FRIDAY, OCTOBER 23, 1829.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of October 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," the several sorts of goods enumerated or described in a certain table therein contained, denominated "a Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions," are either prohibited to be imported or brought, either by sea or by inland carriage or navigation, into the British possessions in America, or into the Island of Mauritius, or are permitted to be imported or brought into those possessions under the restrictions made in such table; and in and by the said Act provision is made respecting the manner in which vessels and goods shall be entered and cleared inwards and outwards in the British possessions in America, and in the said Island of Mauritius; and for the prevention of smuggling in the said British possessions in America, and in the said Island of Mauritius: and whereas by an Act, passed in the seventh year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the several laws relating to the Customs;" and by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs;" and by an Act, passed in the ninth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to "amend the laws relating to the Customs;" and by an Act, passed in the tenth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs;" the before-mentioned provisions of the Act, so passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, have been altered and amended: and whereas by the said Act, so passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued from time to time, to give such directions and make such regulations, touching the trade and commerce to and from any British possessions on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's charter (excepting the possessions of the said Company), as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary; and that if any goods shall be imported or exported in any manner contrary to any such Order of His Majesty in Council, the same shall be forfeited, together with the ship importing or exporting the same; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested as aforesaid in Him in and by the said Act, so passed as aforesaid in the sixth year of His reign, order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said Act, so passed as aforesaid in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign; and so much of the said several Acts of Parliament, so passed as aforsaid in the seventh, and in the seventh and eighth, and in the ninth, and in the tenth years of His Majesty's reign, as impose prohibitions and restrictions on the importation of goods into the British possessions in America, and the Island of Mauritius; and as relate to the entry of vessels and goods inwards and outwards in those possessions and the Island aforesaid; and to the prevention of smuggling there; shall be, and the same are hereby, extended and made applicable to His Majesty's settlements at Sierra Leone, and all other His Majesty's settlements on the Western Coast of Africa:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of October 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued, from Thursday the fifteenth day of this instant October, to Thursday the tenth day of December next.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th day of July 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Saint John's, in the island of Newfoundland, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Saint John's, in the island of Newfoundland, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Sir George Murray, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions hereir as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, October 21, 1829.

The King has been pleased to present the Reverend Charles Boothby, B.A. to the Vicarage of Sutton, in the county and diocese of Lincoln, void by the cession of the said Charles Boothby.

Whitehall, October 1, 1829.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Samuel Scholefield, of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, in the county of the same town, Gentleman, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may take and use his maternal surname of Lightfoot only, in compliance with an injunction contained in the last will and testament of Samuel Martin, heretofore of Kingston-upon-Hull aforesaid, but late of Sculcoates, in the said county of York, attorney at law, deceased, bearing date the 23d April 1829:

And also to order, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, October 9, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Sunday the 19th, or early on the morning of Monday the 20th day of September last, some persons did maliciously and feloniously set fire to certain stacks of corn, at Radlingham-hall, in the county of Cambridge, and to two cottages at Freckenham, in the county of Suffolk, whereby thirteen stacks belonging to Mr. Joshua Hatch, and the farming buildings belonging to John Tharp, Esq. at Badlingham, together with the two cottages belonging to Nathaniel Barnardiston, Esq. at Freckenham, were destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said property, and David Howard and John Bulman, who are already in custody, charged on oath with being concerned in the said felony) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by Messrs. Isaacsons and Son, Solicitors, Mildenhall; or Messrs. Read and Archer, Solicitors, Soham.

Whitehall, October 12, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, about five o'clock on the morning of Wednesday the 19th day of August last, the house of Mary Michael, in the parish of Eglwysilan, in the county of Glamorgan, was discovered to be on fire; that the said Mary Michael was found on the floor bleeding from several wounds on the side of her neck, which wounds were inflicted by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown, and of which she died about eight o'clock on the morning of the same day; and that some money, supposed to amount to a considerable sum, together with a blue coat and trowsers, a yellow plush waistcoat, a pair of fustian trowsers, a silver watch with a yellow chain and key, and a razor with a black handle, was stolen from the said house;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually committed the said murder, or set fire to the said house) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of FIFTY POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by Mr. Edmund Thomas, Overseer of the parish of Eglwysilan.

