Saint James, Westminster.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills to explain, amend, repeal, alter, or consolidate the several Acts of Parliament following, that is to say, an Act, passed in the first year of the reign of His late Majesty King James the Second, intituled "An Act for erecting a new parish, to be called the parish of Saint James, within the liberty of Westminster;" also an Act, passed in the twentieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to confirm an agreement made by the Rector and Vestrymen of the parish of Saint James, within the liberty of Westminster, for enlarging the church-yard of the said parish, and for other purposes therein mentioned;" also an Act, passed in the second year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for the better relief and employment of the poor, and for cleansing the streets, lanes, and other passages and places, in the parish of Saint James, within the liberty of Westminster, and for enlarging the church-yard belonging to the said parish;" and also an Act, passed in the fifty-sixth year of the reign of His said late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, of the second year of His present Majesty, for the better relief and employment of the poor of the parish of Saint James, within the liberty of Westminster; and another Act, of the first year of King James the Second, for erecting the said parish." And in which said Bill or Bills provisions are intended to be made for increasing the number of Vestrymen of the said parish of Saint James, Westminster; also for regulating the election or appointment, and continuance in office, of the Vestrymen of the said parish; also for regulating the election or appointment, and continuance in office, of Governors and Directors of the poor of the said parish; also for the better conducting the proceedings of the Vestry, and of the Governors and Directors of the poor of the said parish; also for altering or repealing the existing rates, or making such other rates as may be deemed necessary for raising money for the repairs of the church, and for the relief of the poor, and for such other purposes as are authorised by the aforesaid Acts, or any or either of them; also for securing the due application of the pew rents, and of all monies authorised to be raised or which may be receivable for the purposes aforesaid; also for keeping the accounts of the Churchwardens, and of the Vestry and Governors and Directors of the poor of the said parish respectively; and also for electing or appointing Auditors of such accounts.

Wm. à Beckett, Solicitor.

No. 7, Golden-square, September 1, 1829.

Guildhall, London, October 31, 1829.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to increase the fund for carrying into execution an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for improving the approaches to London-bridge, by applying all or part of the duties, revenues, and incomes, composing the fund called the Orphans' Fund (from and after the period when the present charges on that fund shall be paid and satisfied), to the fund for effecting the said approaches, and for that purpose to continue the said duties, revenues, and incomes, for a limited time after such duties would otherwise expire; also to apply to the said fund one moiety of the clear profits which may arise from the tolls and duties of Fleet-market, belonging to the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London; also to apply to the said fund the surplus of the rents and profits of the estates called the Bridge-house estates, which may from time to time arise after paying and satisfying the charges on those estates; and it is also intended to take power to raise a sum of money upon the credit of the before-mentioned fund, for the purpose of defraying the charges and expences incurred, and to be incurred, in effecting the alterations and improvements in and near Fleet-market aforesaid.

T. Tyrrell, City Remembrancer.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill for taking down the old market, commonly called or known by the name of Hungerford-market, in the parish of St. Martin in the Fields, in the county of Middlesex; and for erecting a new and more commodious market on the site thereof or near thereto; and for enlarging the same, by taking down certain houses and buildings adjoining or near to the present market; and for increasing and regulating the existing tolls and duties now payable on goods, wares, and merchandises brought into the said market, or landed upon the quays adjacent thereto; and also for explaining and amending several Acts of Parliament, passed in the reigns of King George the Second and King George the Third, respecting free markets in the city of Westminster for the sale of fish.

