POST HORSE DUTIES.

Stamp-Office, London, October 30, 1829.

NOTICE is hereby given, that, by virtue of an Act, passed in the fourth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act to repeal the duties upon horses let to hire for the purpose of travelling in Great Britain, and to grant other duties in lieu thereof, and to provide for letting the same to farm," the Commissioners of Stamps will put up the Duties therein mentioned, at the Crown and Anchor Tavern, in the Strand, on Friday the 11th day of December next, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, subject to such conditions as will then be produced, to be let to farm at yearly rents, for the term of three years, from the 1st day of February next inclusive, in the several divisions or districts following, that is to say:

No. DISTRICTS.

1. North Britain.
2. Northumberland (with the town of Newcastle-upon-Tyne), Cumberland, Westmorland, and Durham.
3. Yorkshire (with the city of York, and town of Kingston-upon-Hull).
4. Lancashire, Cheshire (with the city of Chester), Derbyshire, Staffordshire (with the city of Lichfield, and the whole of Tamworth),
5. Lincolnshire (with the city of Lincoln), Nottinghamshire (with the town of Nottingham), Leicestershire, Rutlandshire.
6. Northamptonshire (except Wansford Inn), Warwickshire (with the city of Coventry, excepting Tamworth), Oxfordshire.
7. Worcestershire (and city of Worcester), Gloucestershire (with the city of Gloucester, excepting the city of Bristol), Wiltshire.
8. Norfolk (with the city of Norwich), Suffolk, Essex, Cambridgeshire.
9. Bedfordshire, Buckinghamshire, Hertfordshire, Huntingdonshire (with Wandsford Inn).
10. Surrey.
11. Middlesex (with the cities of London and Westminster, and the town of Barnet).
12. Kent (with the city of Canterbury, and the Cinque Ports), Sussex.
13. Hampshire (with Southampton), Berkshire.
14. Cornwall, Devonshire (with city of Exeter), Dorsetshire (with the town of Poole), Somersetshire (with the city of Bristol).
15. North Wales, and Shropshire.
16. South Wales (with Herefordshire and Monmouthshire).

The person declared to be the farmer of any district will be required to pay down immediately, in Bank notes, seven and a half per cent. upon the annual rent of such district as a deposit.

The farmer of each district will be required to give bond, with three or more sureties, to be approved of by the Commissioners of Stamps, in the penalty of half the annual rent, for securing the payment of the rent and the performance of the contract.

All persons intending to bid for any of the said duties are to notify their intention in writing, addressed to the Commissioners, at the Stamp-Office, Somerset-place, at least three days previous to the said 11th day of December next, signed with their names, stating the places of their abode, and specifying the district or districts for which they intend to bid.

And no persons licenced to let horses for hire, nor any one for their use, can be admitted to contract for any of the said duties.

By order of the Commissioners,

Charles Pressly, Secretary.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to alter, amend, and extend the powers and provisions of an Act, passed in the fiftieth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for better assessing and collecting the poor and other rates in the parish of Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, and regulating the poor thereof;" and for other purposes relating thereto.—Dated this 19th day of November 1829.

Wm. Wood, Solicitor, Richmond-buildings, Soho.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made in the ensuing session of Parliament, for a Bill or Bills giving powers for constructing the following works; an arcade or covered way from Picket-place, Strand, to Serle-street; from Bishopsgate-street to Broad-street; from Lothbury to London-wall; to pass through the parishes of Saint Clement Danes, in the county of Middlesex; Alhallows, London-wall; Saint Stephen, Coleman-street; Saint Margaret's, Lothbury; Saint Bartholomew, near the Royal Exchange; Saint Peter Lepore; Saint Helena; Saint Martin Outwich, in the city of London.—29, Lombard-street.