Whitehall, October 14, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the morning of Saturday the 10th instant, a barn and thirteen ricks of hay and corn, the property of Mr. William Rodgers, at Ardingley, near East Grinstead, in the county of Sussex, were wilfully and maliciously set on fire and destroyed by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felony before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said property) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of ONE HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on conviction by Messrs. Rankin, Richards, and Lake, Basinghall-street, London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to enable the Trustees of the New Cross Turnpike Roads to widen, straighten, and improve such part of the New Cross Turnpike Roads as passes through the town of Bromley, in the county of Kent, by taking down the whole, or such parts as shall be found necessary, of the messuages or tenements and buildings hereinafter mentioned, and taking the scites thereof, and also the yards and premises hereinafter also particularly mentioned, into the turnpike road there, that is to say: a messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house and butcher's shop, in the occupation of James and William Alexander; also a messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house, adjoining to the said last-mentioned premises, and the out-buildings and yard to the said messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house belonging or therewith used, in the occupation of Mr. John Emery; also a messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house and tallow-chandler's shop, adjoining to the said last-mentioned premises, and the out-buildings and yard thereunto belonging or therewith used, in the occupation of Mr. Allen Lambert, tallow-chandler; also a skittle-ground or yard and out-buildings, adjoining to the said last-mentioned premises, belonging to or in the occupation of Mr. Matthias Corder, of the Duke's Head public-house; also a building or shed, adjoining to the said last-mentioned premises, with the yard thereunto belonging or therewith used, in the occupation of Mr. Richard Gabbittas; also a cottage or dwelling-house, adjoining to the passage between the said last-mentioned premises and the said cottage, in the occupation of Mr. Alexander Crowhurst; also another cottage or dwelling-house, adjoining to the said last-mentioned cottage, now shut up and unoccupied; also another cottage or dwelling-house, in the occupation of Richard Green, adjoining to the before-mentioned cottage in the occupation of Mr. Crowhurst; also another cottage or dwelling-house, adjoining the said last-mentioned cottage, in the occupation of Mrs. Elizabeth Day; also a stable, adjoining the said last-mentioned cottage, in the occupation of Mr. William Storer; also a dwelling-house, adjoining the said last-mentioned stable, in the occupation of Henry Bath; and which said before-mentioned houses, buildings, yards, sheds, cottages, and stables are on the west side of a certain street or highway in the town of Bromley, called Back-passage, running southward from out the turnpike road opposite the Bell Tap, into the turnpike road again nearly opposite the White Hart Inn: and also all that messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house and shop, in the occupation of Mr. George Cocks; and also a messuage or tenement, adjoining to the said last-mentioned messuage or tenement, in the occupation of Mr. William Woodhams; also the Rose and Crown public-house, with the out-buildings and yard thereunto belonging, in the occupation of Mr. James Durling; also a messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house and shop (formerly two houses), and adjoining to the Rose and Crown, in the occupation of Mr. Richard Gabbitas; all which said last-mentioned messuages or tenements and premises are on the eastern side of the said street or highway, called Back-passage, in the town of Bromley aforesaid. And which said Bill will contain a provision for continuing a certain additional toll, of one halfpenny per horse (imposed by an Act of Parliament, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing and improving certain roads, in the counties of Kent and Surrey, commonly called, the New Cross Turnpike Roads," for defraying the costs and charges of certain improvements at Blackheath and Lee, in the county of Kent), until the costs, charges, and expences of widening, straightening, and improving the said turnpike road at Bromley as aforesaid, shall have been fully paid and discharged.—October 19, 1829.

John Bicknell, Sackville-street, London, Clerk to the Trustees of the New Cross Turnpike Roads.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to amend and render more effectual a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the first and second years of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to light and otherwise improve the streets and other public places within the hamlet of Mile-End Old Town, in the parish of St Dunstan, Stepney, otherwise Stebonheath, in the county of Middlesex;" and also for further extending the powers of the said Act, by repealing such parts of a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the thirteenth year of the reign of His late Majesty, as applies to the said hamlet, intituled "An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one Act of Parliament, the Statutes now in being for the amendment and preservation of the public highways, within that part of Great Britain called England, and for other purposes;" it being intended to relieve all inhabitant householders, and all owners or landlords of houses, tenements, and hereditaments, situate and being within the boundary of the Commercial-road, situate within the said hamlet of Mile-End Old Town, from the performance of statute duty, as well as from the payment of all composition monies, or other rates or assessments that may hereafter be assessed and collected for the repairs of the several highways within the said hamlet.—Dated this 21st day of October 1829.

By order of the Trustees,
Richard Packer, Clerk.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to repeal an Act, passed in the forty-ninth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for repairing, widening, and improving the road leading from the town of Rickmersworth, in the county of Hertford, through the village of Pinner, by Harrow on the Hill, in the county of Middlesex, to or near the Swan public-house, at Sudbury-common, in the turnpike road leading from Harrow to London;" and for granting further, better, and more effectual powers for repairing and otherwise improving the said road; and in which Bill provision is intended to be made to alter or increase the present rates, tolls, or duties granted by the said Bill; which said road passes from, through, and into the several parishes of Rickmersworth, in the county of Hertford, and of Harrow on the Hill, Pinner, and Ruislip, in the county of Middlesex.—Dated this 12th day of October 1829.

Frederick Palmer, Clerk to the Trustees of the said road.

Navy-Office, October 15, 1829.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 28th instant, at twelve o'clock at noon, the Officers of His Majesty's Dock-yard at Woolwich will put up to sale, in that Yard, several lots of