Palmer, France, and Palmer, Bedford-row.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to enable the Trustees of the New Cross Turnpike Roads to widen, straighten, and improve such part of the New Cross Turnpike Roads as passes through the town of Bromley, in the county of Kent, by taking down the whole, or such parts as shall be found necessary, of the messuages or tenements and buildings hereinafter mentioned, and taking the scites thereof, and also the yards and premises hereinafter also particularly mentioned, into the turnpike road there, that is to say: a messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house and butcher's shop, in the occupation of James and William Alexander; also a messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house, adjoining to the said last-mentioned premises, and the out-buildings and yard to the said messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house belonging or therewith used, in the occupation of Mr. John Emery; also a messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house and tallow-chandler's shop, adjoining to the said last-mentioned premises, and the out-buildings and yard thereunto belonging or therewith used, in the occupation of Mr. Allen Lambert, tallow-chandler; also a skittle-ground or yard and out-buildings, adjoining to the said last-mentioned premises, belonging to or in the occupation of Mr. Matthias Cordery, of the Duke's Head public-house; also a building or shed, adjoining to the said last-mentioned premises, with the yard thereunto belonging or therewith used, in the occupation of Mr. Richard Gabbitas; also a cottage or dwelling-house, adjoining to the passage between the said last-mentioned premises and the said cottage, in the occupation of Mr. Alexander Crowhurst; also another cottage or dwelling-house, adjoining to the said last-mentioned cottage, now shut up and unoccupied; also another cottage or dwelling-house, in the occupation of Richard Green, adjoining to the before-mentioned cottage in the occupation of Mr. Crowhurst; also another cottage or dwelling-house, adjoining the said last-mentioned cottage, in the occupation of Mrs. Elizabeth Day; also a stable, adjoining the said last-mentioned cottage, in the occupation of Mr. William Storer; also a dwelling-house, adjoining the said last-mentioned stable, in the occupation of Henry Bath; and which said before-mentioned houses, buildings, yards, sheds, cottages, and stables are on the west side of a certain street or highway in the town of Bromley, called Back-passage, running southward from out the turnpike road opposite the Bell Tap, into the turapike road again nearly opposite the White Hart Inn; and also all that messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house and shop, in the occupation of Mr. George Cocks; and also a messuage or tenement, adjoining to the said last-mentioned messuage or tenement, in the occupation of Mr. William Woodhums; also the Rose and Crown public-house, with the out-buildings and yard thereunto belonging, in the occupation of Mr. James Durling; also a messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house and shop (formerly two houses), and adjoining to the Rose and Crown, in the occupation of Mr. Richard Gabbitas; all which said last-mentioned messuages or tenements and premises are on the eastern side of the said street or highway, called Back-passage, in the town of Bromley aforesaid. And which said Bill will contain a provision for continuing a certain additional toll, of one halfpenny per horse (imposed by an Act of Parliament, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing and improving certain roads, in the counties of Kent and Surrey, commonly called, the New Cross Turnpike Roads," for defraying the costs and charges of certain improvements at Blackheath and Lee, in the county of Kent), until the costs, charges, and expences of widening, straightening, and improving the said turnpike road at Bromley as aforesaid, shall have been fully paid and discharged.—October 19, 1829.

John Bicknell, Sackville-street, London, Clerk to the Trustees of the New Cross Turnpike Roads.

CONTRACT FOR CEMENT STONE.

Navy-Office, October 29, 1829.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 11th of November next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering, at His Majesty's Dock-yard at Sheerness, within twelve months from the day of treaty, 2000 Tons of Cement Stone, known by the name of Manor Stone.

A form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £300, for the due performance of the contract. G. Smith.

Navy-Office, October 29, 1829.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday the 24th of November next, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, Commissioner Ross will put up to sale, in His Majesty's Dock-yard at Plymouth, several lots of

Old Stores,
Consisting of old Rope, Shakings, Canvas, Seamings, unmarked Cordage, Hemp Top-pings, &c. &c. &c.

all lying in the said Yard.

Persons wishing to view the lots, must apply to the Commissioner for a note of admission for that purpose.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be had here and at the Yard. G. Smith.

All that capital dwelling-house or tenement, with the appurtenances, situate in Church-Street, Harwich aforesaid.

And also all that message or tenement, situate in King's Head-Street, Harwich, late the property of the said Bankrupt. To be viewed till sale, on application to Mr. F. Stevens, jun. Harwich, of whom particulars may be had, as well as of Mr. J. Saunders, Solicitor, Princes-Street, Bank, London, and Mr. Sansom, Solicitor, Harwich.

TO be sold by auction, by Mr. James (by order of the Commissioners named in a Renewed Commission of Bankruptcy against James Smyth), at the house of Mr. Yates, the Sneyd's Arms Inn, in Tunstall, in the Staffordshire Potteries, on Saturday the 21st day of November 1829, at Six o'Clock in the Evening, subject to the conditions to be then produced;

A large and commodious message, now divided into two dwelling-houses, situate in Tunstall aforesaid, in or adjoining the Mill-Lane, with a large garden, partly walled in, and a piece of land attached, lying up to the carriage-road leading to Hoston's-Mill and Burslem, containing altogether nearly half an acre of land, the premises being now in the occupation of Mr. James Jones and Samuel Clarke, but likely to be soon vacant.

The house is well calculated for a comfortable residence for a private family.

