Whitehall, November 7, 1829.

WHEREAS it hath been humbly represented unto the King, that, on the morning of Saturday the 31st ultimo, the barn and other out-buildings of Mr. Howe, of Minster, in the isle of Sheppy, in the county of Kent, farmer, were discovered to be on fire, and that the whole of the said buildings, together with a stack of hay, some live stock, and sundry agricultural implements, were destroyed; and that, at the same time, a stack of straw, the property of Mr. Jeremiah Bigg, also of Minster, farmer, whose farm-yard is contiguous to Mr. Howe's, was discovered to be on fire: and whereas it hath been also humbly represented unto the King, that, in the evening of Sunday the 1st instant, two fires broke out simultaneously in the barn of the said Jeremiah Bigg, and in the barn of his father, Mr. Richard Bigg (whose farm-yards adjoin each other), and destroyed, on the premises of the said Jeremiah Bigg, one stack of wheat, one stack of beans, one stack of wheat and tares mixed, one stack of peas, one barn and corn therein, a lodge, and sundry agricultural implements; and on the premises of the said Richard Bigg, four stacks of wheat, two stacks of beans, one barn and corn therein, a lodge, a stable, and sundry agricultural implements; and that the said several fires are believed to have been wilfully and maliciously occasioned by some evil-disposed person or persons unknown;

His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to justice the persons concerned in the felonies before mentioned, is hereby pleased to promise His most gracious pardon to any one of them (except the person or persons who actually set fire to the said premises and property) who shall discover his accomplice or accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

ROBERT PEEL.

And, as a further encouragement, a reward of TWO HUNDRED POUNDS is hereby offered to any person (except as aforesaid) who shall discover the said offender or offenders, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted of the said offence.—Such reward to be paid on application to Mr. Edmeades, solicitor, Mile-town, Sheerness.

POST HORSE DUTIES.

Stamp-Office, London, October 30, 1829.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, by virtue of an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to repeal the duties upon horses let to hire for the purpose of travelling in Great Britain, and to grant other duties in lieu thereof, and to provide for letting the same to farm," the Commissioners of Stamps will put up the Duties therein mentioned, at the Crown and Anchor Tavern, in the Strand, on Friday the 11th day of December next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, subject to such conditions as will then be produced, to be let to farm at yearly rents, for the term of three years, from the 1st day of February next inclusive, in the several divisions or districts following, that is to say:

- | No. | DISTRICTS. |

The person declared to be the farmer of any district will be required to pay down immediately, in Bank notes, seven and a half per cent. upon the annual rent of such district as a deposit.

The farmer of each district will be required to give bond, with three or more surties, to be approved of by the Commissioners of Stamps, in the penalty of half the annual rent, for securing the payment of the rent and the performance of the contract.

All persons intending to bid for any of the said duties are to notify their intention in writing, addressed to the Commissioners, at the Stamp-Office, Somerset-place, at least three days previous to the said 11th day of December next, signed with their names, stating the places of their abode, and specifying the district or districts for which they intend to bid.

And no persons licenced to let horses for hire, nor any one for their use, can be admitted to contract for any of the said duties.

By order of the Commissioners,
Charles Pressly, Secretary.

SMITHFIELD MARKET.

NOTICE is hereby given, that from and after the 1st day of December next, a market will be held at West Smithfield, on Thursday in every week, for the sale of oxen, kine, bullocks, steers, calves, sheep, lambs, and hogs, and other living beasts and cattle used for victuals.—Dated at Guildhall, London, this 6th day of November 1829.

Woodthorpe.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills for making and maintaining an aqueduct, with feeders, tunnels, pipes, shafts, sewers, reservoirs, sluices, ways, bridges, engines, watch-houses, and other erections and matters, and all necessary works for the conveyance of pure water from divers springs in the parish of Wimbledon, in the county of Surrey, and upon or near to the line of the said aqueduct, to or near to the metropolis; which said aqueduct, feeders, and other matters relative thereto, will be situate in the several parishes and divisions of Wimbledon, Kingston, Roehampton, Richmond, Mortlake, East Sheen, Barnes, Putney, Wandsworth, Clapham, Battersea, and Lambeth, in the county of Surrey; and Saint John the Evangelist, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, respectively.—Dated this 5th day of November 1829.

2, York-square, Regent's-park. Robert Vazie.

