Whitehall, September 26.

THe following Addressees having been presented to His Majesty, His Majesty was pleased to receive them very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Petition and Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Commonalty of Your Majesty's Loyal City of Bristol.

IN all Humility we present this Testimony of our exceeding great Joy and Satisfaction for the deliverance of the Persons of Your Sacred Majesty, and Your Royal Brother, and the whole Government in general, from that Ruine and Confusion which was designed by the late wicked and damnable Conspiracy. In the Discovery whereof the favour and protection of Divine Providence was so conspicuous, that we doubt not but the Hands and Hearts of those who durst be and appear Loyal, even in doubtful times, will be thereby greatly strengthened, Your mistaken Subjects reduced to an unalterable obedience and submission to your Government; and that all stubborn Malecontents may be either curbed by the awe of Your Laws, or fall under the stroke of your Justice.

We are well satisfied we can no more merit by any acts of Loyalty towards our Sovereign, than we can by acts of Religion towards God, (both being our bounden Duty.) And we humbly hope Your Majesty hath been Graciously pleased to accept our constant care of preserving the Government of this City in Loyal Hands, in these doubtful and dangerous times, by not depending on our own Judgment, but taking the measures of Electing our Mayor, by the Intimation of His Grace the Duke of Beaufort, the last year, and this year of our Mayor, and Sheriffs, from Your Sacred Majesties directions by Your Royal Letter under Your Sign Manual; And though there have hapned several Disputes amongst us upon occasion of the QUO WARRANTO issued against our Charter, yet all our Debates thereupon centering in Loyalty.

We therefore in humble manner do beg Your Gracious Majesty to confirm to this your Loyal City all our Rights, Franchizes, Privileges, and Customs, in such manner as we now do, have, or might enjoy them; And so to order the Governing part of this City for the future, as may be most agreeable to your Royal Inclinations; which will encourage us in the faithful discharge of our respective Duties.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Loyal Young Men and Apprentices of the City of Bristol.

Dread Sir,

WE have been with humble, yet joyful Hearts, paying our Homage of Prayer and Praises to the most High God, from whom alone our Deliverance came, by a happy discovery of the horrid Conspiracy against the Life of the Lord's Anointed and our Dread Sovereign your most Gracious Majesty, and your Dearest Brother, James, Duke of York, carried on by desperate Schismatics, and practical Atheists, the Oynants of this Age, in Villany and Rebellion; And now with all humble Duty, we present our selves at Your Majesties Throne, with our abhorrence of those Execrable and damnable Designs, contrived by Republicans and Conventiclers, which is very obvious to us, from our own Observations made on those Conspirators of this City, who were to be Agents in the Attoning and Bloody Assassination of your Sacred Person. For Joseph Tyley, Nath. Wade, James Holway, John Rowe, and many others, have been for several years the beloved Patriots of the Dissenting Tribes, in this Corporation; with our Eyes we have seen them associate and (as the consequence now proves it) take Hellish Counsel against our Lord the King. Thereby abundantly Convincing us, that Conventicles are the Seminaries only of Rebellion and Slavery, not of Religion and Liberty. This hath begotten in us an utter Detestation of all those Asects and Separatists who compass the Ruine of King and Kingdoms, under the Cloak of a Pretended Tender-Confidence; And though your Majesty stands Guarded from all those Machinations by the powerful protection of Heaven, ever Miraculously defending its Vicegerent from the designs of Hell; yet we once more renew the humble tender of a mean, yet hearty Offering of our Lives and Fortunes, for the defence of your Sacred Person and Royal Successors, against all Associations, Conspiracies and Rebellions whatsoever. Assuring your Majesty from the bottom of our Souls, that we will Sacrifice all that is dear us for the Preservation of this Excellent Government, as by Law established in Church and State, and not with some of this City Hart back from our former principles and resolutions for the sake of a Charter, but in all things approve our selves

Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects and Servants.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen Burgessees, and Commonalty of the Town and Borough of Heston in the County of Cornwall.

