AT the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of October 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

IT is this day ordered by His Majesty in Council, that the Parliament be prorogued, from Thursday the fifteenth day of this instant October, to Thursday the tenth day of December next.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 16th day of July 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that certain ports, therein particularly mentioned, in the island of Jamaica, and in the provinces of Nova Scotia, Canada, and New Brunswick, and in the island of Barbadoes, shall be free warehousing ports for the purposes of the said Act; and it is further enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty in Council, from time to time, to appoint any port in His Majesty's possessions in America to be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act; and that every such port, so appointed by His Majesty, shall be a free warehousing port under the said Act, as if appointed by the same, in as full and ample a manner in all respects as any of the ports thereinbefore mentioned are free warehousing ports appointed by the said Act:

And whereas His Majesty doth deem it expedient, that the port of Saint John's, in the island of Newfoundland, should be appointed a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act, His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers in him vested in and by the said Act of Parliament, order and appoint, that the said port of Saint John's, in the island of Newfoundland, shall be a free warehousing port for the purposes of the said Act:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury, and the Right Honourable Sir George Murray, one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, are to give the necessary directions hereir as to them may respectively appertain.

C. C. Greville.

Whitehall, October 21, 1829.

The King has been pleased to present the Reverend Charles Boothby, B.A. to the Vicarage of Sutterton, in the county and diocese of Lincoln, void by the cession of the said Charles Boothby.

Whitehall, October 1, 1829.

The King has been pleased to give and grant unto Samuel Scholefield, of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, in the county of the same town, Gentleman, His Majesty's royal licence and authority, that he and his issue may take and use his maternal surname of Lightfoot only, in compliance with an injunction contained in the last will and testament of Samuel Martin, heretofore of Kingston-upon Hull aforsaid, but late of Sculcoates, in the said county of York, attorney at law, deceased, bearing date the 23d April 1829:

And also to order, that the said royal concession and declaration be recorded in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Whitehall, October 9, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, in the night of Sunday the 19th, or early on the morning of Monday the 20th day of September last, some persons did maliciously and feloniously set fire to certain stacks of corn, at Radlingham-hall, in the county of Cambridge, and to two cottages at Freckenham, in the county of Suffolk, whereby thirteen stacks belonging to Mr. Joshua Hatch, and the farming buildings belonging to John Tharp, Esq. at Badlingham, together with the two cottages belonging to Nathaniel Barnardiston, Esq. at Freckenham, were destroyed;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person who actually set fire to the said property, and David Howard and John Bulman, who are already in custody, charged on oath with being concerned in the said felony) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.