St. Katharine Docks.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session thereof, for leave to bring in a Bill to amend, alter, and enlarge the powers and provisions of two several Acts, one passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making and constructing certain wet docks, warehouses, and other works, in the parish of Saint Botolph Without, Aldgate, and in the parish or precinct of Saint Katharine, near the Tower of London, in the county of Middlesex;" and the other, passed in the tenth year of the reign of His said present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled 'An Act for making and constructing certain wet docks, warehouses, and other works, in the parish of Saint-Botolph Without, Aldgate, and in the parish or precinct of Saint Katharine, near the Tower of London, in the county of Middlesex,' and for extending the powers and provisions of the said Act."—Dated this 14th day of November 1829.

Wm. Tooke, 39, Bedford-row, Solicitor to the St. Katharine Dock Company.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to authorise the Governor and Company of the New River, brought from Chadwell and Amwell to London, to construct and form a reservoir or aqueduct near the course of the said River at Clay-hill, Enfield, in the county of Middlesex, and for that purpose to take and purchase lands, and to form and lay mains, sluices, channels, and all other necessary works communicating with the said New River; and also for altering, explaining, and amending an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of King George the Second, intituled "An Act for ascertaining, preserving, and improving the navigation of the River Lea, from the town of Hertford to the town of Ware, in the county of Hertford, and for preserving and improving the said River from the said town of Ware to the New Cut or River made by the Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens of London, and for enabling the Governor and Company of the New River the better to supply the cities of London and Westminster, and the liberties and suburbs thereof, with good and wholesome water," for the purpose of explaining and better ascertaining the quantity of water to be taken from the said River Lea, out of Manifold Ditch, in or near Chadwell Mead, between the towns of Ware and Hertford, and the regulations respecting the same; and to authorise the said Governor and Company of the New River to take, procure, and obtain water from the said River Lea; at or near that part of the west bank of the said River where the parishes of Tottenham and Hackney meet, in the county of Middlesex, by means of pipes, conduits, or cuts to communicate with the said New River, at or about a place called the Dark Arch, in the parish or precinct of Stoke Newington, otherwise Newington, in the said county of Middlesex, in order more effectually to supply water to the metropolis and other places; and also, for the purposes aforesaid, to take and purchase lands, and to place, erect, lay, construct, make, extend, and continue all necessary reservoirs, pipes, drains, aqueducts, steam engines, and other works in, into, or through the parishes, townships, or places following (that is to say) Hackney, Tottenham, Stamford-hill, and Stoke Newington, in the said county of Middlesex, or some of them or some parts thereof; and also to enable the said Governor and Company to make, construct, and lay all necessary sluices, pipes, tunnels, or other works for the purpose of conveying and diverting any waste or flood waters or cross streams into or under the said New River, wherever the same may be deemed desirable along the course thereof; which said River passes through parts of the several parishes, townships, hamlets, or places following (that is to say); Saint John Hertford, Little Amwell, Ware, Great Amwell, Saint Margaret's, Hoddesdon, Broxbourne, Wormley, and Cheshunt, in the county of Hertford; and Enfield, Edmonton, Tottenham, Hornsey, Newington, Islington, and Clerkenwell, in the county of Middlesex: and also to prevent bathing, or casting or emptying of any filth or unwholesome matter in and into the said New River, or committing any nuisance or annoyance thereon, or doing any damage to the banks, bridges, or works along or over the same; and also to make further provisions for the better government, regulation, and protection of the affairs and property of the said Governor and Company of the New River, or relating thereto, or to the supply of water to the metropolis and other places.—November 12, 1829.

