

the credit of the before-mentioned fund, for the purpose of defraying the charges and expences incurred, and to be incurred, in effecting the alterations and improvements in and near Fleet-market aforesaid.

T. Tyrrell, City Remembrancer.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the next session of Parliament, for leave to bring in a Bill for taking down the old market, commonly called or known by the name of Hungerford-market, in the parish of St. Martin in the Fields, in the county of Middlesex; and for erecting a new and more commodious market on the site thereof or near thereto; and for enlarging the same, by taking down certain houses and buildings adjoining or near to the present market; and for increasing and regulating the existing tolls and duties now payable on goods, wares, and merchandises brought into the said market, or landed upon the quays adjacent thereto; and also for explaining and amending several Acts of Parliament, passed in the reigns of King George the Second and King George the Third, respecting free markets in the city of Westminster for the sale of fish.

Palmer, France, and Palmer, Bedford-row.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to enable the Trustees of the New Cross Turnpike Roads to widen, straighten, and improve such part of the New Cross Turnpike Roads as passes through the town of Bromley, in the county of Kent, by taking down the whole, or such parts as shall be found necessary, of the messuages or tenements and buildings hereinafter mentioned, and taking the scites thereof, and also the yards and premises hereinafter also particularly mentioned, into the turnpike road there, that is to say: a messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house and butcher's shop, in the occupation of James and William Alexander; also a messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house, adjoining to the said last-mentioned premises, and the out-buildings and yard to the said messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house belonging or therewith used, in the occupation of Mr. John Emery; also a messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house and tallow-chandler's shop, adjoining to the said last-mentioned premises, and the out-buildings and yard thereunto belonging or therewith used, in the occupation of Mr. Allen Lambert, tallow-chandler; also a skittle-ground or yard and out-buildings, adjoining to the said last-mentioned premises, belonging to or in the occupation of Mr. Matthias Cordery, of the Duke's Head public-house; also a building or shed, adjoining to the said last-mentioned premises, with the yard thereunto belonging or therewith used, in the occupation of Mr. Richard Gabbitas; also a cottage or dwelling-house, adjoining to the passage between the said last-mentioned premises and the said cottage, in the occupation of Mr. Alexander Crowhurst; also another cottage or dwelling-house, adjoining to the said last-mentioned cottage, now shut up and unoccupied; also another cottage or dwelling-house, in the occupation of Richard Green, adjoining to the before-mentioned cottage in the occupation of Mr. Crowhurst; also another cottage or dwelling-house, adjoining the said last-mentioned cottage, in the occupation of Mrs. Elizabeth Day; also a stable, adjoining the said last-mentioned cottage, in the occupation of Mr. William Storer; also a dwelling-house, adjoining the said last-mentioned stable, in the occupation of Henry Bath; and which said before-mentioned houses, buildings, yards, sheds, cottages, and stables are on the west side of a certain street or highway in the town of Bromley, called Back-passage, running southward from out the turnpike road opposite the Bell Tap, into the turapike road again nearly opposite the White Hart Inn; and also all that messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house and shop, in the occupation of Mr. George Cocks; and also a messuage or tenement, adjoining to the said last-mentioned messuage or tenement, in the occupation of Mr. William Woodhums; also the Rose and Crown public-house, with the out-buildings and yard thereunto belonging, in the occupation of Mr. James Durling; also a messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house and shop (formerly two houses), and adjoining to the Rose and Crown, in the occupation of Mr. Richard Gabbitas; all which said last-mentioned messuages or tenements and premises are on the eastern side of the said street or highway, called Back-passage, in the town of Bromley aforesaid. And which said Bill will contain a provision for continuing a certain additional toll, of one halfpenny per horse (imposed by an Act of Parliament, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing and improving certain roads, in the counties of Kent and Surrey, commonly called, the New Cross Turnpike Roads," for defraying the costs and charges of certain improvements at Blackheath and Lee, in the county of Kent), until the costs, charges, and expences of widening, straightening, and improving the said turnpike road at Bromley as aforesaid, shall have been fully paid and discharged.—October 19, 1829.

John Bicknell, Sackville-street, London, Clerk to the Trustees of the New Cross Turnpike Roads.

CONTRACT FOR CEMENT STONE.

Navy-Office, October 29, 1829.

THE Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy do hereby give notice, that on Wednesday the 11th of November next, at one o'clock, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering, at His Majesty's Dock-yard at Sheerness, within twelve months from the day of treaty, 2000 Tons of Cement Stone, known by the name of Manor Stone.

A form of the tender may be seen at this Office.

No tender will be received after one o'clock on the day of treaty, nor any noticed, unless the party, or an agent for him, attends.

Every tender must be accompanied by a letter, addressed to the Navy Board, and signed by a responsible person, engaging to become bound with the person tendering, in the sum of £300, for the due performance of the contract. G. Smith.