F. Fortune.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament, in the ensuing session, for an Act for making, constructing, and maintaining an arcade, or covered way for foot-passengers, with all suitable and commodious erections, works, and conveniences attached thereto, or connected therewith, which said arcade, or covered way, is intended to commence the south-side of London-wall, in the parish of Saint Stephen, Coleman-street, in the city of London, and extending to or passing over through and into the said parish of Saint Stephen, Coleman street, and also the several parishes of Saint Margaret, Lothbury, and Saint Bartholomew, by the Exchange, Saint Peter le-Poer and Alhallows, on London-wall, to terminate at or near a place called the Bank-chambers, in Lothbury, at the north-end of Bartholomew-lane, all being within the said city of London; and that it is also intended to obtain power by the said Act for authorising the taking and purchasing of lands, tenements, buildings, and other property within the said several parishes, and to vary, alter and divert the avenues, passages, and ways for passing over and leading through, and into some or one of them, and to abandon and discontinue certain parts of the said avenues, passages, and ways, and to complete the said arcade, or covered way, and all other necessary works connected with, or relating to the said undertaking.—Dated this 14th day of November 1829.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill or Bills for making and maintaining a wet dock or docks for colliers and other ships and vessels, with entrances, piers, locks, jetties, basins, reservoirs, cuts, roads, canals, wharfs, bridges, warehouses, and other works; also for altering and amending the Acts, passed in the fifty-second and fifty-sixth years of the reign of His late Majesty George the Third, for making a canal from the Grand Junction Canal, in the parish of Paddington, to the River Thames, in the parish of Limehouse; and the Acts passed in the twelfth year of the reign of George the Second, and the seventh, nineteenth, twenty-ninth, and forty-fifth years of the reign of George the Third, for the better preservation and further improvement of the navigation of the River Lee, in the counties of Hertford, Essex, and Middlesex; also for extending the term and enlarging the powers of an Act, passed in the ninth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for more effectually repairing and improving the several roads called the Cannon-street-roads, the Commercial-road, the Horseferry branch of road, the East India Dock-road, the Barking-road, and the Shadwell and Mile End branch of road, in the counties of Middlesex and Essex; and for laying down a stoneway on the said Commercial, East India Dock, and Barking Roads;" and of the several Acts of the fifty-first and fifty-second years of the reign of His late Majesty George the Third, relating to the Archway and Kentish Town Junction Road; and of the Acts of the fifty-second and fifty-fourth years of His said late Majesty, relating to the Poplar and Greenwich Ferry and Roads; and for making and maintaining a turnpike road or roads from the Commercial and East India Dock Roads to the parish of Saint Mary, Stratford, Bow, in the county of Middlesex; and for building a bridge over, and altering the course, of the New Cut of the said River Lea; and for amending the Act, passed in last sessions, relating to the said last-mentioned parish; and also for enlarging the powers and extending the jurisdiction of His Majesty's Justices and Commissioners of Sewers acting in and for the limits of the Tower Hamlets, and the limits of Poplar, otherwise Stebunheath Marsh; and for imposing, altering, and increasing the tolls, rates, and duties for all the said several works and undertakings; all of which are intended to be made, constructed, or formed, or to go or pass into, along, or through the several parishes, places, townships, and hamlets of Saint Pancras; Saint Mary, Islington; Saint Mary, Stratford, Bow; Saint Leonard, Bromley, otherwise Bromley St. Leonard; Saint John, at Hackney; Saint Matthew, Bethnal-green; Christ Church; All Saints, Poplar; Saint Ann (commonly called Saint Ann, Limehouse);

Saint Dunstan, Stebunheath, otherwise Stepney; Saint George (commonly called Saint George in the East); Saint Paul, Shadwell; Saint John of Wapping (otherwise called Saint John, at Wapping); Saint Mary Matfellow, otherwise Whitechapel; Saint Botolph, Aldgate; the precinct of Wellclose; the hamlet of Mile End Old Town; and the hamlet of Ratcliff, all in the county of Middlesex.—Dated this 7th day of November 1829.