Hall, Thompson, and Sewell, Solicitors,
Salters'-hall.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for amending, enlarging, altering, or repealing the following Acts of Parliament, that is to say; An Act of Parliament, made and passed in the tenth year of the reign of Her Majesty Queen Anne, intituled "An Act for enlarging the time given to the Commissioners appointed by Her Majesty, pursuant to an Act for granting to Her Majesty several duties on coals, for building fifty new churches in and about the cities of London and Westminster, and suburbs thereof, and other purposes therein mentioned; and also for giving the said Commissioners farther powers for better effecting the same, and for appointing monies for rebuilding the parish church of St. Mary Woolnoth, in the city of London;" also an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the third year of the reign of His Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act for providing a maintenance for the Minister of the new church near Bloomsbury-market, in the county of Middlesex; and for making more effectual an Act, passed in the fourth year of His late Majesty's reign, for empowering the Commissioners for building fifty new churches, to direct the parish church of St. Giles in the Fields, in the said county, to be rebuilt, instead of one of the said fifty new churches;" also an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for better governing and employing the poor, and making and collecting the poor's rates, within the parishes of St. Giles in the Fields and St. George Bloomsbury, in the county of Middlesex;" so far as the said several recited Acts of Parliament, or either of them, relate to the nomination, appointment, or election of Vestrymen and Churchwardens and Overseers of the poor, of the said parishes of St. Giles in the Fields and St. George Bloomsbury, or either of them; or to the appointment, nomination, or election of the Lecturer of the said parish of St. George Bloomsbury; or to the parochial customs, usages, bye-laws, and privileges now in force or use in the said last-mentioned parishes; or to the making, levying, ordering, dividing, collecting, or distributing, auditing, or allowing of the poor's rates therein; or to the appointing or regulation of officers, collectors, and servants, in anywise relating to the parochial affairs of the same parishes, in the said recited Acts mentioned; or to the due regulation of and compelling such officers, collectors, and servants, to account for all monies intrusted to, or to be received by them, or to the government, maintenance, and employment of the poor in the same parishes; or to the workhouse, or house of maintenance of the poor, now standing in the said parish of St. Giles in the Fields; and in lieu and instead thereof, or in addition thereto, to enact, make, and grant other provisions, powers, and authorities, for the future appointment, nomination, and election of Vestrymen, Auditors, and Churchwardens, and permanent Officers (to be substituted instead of annual Overseers), for the management of the poor; and for the future appointment, nomination, and election of the parish clerks and sextons of the said parishes; and for making, levying, ordering, dividing, collecting, distributing, auditing, and allowing of the poor's rates; and for the appointment of officers, collectors, beadles, and servants, in anywise relating to the parochial affairs of the same parishes, in any of the said recited Acts mentioned; and for compelling such officers, collectors, beadles, and servants to account for all monies, property, and effects, to be entrusted to or received by them; and for the better government, maintenance, and employment of the poor of the same parishes; and for the giving and granting to the Vestrymen of the same parishes the power to make and levy rates for all the purposes to which church-rates are by law applicable, and distributing the same, and the proceeds of the pew-rents and mortuary fees in the same parishes; and for auditing and allowing the accounts of the said church-rates, mortuary fees, and pew-rents; and for vesting in the said Vestrymen all property now applicable to the support of the almswomen of the same parishes; and authorising the payment of the expenses of obtaining this intended Act out of any rate or rates to be made by virtue of the same; and for all such other powers and remedies as may be necessary, with reference to the said several matters and things hereinbefore mentioned or incidental thereto.—Dated the 4th day of November 1829.

T. D. Robinson, 11, Hart-street, Bloomsbury.

St. Giles, Camberwell, Surrey.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the next Session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, enlarge, and render more effectual the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the 53d year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the third, intituled " An Act for better assessing and collecting the poor and other rates, in the parish of St. Giles, Camberwell, in the county of Surrey, and regulating the affairs thereof ; and for enabling the inhabitants to raise money for repairing or rebuilding the parish workhouse, and purchasing ground for a cemetery or burial ground, and for other purposes relating thereto." And particularly to provide for the more effectually rating, assessing, and collecting the poor, church, and highway rates, in regard to houses or tenements, let at low annual rents, or for shorter periods than a year, or let out in lodgings, by a composition with or an assessment upon the landlords or owners thereof, instead of the tenants or occupiers ; and that it is also intended by the said bill to take power to enable the parish officers, with the consent of the Vestry, to pay the parish constables out of the poor's rate, upon occasions when they are called upon to do extra duty ; and also to authorise the appointment of a treasurer of the monies raised for the repair of the highways, who shall give security for all monies that may come to his hands ; and also for the better regulating the duties of the surveyor or surveyors of the highways, in making and levying rates, by requiring him or them to call a Vestry for the purpose of fixing the number of days statute duty, or (in other words) the amount of the rate for the repair of the highways ; and also to authorise the appointment of an Assistant Overseer, with a salary ; and also for continuing the liability of the sureties of all persons called upon to give security, notwithstanding the annual or other re-election of such parties, and to enable such sureties upon giving due notice, to withdraw from their responsibility ; and also to enable the parish officers to take securities, and to sue and be sued in their capacity of parish officers ; and to authorise them, in case more than two rates shall be made in the course of one year, to pay the collectors a commission, not exceeding 6d. in the pound, instead of 4½d. as limited by the present Act ; and also to subject the inhabitants of houses which have become occupied after a rate has been made to a proportionate part of the said rate ; and for such other powers and provisions for such or other purposes as shall be requisite for carrying the purposes aforesaid, or other purposes, towards the better regulation and management of the affairs of the said parish into full effect.

