

"abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Saint John's, in the island of Newfoundland, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Saint John's, in the island of Newfoundland, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Sir George Murray, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions hereinafter as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

War-Office, 15th October 1829.

Whitehall, October 9, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Sunday the 19th, or early on the morning of Monday the 20th day of September last, some persons did maliciously and feloniously set fire to certain stacks of corn, at Radlingham-hall, in the county of Cambridge, and to two cottages at Freckenham, in the county of Suffolk, whereby thirteen stacks belonging to Mr. Joshua Hatch, and the farming buildings belonging to John Tharp, Esq. at Badlingham, together with the two cottages belonging to Nathaniel Barnardiston, Esq. at Freckenham, were destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said property, and David Howard and John Bulman, who are already in custody, charged on oath with being concerned in the said felony) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by Messrs. Isaacsons and Son, Solicitors, Mildenhall; or Messrs. Read and Archer, Solicitors, Soham.

Whitehall, October 12, 1829

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about five o'clock on the morning of Wednesday the 19th day of August last, the house of Mary Michael, in the parish of Eglwysilan, in the county of Glamorgan, was discovered to be on fire; that the said Mary Michael was found on the floor bleeding from several wounds on the side of her neck, which wounds were inflicted by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, and of which she died about eight o'clock on the morning of the same day; and that some money, supposed to amount to a considerable sum, together with a blue coat and trowsers, a yellow plush waistcoat, a pair of fustian trowsers, a silver watch with a yellow chain and key, and a razor with a black handle, was stolen from the said house;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually com-
