AT the Court at Windsor, the 18th day of March 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the fifty-seventh year of His late Majesty's reign, cap. 57, intituled "An Act to empower His Majesty to suspend the training and regulate the quotas of the militia," it is enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by any Order or Orders in Council, to suspend the calling out of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county, riding, shire, stewardry, city, town, or place, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in any year, and to order and direct that no training or exercising of the militia of the United Kingdom, or of any part of the United Kingdom, or of any county or counties, riding or ridings, shire or shires, stewardry or stewardries, city or cities, town or towns, or place or places, specified in any such Order or Orders in Council, shall take place in any year, any thing contained in any Act or Acts of Parliament relating to the militia to the contrary notwithstanding: and whereas it is deemed expedient, that such training or exercising should be dispensed with in the present year; it is ordered by His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, that the calling out of the militia of that part of the United Kingdom called Great Britain, for the purpose of being trained and exercised in the present year, be suspended; and that no training or exercising of the said militia do take place in the present year.

John Ashness, Gent. to be Cornet, vice Powell, promoted. Dated 7th October 1829.

Whitehall, October 9, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Sunday the 19th, or early on the morning of Monday the 20th day of September last, some persons did maliciously and feloniously set fire to certain stacks of corn, at Badlingham-hall, in the county of Cambridge, and to two cottages at Freckenham, in the county of Suffolk, whereby thirteen stacks belonging to Mr. Joshua Hatch, and the farming buildings belonging to John Tharp, Esq. at Badlingham, together with the two cottages belonging to Nathaniel Barnardiston, Esq. at Freckenham, were destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said property, and David Howard and John Bulman, who are already in custody, charged on oath with being concerned in the said felony) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by Messrs. Isaacsons and Son, Solicitors, Mildenhall; or Messrs. Read and Archer, Solicitors, Soham.

Whitehall, October 12, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about five o'clock on the morning of Wednesday the 19th day of August last, the house of Mary Michael, in the parish of Eglwysilan, in the county of Glamorgan, was discovered to be on fire; that the said Mary Michael was found on the floor bleeding from several wounds on the side of her neck, which wounds were inflicted by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, and of which she died about eight o'clock on the morning of the same day; and that some money,