Most Gracious and Dread Sovereign,

WE your Majesties most Obedient and Dutiful Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Free-Burgessees, and other Inhabitants of your Majesties Loyal ancient Borough and Coynage-Town of Heston in the County of Cornwall, do in all Humility cast our selves at your Majesties Royal Feet, and do with unfeigned hearts, bleis and praise Almighty God for your Majesties former miraculous Deliverances from your wicked and cruel Enemies and Rebels; for your Happy Restauration to the Exercise of your undoubted Right and Title, to the Supream Government of your Majesties Realms and Dominions, and for the Blessings that all your Majesties Subjects enjoy thereby, and particularly for the Happy Discovery of the late most Wicked, Traiterous, and Hellish Conspiracy against the precious Lives of your Majesty, and of your Royal Brother James Duke of York, and for both your Deliverances from the same; a Conspiracy manifestly tending to the Subversion of our Laws, Liberties, Properties, and Religion by Law established, and involving your Kingdoms in Blood and Confusion, and which we cannot reflect upon, but with Horror and Amazement, especially when we find it undertaken by a Party of men, pretending the Reformed Religion as others did, who brought upon us our late Miseries and Confusions. We do from our hearts abjure, detest and abhor this and all such Damnable and Hellish Practices and Conspiracies, and do declare we will still bear Faith and true Allegiance to your Majesty, your Heirs and Lawful Successors, and will obey assist and defend your Majesty, to the utmost of our Powers, with our Lives and Fortunes against all Treasons and Traiterous Conspiracies, Associations and Attempts whatsoever, which shall be against your Majesties Royal Person, your Crown and Dignity upon any pretence whatsoever; still beseeching Almighty God, as hitherto done, to preserve you from all Designs and Attempts, and to cloath all your Enemies with shame, and that upon your Royal Head and the Heads of your Royal Heirs, the Crown of this Imperial Monarchy, may ever flourish. Given under our Hands, and the Common Seal of the said Borough, at the Guild hall of the Borough aforesaid, this thirtieth day of July, in the five and thirtieth year of your Majesties Reign.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Magistrates, and Free-men of Your Majesties antient Borough of Grantham in the County of Cornwall.

S H E W E T H,

THat we Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, being very apprehensive of a most Damnable and Horrid Conspiracy, for the compassing and taking away the most precious Lives, not only of Your most Sacred Person, but also of Your Dearest Brother the most illustrious Prince James Duke of York, contrived by divers desperate, dissaffected, and Irreligious Persons, under pretence of promoting Religion, and we being as apprehensive of the Omnipotent watchful Providence in the seasonable Discovery of this Hellish Design, cannot but bless the infinite Mercy of God for his wonderful disappointment thereof, and sincerely rejoice in this miraculous Deliverance. Most humbly beseeching Your Majesty to be well assured, that whatever we look upon as near and dear unto us, shall with all imaginable Alacrity be laid down in defence of Your Royal Person, Your Heirs and Lawful Successors, and Your Government both in Church and State, as it is by Law established, and our fervent Prayers are and shall be, that Heaven may bless Your Majesty with a long Life and a prosperous Reign, with all the Blessings of this and a better World.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Grand-Jury for the County of Nottingham, at the Assizes held there for the said County, this seven and twentieth day of July, Anno Dom. 1683.

WHen with Amazement and Horror we reflect upon the late more than Barbarous and Hellish Conspiracy, formed to Subvert this antient and flourishing Monarchy, and again to involve this and all other Your Majesties Kingdoms in Blood, and the infinite Mischiefs of Confusion, and all this contrived and designed by men of such Faction and Turbulent Spirits, as no Obligations, not all the Indulgences and Mercies of Your Gracious Government could influence into Allegiance and Duty. We cannot but with hearts full of Joy, (among the many Crouds of Your Loyal Subjects) press to Congratulate the blessed Deliverance of Your Sacred Person and Royal Brother, and in that the Preservation of our Church, our Peace, our Liberties and Properties, from such Impious and Bloody Hands.

And further, Great Sir, We the Body of this County, do in all humble manner beg leave to assure Your Majesty, that to our Lives and Fortunes we will ever add our cheerful and resolute endeavours in the defence of Your Sacred Person, the Lineal and Lawful Succession of the Crown, and the Government of this Your Kingdom in Church and State, as now by Law established, against all Seditious and Treasonable Associations, Leagues, Covenants, and Conspiracies whatsoever. For such is the Religion and unquestionable Duty of,

Dread Sovereign,
Your most Loyal, most Dutiful, and ever Obedient Subjects and Servants.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bayliffs, High-Steward, Recorder, Capital Burgeses, and others of the Borough of Tamworth in the Counties of Warwick and Stafford.