Street and Gilbert, Solicitors for the Bill.

Camberwell and Philpot-lane,
London, 5th November 1829.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for an Act for establishing a market within the district of Christchurch, in the parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone, in the county of Middlesex, for the sale of horses and other beasts and live animals, fish, poultry, meat and other animal food, hay, corn, seeds, grain, meal, flour, fruit, herbs, flowers, plants and other agricultural and vegetable produce, and of all other articles, matters, and things which are usually sold in public markets ; and that it is intended to take power by such Act for the purchase and sale of lands, tenements, and hereditaments, for the purposes of such Act, within the boundaries or limits hereinafter mentioned, that is to say ; within all that piece or parcel of ground which is bounded on the south by houses built in a certain street called New Church-street, on the west by houses built in a certain other street called Carlisle-street, on the north by houses built in a certain other street called Princess-street, and on the east by houses built in a certain other street called Salisbury-street ; all which premises are situate within the district of Christchurch, in the parish of Saint Mary-le-Bone aforesaid.—November 7, 1829.

Assistances paying and discharging all costs and charges already incurred in investigating, protecting, keeping possession of, or otherwise managing the estate and affairs of the said Bankrupt, under the direction of the provisional Assignee; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees commencing, prosecuting, or defending any actions, suits, or proceedings at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of the said Bankrupt's estate, or in any wise relating thereto; and to their referring the same actions, suits, or proceedings, or any question, dispute, or matter, to arbitration; and to their compounding, arranging, compromising, or otherwise settling, any debt or debts due to or from the said Bankrupt's estate, or any matter or thing relating thereto; and generally to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees managing the said Bankrupt's estate as they shall think fit and necessary, for the benefit and interest of the Creditors; and if any or either of the payments, sales, acts, deeds, matters, or things herein referred to shall have been effected, made, or done prior to the said meeting, to confirm the same respectively; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against Robert Knowles, of Great Bolton, in the County of Lancaster; Collier, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the surviving Assignee of the estate and effects of the said Bankrupt; on the 9th day of December next, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Messrs. Cross and Rushton, in Acres-Field, within Great Bolton aforesaid, in order to take into consideration the propriety of petitioning the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain to ratify and confirm the sale made of the bleach-works and premises in Tong and Little Bolton, in the said County, belonging to the said Bankrupt, to Thomas Thwaites, the said surviving Assignee of the said Robert Knowles, which said bleach-works and premises were purchased by Mr. Baron for the said Assignee, by public auction, on the 29th day of October 1828, at the Commercial Inn, in Great Bolton aforesaid; and also to consider and agree whether it will not be to the advantage of the Creditors under the said estate to consent that such application shall be made at the expence of the said Bankrupt's estate, or at whose expence such application shall be made; and also to assent to or dissent from the said surviving Assignee commencing, defending, or prosecuting any action or actions at law, or instituting any proceedings in equity, to compel the Mortgagee or Mortgagees, Trustee or Trustees, of the estates of the said Robert Knowles, or any of them, to give an account of the moneys received and paid by them, or any of them, and to shew the balance due to or from the said Bankrupt's estate; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

