At the Court at Windsor, the 12th day of October 1829,

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to regulate the trade of the British possessions abroad," the several sorts of goods enumerated or described in a certain table therein contained, denominated "a Table of Prohibitions and Restrictions," are either prohibited to be imported or brought, either by sea or by inland carriage or navigation, into the British possessions in America, or into the Island of Mauritius, or are permitted to be imported or brought into those possessions under the restrictions made in such table; and in and by the said Act provision is made respecting the manner in which vessels and goods shall be entered and cleared inwards and outwards in the British possessions in America, and in the said Island of Mauritius; and for the prevention of smuggling in the said British possessions in America, and in the said Island of Mauritius: and whereas by an Act, passed in the seventh year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to alter and amend the several laws relating to the Customs;" and by an Act, passed in the seventh and eighth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs;" and by an Act, passed in the ninth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs;" and by an Act, passed in the tenth year of His Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to the Customs;" the before-mentioned provisions of the Act, so passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, have been altered and amended: and whereas by the said Act, so passed in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign, it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for His Majesty, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by any Order or Orders in Council to be issued from time to time, to give such directions and make such regulations, touching the trade and commerce to and from any British possessions on or near the Continent of Europe, or within the Mediterranean Sea, or in Africa, or within the limits of the East India Company's charter (excepting the possessions of the said Company), as to His Majesty in Council shall appear most expedient and salutary; and that if any goods shall be imported or exported in any manner contrary to any such Order of His Majesty in Council, the same shall be forfeited, together with the ship importing or exporting the same; His Majesty doth therefore, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, and in pursuance and exercise of the powers so vested as aforesaid in Him in and by the said Act, so passed as aforesaid in the sixth year of His reign, order, and it is hereby ordered, that so much of the said Act, so passed as aforesaid in the sixth year of His Majesty's reign; and so much of the said several Acts of Parliament, so passed as