Most Gracious and Dread Sovereign,

WE cannot but (with great Horror and Detestation) observe the active malice of a known sort of men,

(very Pests in Church and Commonwealth) to be so notorious and incurable, that of them it hath been long since truly dictated by that great Oracle of Wisdom, your Majesties Grandfather King James, "That no Deserts can oblige them, neither Oaths or Promises bind them, breathing nothing but Seditious and Calumnies, aspiring without measure, railing without Reason, and making their own Imaginations the Square of their Conscience, greater ingratitude not to be found with any Highland or Border Thieves, or more Lyes and viler Perjuries than with these Phanatick Spirits: All which Advertisements (to the reproach of the English Nation, and scandal of the Protestant Religion) have in Practice been sadly verified by that evil Generation in the Martyrdom of your Royal Father, and now again intanced in a most barbarous design of destroying the Lives of your most Sacred Majesty, and most illustrious Brother the ever Loyal Duke of York.

In due consideration whereof, we Your Majesties most Loyal Subjects the Bayliffs Capital Burgeses, and others of the Borough of Tamworth, have already Addressed the Throne of Heaven, with our Thanksgiving for the late Mercies towards us and the whole Nation, in the miraculous Preservation of Your Majesties sacred Person, and the Life of Your Dearest Brother.

And now, Dread Sovereign, we humbly bow down our selves before Your Imperial Scepter, and in a due sense of our Loyalty, crave leave to renew our bounden Allegiance, ever to defend with the extremest hazard of our Lives and Fortunes, Your most gracious Majesty, Your Heirs and Successors, and Government (as now by Law established in Church and State,) against all Traiterous Associations, Solemn Leagues, Covenants, Fanatical Attempts and Conspiracies whatsoever. And as an evidence of sincerity herein, we do faithfully promise, that as we will use a vigilant enquiry to discover and frustrate all Treasonable Conspiracies and Associations, so we will use our utmost endeavour and care that such Persons only may be elected into publick Offices and Places of Trust within our Sphere, as have approved themselves to have been constant in their Loyalty to Your Majesty, and Faithful in their Stations for the Preservation of the Government in Church and State established. May it please the great God of Heaven, the Searcher of all hearts, to bring to light every Mischance in this Nation, of Schismatical, unreasonable, and unquiet Principles.

And may it please Your Sacred Majesty, (God Almighty Vicegerent here on earth) to keep and brook such Bouteffours in Your Kingdoms for no other employments than (as Socrates did an evil Wife) for trying Your incomparable Patience and Divine Lenity. May the God of Order ever compass Your Person and Crown, with songs of Deliverance, give You many and Happy years, the hearts of Your Subjects, and necks of Your Enemies. In Testimony whereof we have out the Common Seal of our Corporation, this first day of August, in the Thirty fifth year of the most happy Reign of Your truly Gracious Majesty.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriff, Bayliffs, Burgeses, and other Inhabitants of the Town and County of Haverfordwest, in South-Wales.

Most Dread Sovereign,

Haven, which hath writ Your Majesty its Sacred and truly Anointed in those miracles of Preservation that hath snatch'd You from the Violence and Assaults of a Civil and Unnatural Sword, (which although drunk, was not satiated with Blood) thrilling after another draught of Royal Gore, to add to the Purple of its Rebellion. Heaven which hath confirm'd You to be the Breath of our Nostrils by dispersing those clouds of Confusion and Faction in their early Mills which were gathering into Storms, threatening not only the Subversion of our Religion, but the deprivation of our Liberty and Lives, calls now for our Oblation of Thanks and Acknowledgment (which we with the increasing train of Your Majesties Loyal and well-affected Subjects) lay at Your Majesties Feet. Imploping the King of Kings to be Your defence and Shield, to lengthen that Commission (which You have from above) to Reign over us to the last of our years, that we may be happy under the Influence of such a gentle and easie Government which makes every Man's Vine bleed, to the Nourishment of its true Proprietor, makes Peace our happiness, Plenty our Food and uncontrollable Liberty, the blessing of the Good, and encourages every Man's hand to transcribe his Heart, not only Loyal and Obedient to Your Majesty, but constant Abettors, and resolute Defenders of