THE Creditors who have proved their debts under a Commission of Bankrupt awarded and issued forth against William Jennings, of Abergavenny, in the County of Monmouth, Draper, Dealer and Chapman, are requested to meet the Assignees of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects, on the 10th day of December next, at Ten o'Clock in the Forenoon, at the Office of Messrs. Atkinson and Birch, in Norfolk Street, in Manchester, in the County of Lancaster, to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees paying and discharging the costs, charges, and expences incurred by certain of the Creditors of the said Bankrupt in and about certain actions by them, and other proceedings and measures had and taken, for the purpose of protecting the estate of the said Bankrupt, and to obtain possession thereof; and in order to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees ratifying and confirming the proceedings under the said Commission, and paying and discharging the costs, charges, and expences incurred or sustained by such provisional Assignee and the persons employed by him, and about selling and disposing of certain part of the stock and effects of the said Bankrupt, or otherwise, in the execution of his trust; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees opposing the proof of a certain debt for £1,000 by certain persons, to be named at such meeting, and of presenting or opposing any petition which shall or may be presented in and about the same; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignees selling and disposing, either by public auction or private contract, of the residue of the stock in trade and effects of the said Bankrupt, for such price or prices as they can get for the same, and either for ready money or payment on a future day, and for such personal security as they the said Assignees shall deem sufficient; and also to assent to or dissent from the said Assignee commencing, prosecuting, or defending any action or actions, suit or suits, at law or in equity, for the recovery or protection of any part or parts of the said Bankrupt's estate and effects; or to the compounding, submitting to arbitration, or otherwise agreeing any matter or thing relating thereto; and on other special affairs.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend the laws relating to Bankrupts," it is enacted "That if any Trader shall file in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts a Declaration, in writing, signed by such Trader, and attested by an Attorney or Solicitor, that he is insolvent or unable to meet his engagements, the said Secretary of Bankrupts shall sign an authority for inserting the said Declaration in the Gazette, and that every such Declaration shall, after such advertisement inserted as aforesaid, be an Act of Bankruptcy committed by such Trader at the time when such Declaration was filed, but that no Commission shall issue thereupon unless it be sued out within two calendar months next after the insertion of such advertisement, unless such advertisement shall have been inserted within eight days after such act of Bankruptcy after such Declaration filed; and no Docket shall be struck upon such act of Bankruptcy before the expiration of four days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in London, or before the expiration of eight days next after such insertion in case such Commission is to be executed in the Country:"—Notice is hereby given, that a Declaration was filed on the 16th day of November 1829, in the Office of the Lord Chancellor's Secretary of Bankrupts, signed and attested according to the said Act, by JOHN FRY, formerly of Whitechapel, in the County of Middlesex, Corn-Dealer, afterwards of Wandsworth, in the County of Surrey, Colour-Manufacturer, and since of Brixton, in the said County of Surrey, Coal and Cattle-Dealer, that he is in insolvent circumstances and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

And on the 17th day of November 1829, by SAMUEL PLUMBE, of Great Russell-Street, Bloomsbury, in the County of Middlesex, Surgeon and Apothecary, that he is in insolvent circumstances and is unable to meet his engagements with his creditors.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the Commission of Bankrupt, dated the 9th day of September last, awarded against John Hill, of Red-Lion-Wharf, City Basin, and of Red-Lion-Street, Holborn, both in the County of Middlesex, Coal-Merchant, has been superseded by a Writ of Supersedeas, issued out of and under the Seal of the Court of Chancery.—Dated the 12th day of November 1829.

TAKE NOTICE,

1. If any Creditor intends to oppose a Prisoner's discharge, notice of such intention must be given, by entry thereof in the proper page and column of the book kept for that purpose at the Office of the Court, between the hours of Ten in the Forenoon and Four in the Afternoon, three clear days before the day of hearing above mentioned, exclusive of Sunday, and exclusive both of the day of entering such notice and of the said day of hearing; but in the case of a Prisoner, for the removal of whom for hearing in the country an order has been obtained, but not carried into effect by the Creditors, notice of opposition will be sufficient if given one clear day before the day of hearing.

N. B. Entrance to the Office in Portugal-Street.

2. The petition and schedule, and all books, papers, and writings filed therewith, will be produced by the proper Officer for inspection and examination, on Mondays, Wednesdays, and Fridays, until the last day for entering opposition-inclusive; and copies of the petition and schedule, or such part thereof as shall be required, will be provided by the proper Officer, according to the Act, 7 Geo. 4, c. 57, sec. 76.

3. Notice to produce at the hearing any books or papers filed with the schedule, must be given to the Officer having the custody thereof, within the hours above mentioned, on any day previous to the day of hearing.

4. Opposition at the hearing can only be made by the Creditor in person, or by Counsel appearing for him.

To the Creditors of John Scrivener, late of No. 284, Oxford-Street, in the County of Middlesex, Cheesemonger, an Insolvent Debtor.