For further particulars refer to Mr. Ward, Solicitor, Burslem.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, by indenture of assignment, bearing date on or about the 18th day of September 1829, Thomas Simmonds, of Blake's Wharf, in the Borough of Reading, in the County of Berks, Barge-Builders, conveyed and assigned all his estate and effects to William White, of Reading aforesaid, Timber-Merchant, David Elliott, of Tadley, in the County of Southampton, and George Simonds, of Reading aforesaid, Gentleman, in trust, for the benefit of the Creditors of the said Thomas Simmonds; and that such indenture of assignment was first executed by the said Thomas Simmonds on the 18th day of September 1829, and was, as to the execution thereof by the said Thomas Simmonds, attested by Joseph Whatley, Solicitor, Reading, Berks, and William Hodges, Clerk to Messrs. Whatley and Bickham, Solicitors, Reading; and that the said indenture of assignment was afterwards also executed by the said William White, David Elliott, and George Simonds on the said 18th day of September 1829, and was, as to the respective execution thereof by the said William White, David Elliott, and George Simonds, also attested by the said Joseph Whatley, Solicitor, Reading, Berks, and the said William Hodges, Clerk to Messrs. Whatley and Bickham, Solicitors, Reading; and that the said deed of assignment is lodged at the Office of the said Messrs. Whatley and Bickham, King-Street, Reading, for the perusal and signatures of the Creditors of the said Thomas Simmonds.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Townsend Timbrell, late of Bermondsey-Square, in the Parish of Saint Mary Magdalen, Bermondsey, in the County of Surrey, Worsted-Manufacturer, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the surviving Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Saturday the 28th day of November instant, at One o'Clock in the Afternoon precisely, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee accepting the offer of £700 made by Mr. Wright, Solicitor for the plaintiffs in the several suits in Chancery of Davis and others against Timbrell and others, by original bill, and Davis and others against Wood and another, by supplemental bill, and Davis and others against Timbrell and others, by bill of revivor, in full and complete satisfaction of all demands, claims, suits, and equities which the Assignee of the said Bankrupt may have or be entitled unto in respect of, arising out of, or relating to the several matters mentioned in the pleadings in the said cause, and also in full and complete satisfaction of all demands, claims, suits, and equities which the said Assignee may have or be entitled unto against the estate of the late William Darnell, mentioned in the said pleadings; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee, by his counsel, appearing on the hearing of the same causes, and consenting to the said terms of compromise, and consenting also that the said suits shall be dismissed, as against the said Assignee, with costs; and to authorise and instruct the said Assignee to take and adopt all such other measures, matters, and things as may be necessary for the purpose of carrying the acceptance of the said offer into full and complete effect; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee selling or disposing of all or any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, either by public auction or private contract, and to his taking such security, and giving such time and indulgence for payment of the same as he may think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any suit or suits at law or in equity, for the recovery thereof, or relative to any part of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; and to his compounding or compromising or taking less than the whole of or for any debt or debts due and owing to the Bankrupt's estate, and giving such time and indulgence for the payment of the same as to him may seem most advisable; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing to any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Joseph Thompson, of Aldersgate-Street, in the City of London, Linen-Draper and Hosiery Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Monday the 23d day of November instant, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Court of Commissioners of Bankrupts, in Basinghall-Street, in the City of London, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees, at such time or times, and in such place or places, as they shall think proper, selling and disposing of the lease of the said Bankrupt's house and premises in Aldersgate-Street aforesaid, with the concurrence of certain persons, to be named at the meeting, claiming to be equitable mortgagees thereof, and also all other the Bankrupt's estate and effects, of what nature or kind soever, whether real or personal, in possession, remainder, expectancy, reversion, or otherwise, and also his stock in trade, to the said Bankrupt, or to any other person or persons whomsoever, by public auction or private contract, at a valuation and appraisement, or otherwise, and either for ready money or upon credit, with or without taking security for the purchase money as to the said Assignees shall seem meet; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees employing an accountant to wind up and arrange the Bankrupt's affairs, if they shall deem it necessary, and to pay such accountant for his services; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending, or compounding any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, or any part thereof; or compromising or compounding with any debtor or debtors to the said Bankrupt's estate, or submitting the same to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing or giving time and taking security for the payment of any debt or debts; and generally to authorise and empower the said Assignees to take such steps in the arrangement and settlement of the said Bankrupt's estate and affairs, as to the said Assignees shall seem expedient.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Charles Bruton, of Cheltenham, in the County of Gloucester, Grocer, are requested to meet the Assignees of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt, on Friday the 27th day of November instant, at Twelve o'Clock at Noon, at the Royal Hotel, in Cheltenham aforesaid, in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling, by private contract, or by valuation, the stock in trade, fixtures, household furniture and other effects of the said Bankrupt, then remaining undisposed of, either in one or more lots or lots, and to give such time and credit, and to take such security for the amount of any such sale or sales as such Assignees shall think proper; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing and prosecuting, or defending any action or suit for the recovery and protection, or touching and concerning any part of the estate or effects of the said Bankrupt, and discontinuing such prosecution or defence, and to their compounding and giving time for the payment of any debts owing to the estate of the said Bankrupt, or otherwise settling the same as to the said Assignees shall seem expedient; and also to the said Assignees submitting to arbitration any disputes or differences which may arise, touching the estate or concerns of the said Bankrupt; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees giving up, or abandoning the Bankrupt's interest in the lease, or agreement for lease, of the premises in which the business has been carried on, or otherwise disposing of the same as such Assignees shall think expedient; and on other special affairs, to be named and discussed at such meeting.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Thomas Walter Williams, of Northwich, in the County of Chester, Banker, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 20th day of November instant, at Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, at the Crown Inn, in Northwich aforesaid, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees making an allowance to a person, against whom they have obtained a judgment for £513 16s. 3d. for the reasons which will be given at such meeting; and also for the purpose of compromising a demand against certain persons for freight of flats, and other profits made by them by the hire of the said flats, or otherwise; and for the purpose of assenting to or dissenting from several compromises made by the said Assignees with sundry persons, whose names will be mentioned at the meeting; and on other special affairs relating to the said estate and effects of the said Bankrupt.