William Baker, Solicitor, Limehouse, or No. 5, Nicholas-lane, Lombard-street, London.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for removing the market at present held for the sale of hay and straw, in a certain street called the Haymarket, in the parishes of Saint Martin in the Fields and Saint James, within the liberty of Westminster, in the county of Middlesex; and for repealing a certain Act, passed in the eighth and ninth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Third, intituled "An Act for paving and regulating the Haymarket, in the parishes of Saint Martin in the Fields and Saint James, within the liberty of Westminster;" and a certain other Act, passed in the thirty-first year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Second, intituled "An Act to ascertain the weight of trusses of straw, and to punish deceits in the sale of hay and straw in trusses, in London and within the weekly bills of mortality, and within the distance of thirty miles thereof; and to prevent common salesmen of hay and straw from buying the same on their own account to sell again; and also to restrain salesmen, brokers, or factors in cattle, from buying on their own account to sell again any live cattle, in London or within the weekly bills of mortality, or which are driving up thereto;" and a certain other Act, passed in the thirty-sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act to regulate the buying and selling of hay and straw; and for repealing so much of two Acts, made in the second year of the reign of King William and Queen Mary, and in the thirty-first year of the reign of King George the Second, as relate to the buying and selling of hay and straw within the limits therein mentioned;" so far as the said Acts, or either of them, relate to or affect the said market, called the Haymarket; and for establishing markets within the areas of those three several pieces or parcels of open ground or squares, known by the respective names of Yorkmarket, Clarence-market, and Cumberland-market, or any or either of them, situate in the parish of Saint Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, for the sale of hay, corn, straw, and other agricultural produce, fish, poultry, meat, and other animal food, fruit, herbs, flowers, plants, and other vegetable produce, and of all other articles, matters, and things, which are usually sold in public markets: and in such Bill it is intended that powers shall be inserted for appointing bailiffs, collectors, and other officers for preserving order and regularity; and for levying and collecting certain tolls and duties from persons exposing any commodity for sale in such intended markets; and also for making such alterations in the before-mentioned open spaces of ground or squares ; and for erecting such buildings thereon as may be deemed necessary or desirable for the purposes of a public market or markets.—November 14, 1829.

By order of the Commissioners of His Majesty's Woods, Forests, and Land Revenues, Green, Pemberton, and Crawley, Salisbury-square.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill for paving, lighting (by gas or otherwise), cleansing, watering, watching, and repairing such parts of Great Dover-street, Trinity-street, Trinity-square, and the several highways, roads, streets, lanes, courts, markets, passages, and places leading out thereof or abutting thereon or adjacent thereto, all within the parishes of Saint Mary, Newington, and Saint George the Martyr, Southwark, in the county of Surrey, as do not now fall within the powers and provisions of the several Acts of Parliament hereafter mentioned, or some or one of them (that is to say), an Act passed in the sixth year of the reign of His late Majesty King George the Third, intituled "An Act for paving the streets and lanes within the town and borough of Southwark and certain parts adjacent, in the county of Surrey, and for cleansing, lighting, and watching the same, and also the courts, yards, alleys, and passages adjoining thereto, and for preventing annoyances therein," an Act afterwards passed in the reign of His late Majesty, intituled "An Act for altering and amending an Act, passed in the sixth year of His present Majesty, for paving the streets and lanes within the borough of Southwark and certain parts adjacent, in the county of Surrey, and for cleansing, lighting, and watching the same, and also the courts, yards, alleys, and passages adjoining thereto, and for preventing annoyances therein, so far as the same relates to the west division thereof, as therein mentioned ;" also another Act, passed during the reign of His said late Majesty (that is to say) in the year one thousand eight hundred and twelve, intituled "An Act for paving the footpaths, and for lighting and watching that part of the Kent-street-road, which leads from Kent-street-end, unto the bridge next immediately below the Greenman turnpike, situated within the parish of Saint George the Martyr, Southwark, in the county of Surrey, and certain public streets, squares, lanes, passages, and places communicating therewith, respectively situated within the said parish, or within the parishes of Saint Mary Magdalen, Bermondsey, and Saint Mary, Newington, adjoining thereto, and for removing and preventing encroachments and annoyances therein ;" and for vesting the sole management and controul thereof in Commissioners to be appointed by the said intended Act; and that it is intended to obtain power for the raising of money for the several purposes of the said intended Act, by rates or assessments upon the proprietors and occupiers of premises within the limits of the said intended Act, or by some other means to be provided by the said intended Act.—Dated this 14th day of November 1829.

