TUESDAY, OCTOBER 27, 1829.

At the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of October 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," the several sorts of goods enumerated or described in a certain table therein contained, denominated "a Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions," are either prohibited to be imported or brought, either by sea or by inland carriage or navigation, into the British possessions in America, or into the Island of Mauritius, or are permitted to be imported or brought into those possessions under the restrictions made in such table; and in and by the said Act provision is made respecting the manner in which vessels and goods shall be entered and cleared inwards and outwards in the British possessions in America, and in the said Island of Mauritius; and for the prevention of smuggling in the said British possessions in America, and in the said Island of Mauritius: and whereas by an Act, passed in the seventh year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the several laws relating to the Customs;" and by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs;" and by an Act, passed in the ninth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs;" and by an Act, passed in the tenth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs;" the before-mentioned provisions of the Act, so passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, have been altered and amended: and whereas by the said Act, so passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued from time to time, to give such directions and make such regulations, touching the trade and commerce to and from any British possessions on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's charter (excepting the possessions of the said Company), as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary; and that if any goods shall be imported or exported in any manner contrary to any such Order of His Majesty in Council, the same shall be forfeited, together with the ship importing or exporting the same; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested as aforesaid in Him in and by the said Act, so passed as aforesaid in the sixth year of His reign, order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said Act, so passed as aforesaid in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign; and so much of the said several Acts of Parliament, so passed as aforesaid in the seventh, and in the seventh and eighth, and in the ninth, and in the tenth years of His Majesty's reign, as impose prohibitions and restrictions on the importation of goods into the British possessions in America, and the Island of Mauritius; and as relate to the entry of vessels and goods inwards and outwards in those possessions and the Island aforesaid; and to the prevention of smuggling there; shall be, and the same are hereby, extended and made applicable to His Majesty's settlements at Sierra Leone, and all other His Majesty's settlements on the Western Coast of Africa:

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

Jas. Buller.

Whitehall, September 30, 1829.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Robert Browne, of Fulwood-hall, in the county palatine of Lancaster, and of Courtaile, in the county of Wexford, in Ireland, Esq. Lieutenant-General in the Army, and Lieutenant-Colonel of the 12th (or the Prince of Wales's) Royal Regiment of Lancers, and unto Henrietta his wife, only daughter and heir of Sir Richard Clayton, late of Adlington, in the aforesaid county palatine, Bart. deceased, His royal licence and authority, that they may, in compliance with the earnest desire of Sir Robert Clayton, now of Adlington, Bart. (the maternal uncle of the said Henrietta), take and use the surname of Clayton, in addition to and after that of Browne; that the said Robert Browne may also bear the arms of Clayton, quarterly with those of Browne; and that such surnames and arms may in like manner be borne and used by the issue of their marriage; the said arms being first duly exemplified according to the laws of arms, and recorded in the Heralds' Office, otherwise His Majesty's said licence and permission to be void and of none effect:

And also to command, that the said royal concession and declaration be registered in His Majesty's College of Arms.

Admiralty-Office, October 22, 1829.

THE Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty hereby give notice, that a ball will be dropped daily (Sundays excepted) from the High Tower of Portsmouth Dock-yard, at the moment of one o'clock, meantime at Greenwich; by observing the first movement of which ball, all vessels at Spithead and in Portsmouth Harbour may have an opportunity of regulating their chronometers. John Barrow.

CINQUE PORTS.

Dovor, October 22, 1829.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, pursuant to an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the amendment of the law respecting pilots and pilotage; and also for the better preservation of floating lights, buoys, and beacons;" a bye-law has been made by the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports, with the assent of the Commissioners of Loadmanage, for equalizing the number of the Pilots in the Upper Books and Lower Books at Dovor and Deal respectively; and such bye-law has been printed and transmitted to the Custom-house in London, and there hung up in some conspicuous place in the Long-room of the said Custom-house.

Tho. Pain, Registrar.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to amend and render more effectual a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the first and second years of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to light and otherwise improve the streets and other public places within the hamlet of Mile-End Old Town, in the parish of St Dunstan, Stepney, otherwise Stebonheath, in the county of Middlesex;" and also for further extending the powers of the said Act, by repealing such parts of a certain Act of Parliament, passed in the thirteenth year of the reign of His late Majesty, as applies to the said hamlet, intituled "An Act to explain, amend, and reduce into one Act of Parliament, the Statutes now in being for the amendment and preservation of the public highways, within that part of Great Britain called England, and for other purposes;" it being intended to relieve all inhabitant householders, and all owners or landlords of houses, tenements, and hereditaments, situate and being within the boundary of the Commercial-road, situate within the said hamlet of Mile-End Old Town, from the performance of statute duty, as well as from the payment of all composition monies, or other rates or assessments that may hereafter be assessed and collected for the repairs of the several highways within the said hamlet.—Dated this 21st day of October 1829.

By order of the Trustees,
