SMITHFIELD MARKET.

NOTICE is hereby given, that from and after the 1st day of December next, a market will be held at West Smithfield; on Thursday in every week, for the sale of oxen, kine, bullocks, steers, calves, sheep, lambs, and hogs; and other living beasts and cattle used for victuals.—Dated at Guildhall, London, this 6th day of November 1829.

Woodthorpe.

NEW FLEET MARKET.

Guildhall, London, November 6, 1829.

IN the name and for and on behalf of the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London; notice is hereby given, that the new market, authorised to be erected under and by virtue of an Act of Parliament, of the fifth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for the removal of Fleet Market, in the city of London," will be opened on Friday the 20th day of November instant.

Woodthorpe.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for amending, enlarging, altering, or repealing the following Acts of Parliament, that is to say; An Act of Parliament, made and passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Anne, intituled "An Act for enlarging the time given to the Commissioners appointed by Her Majesty, pursuant to an Act for granting to Her Majesty several duties on coals, for building fifty new churches in and about the cities of London and Westminster, and suburbs thereof, and other purposes therein mentioned; and also for giving the said Commissioners farther powers for better effecting the same, and for appointing monies for rebuilding the parish church of St. Mary Woolnoth, in the city of London;" also an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act for providing a maintenance for the Minister of the new church near Bloomsbury-market, in the county of Middlesex; and for making more effectual an Act, passed in the fourth year of His late Majesty's reign, for empowering the Commissioners for building fifty new churches, to direct the parish church of St. Giles in the Fields, in the said county, to be rebuilt, instead of one of the said fifty new churches;" also an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for better governing and employing the poor, and making and collecting the poor's rates, within the parishes of St. Giles in the Fields and St. George Bloomsbury, in the county of Middlesex;" so far as the said several recited Acts of Parliament, or either of them, relate to the nomination, appointment, or election of Vestrymen and Churchwardens and Overseers of the poor, of the said parishes of St. Giles in the Fields and St. George Bloomsbury, or either of them; or to the appointment, nomination, or election of the Lecturer of the said parish of St. George Bloomsbury; or to the parochial customs, usages, bye-laws, and privileges now in force or use in the said last-mentioned parishes; or to the making, levying, ordering, dividing, collecting, or distributing, auditing, or allowing of the poor's rates therein; or to the appointing or regulation of officers, collectors, and servants, in anywise relating to the parochial affairs of the same parishes, in the said recited Acts mentioned; or to the due regulation of and compelling such officers, collectors, and servants, to account for all monies intrusted to, or to be received by them, or to the government, maintenance, and employment of the poor in the same parishes; or to the workhouse, or house of maintenance of the poor, now standing in the said parish of St. Giles in the Fields; and in lieu and instead thereof, or in addition thereto, to enact, make, and grant other provisions, powers, and authorities, for the future appointment, nomination, and election of Vestrymen, Auditors, and Churchwardens, and permanent Officers (to be substituted instead of annual Overseers), for the management of the poor; and for the future appointment, nomination, and election of the parish clerks and sextons of the said parishes; and for making, levying, ordering, dividing, collecting, distributing, auditing, and allowing of the poor's rates; and for the appointment of officers, collectors, beadles, and servants, in anywise relating to the parochial affairs of the same parishes, in any of the said recited Acts mentioned; and for compelling such officers, collectors, beadles, and servants to account for all monies, property, and effects, to be entrusted to or received by them; and for the better government, maintenance, and employment of the poor of the same parishes; and for the giving and granting to the Vestrymen of the same parishes the power to make and levy rates for all the purposes to which church-rates are by law applicable, and distributing the same, and the proceeds of the pew-rents and mortuary fees in the same parishes; and for auditing and allowing the accounts of the said church-rates, mortuary fees, and pew-rents; and for vesting in the said Vestrymen all property now applicable to the support of the almswomen of the same parishes; and authorising the payment of the expenses of obtaining this intended Act out of any rate or rates to be made by virtue of the same; and for all such other powers and remedies as may be necessary, with reference to the said several matters and things hereinbefore mentioned or incidental thereto.—Dated the 4th day of November 1829.

T. D. Robinson, 11, Hart-street, Bloomsbury.

St. Gifès, Camberwell, Surrey.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next Session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, enlarge, and render more effectual the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the 53d year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the third, intituled "An Act for better assessing and collecting the poor and other rates, in the parish of St. Giles, Camberwell, in the county of Surrey, and regulating the affairs thereof; and for enabling the inhabitants to raise money for repairing or rebuilding the parish workhouse, and purchasing ground for a cemetery or burial ground, and for other purposes relating thereto." And particularly to provide for the more effectually rating, assessing, and collecting the poor, church, and highway rates, in regard to houses or tenements, let at low annual rents, or for shorter periods than a year, or let out in lodgings, by a composition with or an assessment upon the landlords or owners thereof, instead of the tenants or occupiers; and that it is also intended by the said bill to take power to enable the parish officers, with the consent of the Vestry, to pay the parish constables out of the poor's rate, upon occasions when they are called upon to do extra duty; and also to authorise the appointment of a treasurer of the monies raised for the repair of the highways, who shall give security for all monies that may come to his hands; and also for the better regulating the duties of the surveyor or surveyors of the highways, in making and levying rates, by requiring him or them to call a Vestry for the purpose of fixing the number of days statute duty, or (in other words) the amount of the rate for the repair of the highways; and also to authorise the appointment of an Assistant Overseer, with a salary; and also for continuing the liability of the sureties of all persons called upon to give security, notwithstanding the annual or other re-election of such parties, and to enable such sureties upon giving due notice, to withdraw from their responsibility; and also to enable the parish officers to take securities, and to sue and be sued in their capacity of parish officers; and to authorise them, in case more than two rates shall be made in the course of one year, to pay the collectors a commission, not exceeding 6d. in the pound, instead of 4½d. as limited by the present Act; and also to subject the inhabitants of houses which have become occupied after a rate has been made to a proportionate part of the said rate; and for such other powers and provisions for such or other purposes as shall be requisite for carrying the purposes aforesaid, or other purposes, towards the better regulation and management of the affairs of the said parish into full effect.