of that Succession which by the just Decrees of Heaven is purpled with the Royal Blood, from which that there may never be wanting a Man to sit upon Your Throne, pray a handful of People, who with Hearts full of Loyalty, have as well subscribed our Names as caused our Common-Seal of the said Town and County to be affixed the Seventh day of August, in the Five and thirtieth Year of Your Majesties Reign.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address and Submission of the Mayor, Bayliffs, and Commonalty of the City of OXON in Common-Council Assembled.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesties most Loyal and Obedient Subjects, Seriously Reflecting on that Traiterous and Bloody Design, which is lately fully Discover'd to have been long carried on by known Dissenting Conventicles, Associated with Atheistical Persons, not only against Your Majesties Life and your Royal Brother's, but also to Extirpate Monarchy, Enslave the Nation, and destroy all Loyal honest Subjects; Humbly beg leave to offer to your Sacred Majesty, our most hearty Congratulation for your Majesties and your Dear Brother's most Miraculous Deliverance, together with our sincere Abhorrence and Detestation of this damnable and hellish Conspiracy; heartily praying that that good Providence which hath so wonderfully brought this impious design to light, and some of the Contrivers to their just Judgment, will still watch over and secure your Majesty and your Successors, from all Plots and Conspiracies whatsoever; And as nothing in this World is more valuable to us than Your Majesties Safety and Service, so we beseech You to accept our Lives and Fortunes, which we are unanimously resolv'd to expose in defence of Your Sacred Person, Your Heirs and Successors, and Government in Church and State, as now established by Law.

And whereas it hath been the great misfortune of this City, through the ill conduct and misgovernment of some amongst us, to fall so far under Your Majesties just displeasure, that You should be pleas'd to bring a Q U O W A R R A N T O against our Liberties and Franchises; we presume to lay hold of this opportunity, humbly to cast our selves at Your Majesties Feet, and beg your gracious Pardon for those and all other Offences (being ashamed we have not done it sooner) and as we cannot think your Majesties Royal goodnes will ruine so Antient and Loyal a City for the faults of particular factious Persons, so we humbly implore your Majesty to shew the same Clemency and compassion to us, which You have lately to Your Royal City of London, by confirming our Antient Liberties and Franchises, reserving to Your Majesty and Your Successors, the Approbation and Confirmation of our respective Mayor, Bayliffs, Aldermen, and Assistants, Recorder, Town-Clerk, Mace bearer, or any other Officers, in such manner as Your Majesty in Your great Wisdom shall think fit.

And we in the Name of our selves and of all the Citizens of this City, humbly tender Your Majesty the most real promises and Assurances of constant Loyalty and Obedience to Your Majesty, Your Heirs and Successors, and our dutiful Administration of the Government of this City, for the future, humbly submitting our selves in all things relating to our Charter, to Your Majesties good pleasure, which we humbly beg to receive, and are unanimously resolv'd with all humility and thankfulness to obey.

In Testimony of all which, we have hereunto set our Hands, and caused the Common-Seal of this City, to be affixed this Four and twentieth day of August, Anno Dom. 1683, and in the Five and thirtieth Year of Your most Gracious Majesties Reign.

Genova, Sept. 15. By a Felucca arrived here from Naples, we have an account that the Spanish Armada was arriv'd there.

Hamburgh, Sept. 24. The King of Denmark is still at Rensburg; and there is a discourse that his Majesty is going to make a new Levy of 4 or 5000 men. They write from Copenhagen, that the Danish and French Fleet is returned from the Baltick.

A Particular Relation of the raising of the Siege of Vienna, and the Defeat of the Turkish Army on the 12th. of September, 1683.

YOU have already had several Relations of the great Victory which the Confederate Army obtained against the Turks the twelfth instant, but none so exact and particular as that we now give you. The Turks after a Siege of nine Weeks, had reduced this place to that extremity, that it could not have held out 48 hours longer, for our Provisions failed; our Garrison which at first was about 12000 men, was brought to 6000, having suffered more by Sickness than by the Enemy, and the Turks had three Mines ready to spring, which would infallibly have blown up the last Retrenchment we had made for our Security within the Town, when the Christian Army with the Divine Assistance happily relieved us; which they would not so easily have done, had the Grand Vicer secured the Passages of the Wood and other Posts (which the Christians found difficult enough to pass, even though they met with no opposition) but either for want of Foot, or through a vain confidence of his own strength, having still an Army of 120000 fighting men, he neglected these advantages.