John Cruckshank, No. 9, King's Arms-yard, Coleman-street, Solicitor to the Bill.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the next session, for an Act for erecting, building, and maintaining a bridge over the River Thames, at or near a place called Millbank-row, in the parish of Saint John the Evangelist, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, to the opposite side of the river, in the parish of Saint Mary, Lambeth, in the county of Surrey, with proper and convenient advances and approaches thereto, within the said parishes of Saint John the Evangelist, Westminster, and Saint Mary, Lambeth.—November 12, 1829.

St. Katharine Docks.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session thereof, for leave to bring in a Bill to amend, alter, and enlarge the powers and provisions of two several Acts, one passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making and constructing certain wet docks, warehouses, and other works, in the parish of Saint Botolph Without, Aldgate, and in the parish or precinct of Saint Katharine, near the Tower of London, in the county of Middlesex ;" and the other, passed in the tenth year of the reign of His said present Majesty, intituled "An Act to amend an Act, passed in the sixth year of the reign of His present Majesty, intituled "An Act for making and constructing certain wet docks, warehouses, and other works, in the parish of Saint Botolph Without, Aldgate, and in the parish or precinct of Saint Katharine, near the Tower of London, in the county of Middlesex," and for extending the powers and provisions of the said Act."—Dated this 14th day of November 1829.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to Parliament in the ensuing session, for leave to bring in a Bill to authorise the Governor and Company of the New River, brought from Chadwell and Amwell to London, to construct and form a reservoir or acqueduct near the course of the said River at Clay-hill, Enfield, in the county of Middlesex, and for that purpose to take and purchase lands, and to form and lay mains, sluices, channels, and all other necessary works communicating with the said New River ; and also for altering, explaining, and amending an Act, passed in the twelfth year of the reign of King George the Second, intituled "An Act for ascertaining, preserving, and improving the navigation of the River Lea, from the town of Hertford to the town of Ware, in the county of Hertford, and for preserving and improving the said River from the said town of Ware to the New Cut or River made by the Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens of London, and for enabling the Governor and Company of the New River the better to supply the cities of London and Westminster, and the liberties and suburbs thereof, with good and wholesome water," for the purpose of explaining and better ascertaining the quantity of water to be taken from the said River Lea, out of Manifold Ditch, in or near Chadwell Mead, between the towns of Ware and Hertford, and the regulations respecting the same; and to authorise the said Governor and Company of the New River to take, procure, and obtain water from the said River Lea, at or near that part of the west bank of the said River where the parishes of Tottenham and Hackney meet, in the county of Middlesex, by means of pipes, conduits, or cuts to communicate with the said New River, at or about a place called the Dark Arch, in the parish or prebend of Stoke Newington, otherwise Newington, in the said county of Middlesex, in order more effectually to supply water to the metropolis and other places; and also, for the purposes aforesaid, to take and purchase lands, and to place, erect, lay, construct, make, extend, and continue all necessary reservoirs, pipes, drains, aqueducts, steam engines, and other works in, into, or through the parishes, townships, or places following (that is to say) Hackney, Tottenham, Stamford-hill, and Stoke Newington, in the said county of Middlesex, or some of them or some parts thereof; and also to enable the said Governor and Company to make, construct, and lay all necessary sluices, pipes, tunnels, or other works for the purpose of conveying and diverting any waste or flood waters or cross streams into or under the said New River, wherever the same may be deemed desirable along the course thereof; which said River passes through parts of the several parishes, townships, hamlets, or places following (that is to say); Saint John Hertford, Little Amwell, Ware, Great Amwell, Saint Margaret's, Hoddesdon, Broxbourne, Wormley, and Cheshunt, in the county of Hertford; and Enfield, Edmonton, Tottenham, Hornsey, Newington, Islington, and Clerkenwell, in the county of Middlesex: and also to prevent bathing, or casting or emptying of any filth or unwholesome matter in and into the said New River, or committing any nuisance or annoyance thereon, or doing any damage to the banks, bridges, or works along or over the same; and also to make further provisions for the better government, regulation, and protection of the affairs and property of the said Governor and Company of the New River, or relating thereto, or to the supply of water to the metropolis and other places.—November 12, 1829.

Hall, Thompson, and Sewell, Solicitors,