Street and Gilbert, Solicitors for the Bill.

Camberwell and Philpot-lane,
London, 5th November 1829.

Guildhall, London, October 31, 1829.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act to increase the fund for carrying into execution an Act, passed in the last session of Parliament, for improving the approaches to London-bridge, by applying all or part of the duties, revenues, and incomes, composing the fund called the Orphans' Fund (from and after the period when the present charges on that fund shall be paid and satisfied), to the fund for effecting the said approaches, and for that purpose to continue the said duties, revenues, and incomes, for a limited time after such duties would otherwise expire; also to apply to the said fund one moiety of the clear profits which may arise from the tolls and duties of Fleet-market, belonging to the Mayor and Commonalty and Citizens of the City of London; also to apply to the said fund the surplus of the rents and profits of the estates called the Bridge-house estates, which may from time to time arise after paying and satisfying the charges on those estates; and it is also intended to take power to raise a sum of money upon the credit of the before-mentioned fund, for the purpose of defraying the charges and expences incurred, and to be incurred, in effecting the alterations and improvements in and near Fleet-market aforesaid.

T. Tyrrell, City Remembrancer.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application will be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to enable the Trustees of the New Cross Turnpike Roads to widen, straighten, and improve such part of the New Cross Turnpike Roads as passes through the town of Bromley, in the county of Kent, by taking down the whole, or such parts as shall be found necessary, of the messuages or tenements and buildings hereinafter mentioned, and taking the scites thereof, and also the yards and premises hereinafter also particularly mentioned, into the turnpike road there, that is to say: a messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house and butcher's shop, in the occupation of James and William Alexander; also a messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house, adjoining to the said last-mentioned premises, and the out-buildings and yard to the said messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house belonging or therewith used, in the occupation of Mr. John Emery; also a messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house and tallow-chandler's shop, adjoining to the said last-mentioned premises, and the out-buildings and yard thereunto belonging or therewith used, in the occupation of Mr. Allen Lambert, tallow-chandler; also a skittle-ground or yard and out-buildings, adjoining to the said last-mentioned premises, belonging to or in the occupation of Mr. Matthias Cordery, of the Duke's Head public-house; also a building or shed, adjoining to the said last-mentioned premises, with the yard thereunto belonging or therewith used, in the occupation of Mr. Richard Gabbitas; also a cottage or dwelling-house, adjoining to the passage between the said last-mentioned premises and the said cottage, in the occupation of Mr. Alexander Crowhurst; also another cottage or dwelling-house, adjoining to the said last-mentioned cottage, now shut up and unoccupied; also another cottage or dwelling-house, in the occupation of Richard Green, adjoining to the before-mentioned cottage in the occupation of Mr. Crowhurst; also another cottage or dwelling-house, adjoining the said last-mentioned cottage, in the occupation of Mrs. Elizabeth Day; also a stable, adjoining the said last-mentioned cottage, in the occupation of Mr. William Storer; also a dwelling-house, adjoining the said last-mentioned stable, in the occupation of Henry Bath; and which said before-mentioned houses, buildings, yards, sheds, cottages, and stables are on the west side of a certain street or highway in the town of Bromley, called Back-passage, running southward from out the turnpike road opposite the Bell Tap, into the turnpike road again nearly opposite the White Hart Inn: and also all that messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house and shop, in the occupation of Mr. George Cocks; and also a messuage or tenement, adjoining to the said last-mentioned messuage or tenement, in the occupation of Mr. William Woodhums; also the Rose and Crown public-house, with the out-buildings and yard thereunto belonging, in the occupation of Mr. James Durling; also a messuage, tenement, or dwelling-house and shop (formerly two houses), and adjoining to the Rose and Crown, in the occupation of Mr. Richard Gabbitas; all which said last-mentioned messuages or tenements and premises are on the eastern side of the said street or highway, called Back-passage, in the town of Bromley aforesaid. And which said Bill will contain a provision for continuing a certain additional toll, of one halfpenny per horse (imposed by an Act of Parliament, passed in the seventh year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing and improving certain roads, in the counties of Kent and Surrey, commonly called, the New Cross Turnpike Roads," for defraying the costs and charges of certain improvements at Blackheath and Lee, in the county of Kent), until the costs, charges, and expences of widening, straightening, and improving the said turnpike road at Bromley as aforesaid, shall have been fully paid and discharged.—October 19, 1829.

John Bicknell, Sackville-street, London, Clerk to the Trustees of the New Cross Turnpike Roads.