The Christian Army, which consisted of between 70 and 80000 men, advancing towards this place, a great Body of Horse and Dragoons was sent on the 11th to seize the chief Passages and Avenues of the Wood, which the Army having afterward pass'd, they posted themselves in the evening at the entrance of the Wood on the side towards the Enemy, and there being a Hill at a small distance from them, some Troops were sent to secure it, and all things were disposed for the Battle the next day; the Right Wing was given to the King of Poland, for that he had the most Horse, and that the Country was on that side open; the left to the Elector of Bavaria, and the Duke of Lorraine, because they were strongest in Foot, and that it was an enclosed Country all along the Danube; and the main Body to the Elector of Saxony and Prince Waldecke. The next morning by break of day, the Generals, according to appointment, met on the Hill beforementioned, to give the last orders, and were no sooner come thither, but a Body of about 10000 Turks appear'd, and advanced towards the Christians, whereupon a Battalion was ordered to put themselves into a Vineyard that was on a Hill hard by, being supported by three other Battalions, which made the Turks stop, for not enduring the Fire of the said Battalions, and being all Horse, and in a ground where they could not well attack the Foot, they contented themselves with making one discharge, accompanied with a hideous noise, and so retired. Hereupon the King of Poland and the other Princes having observed the Disposition of the Enemy, drew the Army in three Lines, all closed without any intervals, and ordered them to march very slowly towards the Enemy, and to stand, when the Turks came to charge them, to keep themselves very close, and not to fire till the Enemy had made their discharge, which was accordingly done. The Enemy advanced towards them with a horrible cry, as if they meant to break in upon them, hoping thereby to make them give way, or to put them into disorder, but perceiving that the Christians stood firm, and expelled them in a very close order, they durst not push any farther, but made a halt; and finding the Christians did not stir, but stood expecting them, them, they made their discharge and wheeled off, upon which all the first Line of the Christians fired, and that done, the whole Army advanced with a slow pace, and so gained ground upon the Enemy, who returning, came up as before, the Christians thereupon made a halt, and expelled them, and the Turks having made their discharge, again retired, which they repeated several times without ever daring to break in upon the Christians, who still gained ground, and drove the Turks before them like a Flock of Sheep; Being come near the Enemies Camp, a Body of Foot and Dragoons was detached to attack their Cannon, which they made themselves Masters of without much Opposition, the Enemy having but a small number of Foot to defend them, and even their Horse made no great resistance in any place, though on the side of the Right Wing, they endeavoured to charge the Christians in Flank, but the King of Poland mistrusting it, caused part of the second Line to advance, and make a Front on that side, and charging the Enemy in Person with the first Line, made them give way. During the hottest of the Battle, the Turks attacked the Town, and pressed the Besieged so hard, that the Count de Staremberg was forced to send to the Duke of Lorraine for assistance, with the help whereof, all the Turks that were in the Attack were cut in pieces. In conclusion, towards night the Enemy began to give way, and to fly, the Christians pursuing them beyond their Camp, and there they made a halt, the Soldiers being commanded upon pain of death not to stir out of their Ranks, and the whole Army remained all night in Battalia, as if the Enemy had been still present. The next day the Camp was plundered, half of a Company going out at a time, while the other half continued in Arms, and when they returned, these went out in like manner. All the Enemies Baggage, Provisions, Tents, 50 Pieces of Cannon, two Horse-Tails, the Grand Seignior's Standard, and the Visier's own Horse, were taken, and most of their Foot were cut in pieces, which it's believed was not above 12 or 15000 they having lost an incredible number during the Siege. This great Victory, which was obtained at so cheap a rate, that the Christians lost not 1000 Men, and very few Persons of Note, (the Duke de Croy, and some others being wounded) must in great measure be attributed to the great Conduct and bravery of the King of Poland, who engaged in Person among the thickest of the Enemy, having with him the Prince his eldest Son, but 15 years old, who thus early signalized himself; the Electors of Bavaria and Saxony, the Duke of Lorraine, and Prince Waldecke, have likewise gained great Honour and Reputation, much of the Success of this great Day being due to them.
