-fon with length of Days, and a great increafe of Honor and Riches, and Your Kingdoms with all the bleffings of Peace, and a continued Prefervation from all the Treasonable At-tempts of Your Factious and Rebellious Enemies. Great Sir, In a fincere confideration of our Duty to God,

To the King's Most Sacred Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Capital Burgesses, and other Inhabitants of the Borough of Axbridge in the County of Somerict.

Moft Gracious Soveraign,

W E (your Majefties molt Loyal and Obedient Subjects) having formerly had the Honour to have our hum-ble Admittance among many more Confiderable Corpora-tions, with the duriful tender of our thanks to your Majefty fions, with the dufful tender of our thanks to your Majelly for your gracions Wobthfafement to your Subjects, do now offer our-molt hearty finanks to Heaven for your Majellies Beliverance from the Bloody Deligns of thole, inalitious Trai-tors, who had in thought Saurific'd your Majelly and your Royal Brother to their hielligh Gruelty, to the unter Extir-pation of the befs confirmed Government of Church and State that is in the World; for which as we do molf grate-fully thank the Diving Browlence, fo we do with only fin erre and Loyal heartspray, that all the Coptrivances of fuch Abominable Miferents, whole Religion is founded in Blood, may be defeated and brought to nought, and if (belides our may be defeated and brought to nought, and if (befides our Prayers) we had any thing more to offsr₄, but,our Lives and Fortunes, it fhould be laid at the Foot-flool of Gods Throne and yours, by your Majellies molt floorely Loyal Subjetts.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

Most Dread Soveraign.

WE the fullice sol the Peace, Deputy-Lieutenants, and Officers of the Militiz of the County of Hereford, VV Others of the Militia of the County of Hereford, Reflecting upon the great Dangers your Majelty and your Royal Brother were lately encompatied with, and your De-liverance from them as Miraculous, and with as great an Evidence of Divine Protection, as the horrid Malice of the Confipring Trairors had of hellith Suggettion (both of them Eminent) cannot refrain Declaring to your Mijelty, our Joy for the Prefervation of You both, and our refolution to Evterminate, with the utmoit of our power, luch Perfons, or Principles as are likely to hatch any Ditloyal Defign; and to fland by your Majelty, in the prefervation of Your Sacred Perfon, your Heirs, and lawful Succeff rs, and the Govern-ment in Church and State, as now by Law eltabilided, which we'are convinced do include our own Liberties, both Spiritual and Temporal, or Lives and Eltates.

To the King's Mift Excellent Mijefty,

The bumble Address of the Burgesses of Tour Majesties Ancient and Loyal Borough of Weobley in the County of Hereford.

Molt Gricious Soveraign,

W E Your Majellies most Dutiful and Obedient Subjects, having with much Amazement heard of the late E Your Majellies most Dutiful and Obedient Subjects, having with much Amazement heard of the late forrid and Dannable Configuracy, contrived and carried on y fome deligerately-wicked Men against the Life of your Sacred Majelfy, and of the Illustrious Prince, James, Duke of York, your Dear and only Brother; Do athongft the nu-nerous Acclamations of your Loyal Subjects, chearfully and inanimously Congratulate Your Majelfy, and His Royal Highnefs, in Your happy Deliverance from the Villanous De-tigns of thole Sons of Behal. We are really transported with Jry, whill we oblerve the continued Miracles of Pro-cidente in your Majelfies Prefervation; and being really for ister te in your Majellies Prefervation; and being truly fen-lible of the Felicicy we enjoy under the Government of fo

Breellent a Soveraign We humbly intreat to be admitted, with the reft of our Fellow Subjects, at this time, to repeat our Solemn Alfi-rances to your Stored Majelly, That we shall always be ready to expole our lives and Fortunes for the Service and Detence of your Majelly, your Heirs and Succeffors. and for upholding the Government both in Chunch and State, as it is by Law eltablished. And we befeech God to fend your Majelty a long and profperous Reign over us.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The bumble Adirefs of the truly Loyal Reformed Offi-cers that Served His late Majejly in the unhappy Wars of England. ~

W E Your Majelties Loyal and moft Obedient Subjects, who faithfully Served His late Majelt of Bleffed Memory, Do in all Huthility pay our thankful Acknowledge-ments to the Almighty God, for His moft wonderful Good-nefs and Mercy to your Sacred Majelty, and us in the De-tection and Miratulous Prevention of that moft Exectable and Mercy Confidence again to the Lunchela Line of Your and Horrid Configurations revention of that more bectable and Horrid Configurate against the Unvaluable Lives of Your S Sacred Majefly, and Your Dear Brother the Duke of York 3 And we do hereby testifie the infinite Joy we conceive in your Sacred Majeflies, and your Royal tro, her't divine and merci-til Prefervation, which we look upon as little less than a lecond Rellauration: And having often ventured our Lives in Your Royal Fathers Service, and Yours, So we shall as chear-Your Royal Fathers Service, and Yours, So we thall as chear-fully expose them in all Dungers that may enfous, in Defence of your Shered Perford, your Royal Authority, and the Suc-ceffion of the Crown in the Right Line, and he ready at all times. to the urmoft-of our power, to Obviate all Dungers that may threaterfany, or either of them. May Your Stored Majelly live to Trample upon all Oppo-fition whatfoever, that Rebellious Malice can Inventy. Reign longy and happily over us, and find oy make all your Subjects as Obeclient and Faithful as we are, and, ever have here.

ever have been